WAREHOUSES FOR COUNTRY SPIRIT.

45. WAREHOUSES for the supply of country spirit to retail vendors may be established by the Commissioner at convenient places at the expense of Government. In special circumstances such warehouses may be constructed by a wholesale supply contractor or licensed vendor. Each such warehouse shall be supplied with country spirit by the manufacturer or wholesale dealer within whose area of supply such warehouse lies and shall be in charge of an Excise officer. The Commissioner is authorised to allow spirit to be received into the warehouse from other sources, than those above-named, if necessary.

46. Spirit intended for the warehouse is conveyed thereto under bond, and at the sole risk and responsibility of the wholesale dealer. The bond is discharged when the spirit has been deposited in the warehouse and has been duly gauged and proved by the officer in charge and after the duty on the excess deficiency, if any, has been realised. It will be the duty of the person licensed to supply such warehouse to keep such minimum stock of spirit at the warehouse as the Commissioner may from time to time direct.

47. No spirit shall be issued from a warehouse except under a pass. All casks or vats in a warehouse containing spirit must bear tickets showing the quantity of spirit contained therein, and the strength thereof. Issues made from time to time from such casks or vats will be noted thereon.

48. Spirit intended for a warehouse must be conveyed in sound and water-tight casks, the exact capacity of which must be branded or carved thereon.

49. Immediately on arrival of a consignment at the warehouse, the officer in charge shall open the vessels and measure and test the spirit in each vessel. If on comparison with the copy of the pass covering the consignment, any excessive deficiency is found to occur in any cask after measurement of the spirit by bung-rod, the whole contents of the cask shall be measured by gallon-measures, and the actual deficiency shall be thus ascertained. He shall then note the results in the prescribed registers, and also on the pass covering the consignment. One copy of the pass with the entries of receipt shall be immediately returned to the officer who issued the consignment, and the other copy with the entries thereon shall be kept in the warehouse.

50. Every warehouse shall be locked with a Government lock, the key of which shall remain with the officer in charge. Where the owner of the spirit keeps an agent permanently attached to the warehouse, he will be at liberty to affix his own lock also to the warehouse.

51. All spirit supplied to a warehouse shall be of good quality, and shall correspond with the sample approved by the Commissioner. If any spirit supplied be found by the officer in charge to be unfit for human consumption, a sample of such spirit shall be submitted to the Commissioner whose orders thereon shall be final If necessary, the Commissioner can order the destruction of such spirit. Pending the decision of the Commissioner, the officer in charge can stop the issue of such spirit.

52. Spirit supplied to a warehouse must be stored in casks, vats or iron tanks. The licensee shall supply these articles, and all other appliances which may be required for the blending, reducing or issue of spirit, and shall bear the cost of storing, blending or reducing the spirit.

53. Vats or tanks must be of such number and capacity, and set up according to such design, as the Commissioner may, by general or special order, direct. All vats, tanks or casks used for blending or reducing spirit must be provided with proper dip-rods, so that the contents may be readily ascertainable.

54. The working days and hours for issue of spirit from a warehouse shall be prescribed by the Collector in consideration of the needs of the retail vendors.

55. The reduction of spirit of high strength to the strength or strengths prescribed for issue shall be made according to rules framed by the Board. The receptacle in which spirit is reduced by the addition of water must be emptied before the operation is commenced. The wastage on account of reduction must be calculated and noted when the spirit is reduced.

56. Retail vendors shall take their supplies of spirit from the warehouse which is established for the area in which the retail shops are situated and at such strength or strengths as may be prescribed by the Board for retail sale. For special reasons the Collector may permit retail vendors to take their supply from any other warehouse assigned to the same wholesale dealer. The quantity of spirit to be issued to a retail vendor at any one time shall not be less than one gallon.

57. A retail vendor desiring to obtain a supply of spirit from a warehouse shall pay the duty leviable thereon, into the treasury or sub-treasury of the place where such warehouse is situated. In the case of outlying warehouses the vendors may, if convenient to them, send the amount by money-order to the Excise Deputy Collector.

58. The quantity of spirit required, its strength, and the amount due for duty, shall be separately noted by the vendor on the challan, or on the money-order form. The officer in charge shall, on receipt of a copy of the challan showing payment of the amount due into the treasury or sub-treasury or of the money-order receipt showing payment into the Post Office, prepare a transport pass in the prescribed form and shall issue the spirit specified in such pass.

59. With the special sanction of the Collector, and for exceptional reasons, e.g., closure of the treasury or Post Office, the officer in charge of the warehouse can receive the amount due for duty on account of spirit required by any vendor, and on such receipt can issue the spirit required. Such amount must be duly credited into the treasury or sent by money-order to the Excise Deputy Collector invariably on the next open day.

60. A retail vendor may credit into the treasury or sub-treasury lump sums from time to time on account of duty. A ledger account of each such vendor shall then be kept by the officer in charge of the warehouse. The account shall be balanced after each transaction.

61. The officer in charge of the warehouse shall be responsible that spirit in excess of the credit of each vendor is not issued.

62. As each cask, vat or other receptacle is emptied, the wastage occurring therein shall be noted by the officer in charge in the prescribed register. If the wastage is found to exceed 1 per cent., calculated on the number of proof gallons, of the quantity stored, the Excise Deputy Collector or Sub divisional Officer shall specially enquire into the cause for such wastage, and report the facts to the Collector who will take such action thereupon as he considers necessary.

63. The wholesale dealer shall be responsible for any such excessive wastage, if it is found to occur from any negligence on his part in supplying unsound casks, tanks or vats, or on the part of any person conducting the operations on his behalf.

DENATURED SPIRIT.

64. Spirit imported from other provinces in British India under bond in accordance with the rules for import of foreign liquor may be denatured in the distillery or excise warehouse where such spirit is warehoused, and then issued subject to the rate of duty prescribed in that behalf.

When the admixture is completed, the liquor shall be tested by drawing a sample of about half an ounce from each cask or drum, and adding to each sample separately three or four times that quantity of water. If the mixture becomes turbid and milky, the liquor shall be admitted to the rate of duty prescribed for denatured spirit. In case of dispute as to whether the liquid has become turbid and milky, the decision of the Collector shall be final.

(b) The denaturing of spirit for ordinary use shall be done in tanks kept for the purpose and properly gauged.

(3) When the ingredients are crude wood naphtha and mineral naphtha the crude wood naphtha shall be mixed with the spirit, which shall not be of less strength than 30 per cent. over-proof, in the proportion of one part by volume of the naphtha to nine parts by volume of the spirit, and to this mixture shall be added three-eights per cent. of mineral naphtha of specific gravity not less than ·800.

Provided that—

(a) if the consignment contains casks or drums of not less than 50 gallons each, the person denaturing may demand that not less than one sample shall be sent from each such cask or drum;

(b) if the consignment contains casks or drums of less than 50 gallons each, the person denaturing may, and shall, if so ordered by the Collector, before admixture of the denaturalising ingredients, pour the contents of two or more such casks or drums into one or more casks or drums of not less than 50 gallons capacity; and, when this is done, the spirit shall be treated, for the purpose of testing and for the levy of expenses under clauses (6) and (7) as if originally stored in such larger casks or drums.

(5). After considering the Chemical Examiner's report and other circumstances, if any, bearing upon the case, the Collector shall decide whether the said spirit shall be allowed removal or not at the rate of duty prescribed for denatured spirit. Should any of the samples examined by the Chemical Examiner be reported by him as not rendered effectually and permanently unfit for human consumption, the claim in respect of the whole of the spirit represented by the sample shall be rejected, and the spirit shall either be dealt with in all respects as spirit chargeable with the ordinary rate of duty, or, if the person denaturing the spirit so desire be further treated under clauses (2), (3) and (4) for the purpose of rendering it effectually and permanently unfit for human consumption.

(6) A fee of Rs. 2 shall be paid for each sample sent for chemical analysis. An additional fee of Re. 1 for each set of samples sent shall be paid to cover the cost of taking and sending samples from the licensed distillery or excise warehouse to the Chemical Examiner.

(7) Any expense which may be incurred by the Collector in rendering spirit unfit for human consumption, or in ascertaining that it has been so rendered, shall be paid by the person denaturing the spirit before the removal of the spirit is allowed.

67. When such spirit has been rendered permanently unfit for human consumption in the manner above prescribed, it may be issued to persons licensed to sell such spirit or to use such spirit for special purposes.

(4) When a shop licensed for the vend of an excisable article upon which duty is imposed under section 27 of the Bengal Excise Act, 1909, or under the Indian Tariff Act, 1894, is closed, the Collector shall calculate the average daily sale in the shop, based on the sales during the previous months of the year, and the profit of the vendor on such daily sales after deducting from the average total sale-proceeds the amount of duty, the cost price and contingent expenses at 6¼ per cent. of the sale-proceeds. Compensation shall then be granted at the rate of such daily profit for the number of days during which the shop remains closed.

TIME, PLACE AND MANNER OF PAYMENT OF DUTY.

126. The duty imposed on ganja exported by sea, or on ganja and bhang exported to the States of Bonai, Gangpur, Seraikhela, Kharswan, Nepal, Bhutan, Sikkim or the French territory of Chandernagore shall be paid before issue of such ganja or bhang from the excise warehouse where it is stored.

127. Half of the duty imposed on charas to be imported shall be paid at the time of application to the Collector and half after examination in the importing district and before it is made over to the importer for sale.

128. When the duty on an excisable article is to be paid before removal from a distillery or excise warehouse the payment must be made into the local treasury either by direct payment or by money-order. Advance deposits on account of duty may also be made with permission of the Collector.

129. No allowance shall be made for any loss of ganja or bhang in transit under bond. The duty on such deficiency as may occur shall be recovered by the officer in charge of the excise warehouse where the ganja or bhang is deposited after import or transport.

DESTRUCTION OF EXCISABLE ARTICLES DEEMED TO BE UNFIT FOR USE.

130. Ganja or bhang stored in a warehouse and deemed by the Collector to be unfit for use shall be destroyed at the end of the year, after the annual stock-taking and closure of accounts.

131. Any excisable article kept on the premises of a vendor licensed to sell such article and found after necessary examination to be unfit for human consumption may be destroyed under orders of the Collector.

DISPOSAL OF THINGS CONFISCATED UNDER THE BENGAL EXCISE ACT, 1909.

134. The sale or other disposal of things confiscated under the Act shall be deferred till the period of appeal against the order of confiscation has expired, or if an appeal be made against such order till the appeal is disposed of: Provided (1) that the sale of any animal or other thing ordered to be confiscated shall not be so deferred unless the owner or his agent deposit with the Collector such sum as the Collector may consider to be required and to be sufficient for the keep or safe custody of such animal or other thing pending the result of such appeal, and (2) that if the thing be of a perishable nature it may be sold immediately.

135. If any order of confiscation of any thing be reversed on appeal, such thing, or the sale-proceeds thereof, and the amount, if any, deposited, for the keep or safe custody of such thing shall be at once returned to the owner thereof, or his agent, under the order of the Collector. Should no one appear to receive the thing confiscated, the sale-proceeds or the amount, if any, deposited, within two months from the order on appeal, such thing, sale-proceeds or amount, shall be forfeited to Government.

136. Confiscated foreign liquor, tari, pachwai and majum shall be sold by auction. If there is no bid the article shall be destroyed.

137. Confiscated country spirit, ganja, bhang and charas shall be sold by auction subject to a reserved price which shall be equal to the amount of duty leviable on the article in the place in which the sale takes place. Where the outstill system is in force, country spirit shall be sold for any price above Re. 1 per gallon. If such price be not obtained, the article shall be destroyed.

138. Confiscated cocaine or novocaine when found fit for use shall be used for the public service in accordance with instructions specially issued from time to time in that behalf; when not fit for such use it shall be destroyed.

140. When the highest bidder for any confiscated article sold under rule 136 or rule 137 is not a licensed vendor of such article, and the quantity thereof is more than the quantity fixed as the limit of a retail sale under section 5 of the Act the Collector may, in his discretion, grant to such person a permit under section 19 to possess, but not to sell, the article, or may refuse to accept the bid and may accept another bid, or may order the article to be destroyed.

No. 3836*I*.

Government of Bengal.

IRRIGATION DEPARTMENT.

IRRIGATION.

Dated Calcutta, the 29th November 1909.

RESOLUTION.

READ—

The Embankment and Drainage Reports for the year 1908-09.

The expenditure incurred on works and repairs (exclusive of book charges for establishment and tools and plant) during the year on embankments and drainage works in Bengal amounted to Rs. 10,55,725 as compared with Rs. 9,13,812 in the preceding year. There was an increase of expenditure on embankments and a decrease under drainage works.

2. Lengths of embankments and areas protected.—The various embankments of all classes maintained by Government in the Province have an aggregate length of 2,145 miles and 916 feet, and give protection to a total area of 8,658,699 acres.

There was an increase of 1 mile 3,972 feet in the length of the Orissa embankments. In the South-Western Circle a length of 1 mile and

2,639 feet was added by taking over the embankment on the right bank of the Hooghly river from Ulubaria to Champa khal. In the Gandak Circle there was an increase of 3,395 feet. There has been no change in the Northern Circle. The embankments are generally effective against floods, but a few of them are overtopped or breached during very high floods.

3. Floods—Orissa Circle.—There were moderate floods in the rivers Mahanadi, Koakhye, Dya and Brahmini. No damage was done. The highest flood in the Byturni river was 6·40 feet below the highest known, and the floods in the rivers in the Balasore Division were also low.

South-Western Circle.—There were no high floods in any of the rivers, and little or no damage was done to the embankments There were two floods in the Selye river, and some of the breaches caused by the floods of 1907-08 were enlarged. The Harisingpur retired line was breached, and about 20 square miles of the Chetua circuit was damaged. Floods in the Cossye river caused some damage to the Raniganj road between Midnapore and Godapiasal. There were three floods in the Damodar river; that on 10th July 1908 was 2 feet lower than the highest recorded. The flood in the Bhagirathi river on 11th September 1908 was 3·69 feet below the highest recorded. No damage was done to the embankment.

Gandak Circle.—There were no heavy floods in any of the rivers. A new gauge station was established during the year at Bya near Zero of the Tirhut embankment in the running stream of the river Gandak to record cold-weather readings. The highest flood in the river Ganges at Bazitpur was 5½ feet lower than the highest recorded level in 1879. The flood levels of the river Bagmati were about the same as in the previous year. The highest flood in the Bur Gandak river was 3 feet below that of the previous year. No damage was done to any of the embankments in this circle.

The Bhatinda sluice at the 32nd mile of the abandoned portion of the Baijoo retired line of the Champaran embankment has been cut away by the river. There were minor erosions in certain portions of the Saran embankment.

4. Breaches—Orissa Circle.—A breach 45 feet in length occurred in the 3rd mile of Daib right embankment, No. 88B, and another breach, 150 feet long, in embankment No. 93B, Katjuri right, at Sarasundarpur. A short length at the end of the Chittertola right embankment, No. 56 (c), class B, was carried away owing to the cutting of the river channel just beyond the end of the embankment. There were no other breaches during the year.

South Western Circle.—Twenty-eight breaches occurred in the embankments. Of these, eight occurred in the Selye left embankment, seven in the Ghatal circuit embankment, seven in the Chetua circuit embankment and four in the Darkeswar right embankment. The total expenditure incurred in closing breaches and in executing flood-damage repairs to the embankments was Rs. 1,56,274, against Rs. 94,881 in the previous year. The increase in 1908-09 was due to repairing the damage done by the floods of 1907 to the embankments in the Cossye Division.

Gandak and Northern Circles.—There were no breaches in the embankments in these circles.

5. Surveys and Investigations.—The below-specified work was done during the year in connection with surveys and investigations:—

Orissa Circle.—Plans and estimates were prepared for raising certain portions of the Argowal circuit embankment. The survey of the Subarnarekha river is still in progress. A project for a new embankment on the left bank of the Subarnarekha river in lieu of the present Bhograi and Jokee embankments, which was laid before the Embankment Committee, was not approved. Their recommendation has been accepted by Government.

South Western Circle.—(a) A survey of the Chetua circuit embankment and adjacent rivers with a view to ascertain some means for mitigating the damage done by the floods of the Selye river; (b) discharge observations of the Rupnarain and Selye rivers and the Mohunkhally khal were recorded; (c) surveys of the portion of the 37th and 38th miles of the Hooghly left embankment at Hooghly Point, where the river is encroaching; (d) survey in connection with the Begua spill weir; (e) a survey for the drainage of the town of Berhampur and improvement of the Gobra nala in the district of Murshidabad.

In the South-Western Circle the expenditure on ordinary repairs to Schedule D and other embankments was Rs. 91,620, against Rs. 1,01,588 in the previous year. There was a decrease in the districts of Burdwan, Midnapore and Murshidabad, while the expenditure in the other districts was rather greater than that of the previous year. On (class C, thikati embankments under contract, i.e., the class of embankments maintained at the expense of persons benefited in the Midnapore, Muzaffarpur, Saran and Champaran districts, a sum of Rs. 1,20, 97 was expended during the year as compared with the contract provision of Rs. 1,05,070. The outlay on the maintenance and special repairs of the Gandak embankments was Rs. 68,471, against Rs. 39,230 in the preceding year. The expenditure on the Midnapore embankments of this class in the Cossye and Balasore Divisions was Rs. 51,926, against Rs. 31,052 during the previous year.

8. Retired lines. - In the Orissa Circle Rs. 8,277, including charges for slope cutting (which is an alternative measure, was expended, against Rs. 1,509 in the previous year. In the South-Western Circle the expenditure in the Burdwan, Hooghly, Midnapore and Murshidabad districts was Rs. 60,313, against Rs. 41,495 in the previous year. The increase was chiefly in the Hooghly and Midnapore districts, while there was a decrease in the Murshidabad and 24-Parganas districts. In the Gandak Circle Rs. 40,774 was expended on the Saran and Tirhut embankments, the outlay of the previous year being Rs. 4.000 only. No retired lines were constructed in the Northern Circle.

9. Protection of River Banks.—In the Orissa Circle the total outlay incurred on repairs to revetments and other works for the protection of the river banks was Rs 16,347, against Rs. 13,707 in the preceding year. The expenditure on similar works in the South-Western and Gandak Circles was, respectively, Rs. 52,029 and Rs. 2,574.

10. Financial.—The actual outlay during the year on the Orissa embankments (class A) maintained as agricultural works, exclusive of charges for establishment and tools and plant, was Rs. 57,482, against Rs. 53,038 in the previous year, the average rate per mile being Rs. 118. The expenditure on class B

Government embankments was Rs. 3,45,720, against Rs. 2,63,150 in the previous year; the average rate being Rs. 320 per mile, against Rs 245 in 1907-08. In the case of the embankments maintained on behalf of the persons benefited at a fixed annual charge in the districts of Midnapore, Saran, Champaran and Muzaffarpur, the aggregate expenditure of the year was Rs. 1,20,397 as against contract payments amounting to Rs.. 1,05,070. In Saran the expenditure was considerably in excess of the contract payments of the year, and in the other districts the maintenance charges were below the payments made. The payments and charges for a period of nine years are shown in a statement appended to this Resolution.

11. Works undertaken under the provisions of the Drainage Act, VI (B. C.) of 1880.—The Dankuni, Howrah, Rajapur and Barajolla drainage works in charge of the Executive Engineer, Northern Drainage and Embankment Division, were maintained in good order at a cost of Rs. 8,250 as compared with Rs. 18,122 in the preceding year.

The receipts from these works hitherto credited to the Civil Department have been transferred to this Department from 1st April 1907.

12. Works undertaken under the provisions of the Sanitary Drainage Act, VIII (B. C.) of 1895.—The only work which has as yet been taken up under this Act is that known as the Magra Hât drainage scheme in the 24-Parganas district. It is designed to drain the swamps around Magra Hât in the central portion of the tracts enclosed by the 24-Parganas embankments. Rupees 14,06,031 has been expended to date, of which Rs. 3,50,378 was expended during the year on works, establishment and tools and plant. Fair progress has been made with the scheme. Sections II and III were nearly completed during the year. The main sluice at Diamond Harbour in connection with Section I was practically completed. The creek at Diamond Harbour was closed with a strong cross dam in March 1909.

13. Drainage works carried out under the provisions of the Embankment Act, II (B. C.) of 1882.—In the Orissa Circle the construction of the Argowal drainage khal with an outfall sluice was practically completed. Maintenance and Repairs.—The Charial khal drainage scheme was maintained in good condition at a cost of Rs. 1,575 as compared with Rs. 1,596 in the previous year. A large number of sluices in the schedule D embankments are maintained under the provisions of the Act at the cost of the estates benefited.

14. Drainage works carried out at the cost of Government, but not under the provisions of any Act.—The Bullee bhil drainage works in the 24-Parganas district were efficiently maintained at a cost of Rs. 3,020. In the Midnapore district the Balliaghai main and branch drains, which are used both for drainage and navigation, were kept open to traffic throughout the year. The main drain has silted up very considerably, and silt clearance will be done as funds become available. The khas tahsil khals in charge of this Department in the same district were cleared of silt at a total cost of Rs. 13,181. Other khas tahsil khals are reported to have deteriorated slowly, and steps will be taken to effect silt clearance gradually by an increased annual grant.

By order of the Lieutenant-Governor of Bengal,

RESOLUTION ON THE REPORT OF THE BOARD OF REVENUE ON THE LAND REVENUE ADMINISTRATION OF THE LOWER PROVINCES FOR THE YEAR 1908-1909.

REVENUE DEPARTMENT—LAND REVENUE.

READ—

The Report of the Board of Revenue on the Land Revenue Administration of the Lower Provinces for the year 1908-09.

The Land Revenue Department of the Board was administered by the Hon'ble Mr. R. T. Greer, C.S.I., from the 1st April 1908 till the 9th November 1908, and by the Hon'ble Mr. F. A. Slacke, C.S.I., during the rest of the year. The work in the Partition and Land Acquisition Branches was in charge of the Hon'ble Mr. W. C. Macpherson, C.S.I., the Hon'ble Mr. R. T. Greer, C.S.I., and the Hon'ble Mr. E. W. Collin during different periods of the year.

2. Demand, Collections, Balances and Remissions.—The current demand of the year was Rs. 2,88,87,332, or over Rs. 1,42,000 in excess of that of the previous year. The percentage of total collections on the total demand dropped from 96·35 in 1907-08 to 96·03 in 1908-09, the lowest percentage during the quinquennial period. This result was due to bad harvests and high prices. The total collections were about Rs. 96,000 less than the current demand. The remissions amounted to Rs. 59,434.

3. Road and Public Works Cesses.—The current demand on account of cesses shows an increase of Rs. 2,71,365, due mainly to revaluation proceedings and to revision of assessment of mines and forests in various districts. The total collections rose by Rs. 1,20,2-0. The percentage of collections on the current demand fell from 101·07 in the previous year to 98·9. In 17 districts collections were below the prescribed standard, but the explanations given are generally adequate. In seven districts the percentage of collections on the current demand was below 95, and this was mainly due to the suspension of collections of cesses in flood-affected areas and decrease of voluntary payments caused by unfavourable agricultural conditions. Revaluation proceedings were in progress in 14 out of 30 districts in which the Cess Act is in force.

4. Money-orders.—There was a considerable increase in the number of revenue money-orders and the amount of land revenue and cesses thus remitted. The number of rent money-orders was less, but the amount covered by them showed some increase. The percentage of refusals rose from 22·5 in 1907-08 to 26·9. A high percentage is to be expected, as use is likely to be made of the system mainly by tenants and tenure-holders whose relations with their landlords are strained, but this upward leap is disquieting.

5. Coercive measures.—The revenue sale law was as usual administered with leniency and moderation. Although the number of defaults rose from 8,843 to 14,785, the number of sales decreased by 17, the percentage on defaults falling from 7·6 to 4·4 As one of the most common causes of default is disagreement among co-sharers, this result was probably mainly due to the instructions issued by the Board in the preceding year regarding the exercise of a discretion in granting exemptions from sale in the case of estates owned by co-sharers. The number of certificates filed during the year was 141,013 as against 139,044 in the preceding year. The number of cases completed fell short of the number filed during the year by 665, the falling off being shared by all the divisions except Tirhut and Bhagalpur. The Burdwan division shows the largest number of cases pending for more than six months.

6. Condition of the raiyats in Government estates and expenditure on Improvements and Education.—The year under review was a hard one for all who depend on the land, and the raiyats in Government estates did not escape their share of the trouble. Expenditure on miscellaneous and sanitary improvements was smaller than usual, owing to the diversion of some of the money allotted to this head to other objects. That this should be possible is a matter for regret, and would seem to afford grounds for the change in the budget system which the Board have intimated their intention to propose. The numbers of schools and pupils, however, in Government estates have both increased, and the progress of education affords ground for satisfaction.

7. Advances.—The amounts advanced during the year 1908-09 under the Land Improvement and Agriculturists' Loans Acts were Rs. 9,74,780 and Rs. 35,41,044 respectively. Rupees 4,23,561 and Rs. 1,22,200 were advanced under the former Act in the years 1907-08 and 1906-07, and Rs. 13,83,782 and Rs. 17,47,818 under the latter. The very large increase under both heads is due to a great extent to the policy now adopted by Government of using loans as a means of alleviating scarcity occasioned by crop failure when it falls short of actual famine. The raiyats are thus kept in condition to take advantage of the earliest opportunities for cultivation, and money which would otherwise have to be spent on unremunerative relief is saved. The loans are readily taken by the raiyats and, as a rule, promptly repaid. In 1908-09, however, Rs. 16,00,000, or about 66 per cent. of the current demand was not collected, temporary suspensions being given in the Tirhut, Bhagalpur and Chota Nagpur divisions on account of scarcity. Now that normal conditions have been restored, the Lieutenant-Governor trusts that this heavy outstanding balance will be collected at an early date.

8. Drainage and Irrigation.—Further progress was made in the important scheme for the drainage of the Mograhat swamps in the 24-Parganas. A new departure of importance during the current year was the semi-artesian well-boring experiments in Muzaffarpur, which helped to provide water during the late scarcity in that district, at a time when there was some danger of a complete failure of supply. As a temporary expedient boring on this system proved most useful. Until the tubes have been working for some time, however, and it can be seen whether or not they tend to become choked, it is too early to pronounce the idea a permanent success. Should it prove to be so, as neither the plant required nor the process is expensive, it seems likely that wells of this nature might be sunk with no more difficulty in many parts of the alluvial area and provide at least a partial solution of the pure-water problem in Bengal. During 1908 orders were passed by Government exempting all persons liable to pay embankment cess of less than 4 annas a year. Although Government incurs by this a charge of less than Rs. 2,000, nearly 69,000 proprietors were benefited by it.

9. Partitions.—There was a slight decrease in the number of cases instituted, but an increase in the number completed. This is satisfactory, but room for improvement yet remains. The Board are still engaged in considering reforms in procedure, and the Lieutenant-Governor trusts that their proposals may be received before long.

10. Sundarbans.—The reclamation work at Fraserganj was practically completed during the year. The result of the experiment, however, has been disappointing, and Government has decided to lease the estate.

11. Working of the Tenancy Act.—The Bengal Tenancy Act continued to work fairly satisfactorily. The levy of illegal cesses by zamindars in addition to rent has by no means ceased, but it is reported that the preparation of a record-of-rights in the Tirhut, Bhagalpur and Patna divisions has done much to teach the tenants their rights. A new Tenancy Bill for Orissa is at present under the consideration of Government.

12. Weather, crops, prices of food, wages and material condition of the people, etc.—The season of 1908 was bad. The harvest was poor and prices remained high. Jute cultivation was contracted owing to depression in trade, and sugar-cane suffered along with other crops from the dry seasons, so that money was as scarce as food Although wages rose with the prices of food, all classes alike were affected by the scarcity which prevailed in different parts of Bengal. Fortunately, emigration within the province and to other parts of India aided by improved communications, continues to increase, and helps to relieve the suffering from bad harvests and pressure of the population on the soil. The money-order system facilitates the prompt remittance of the wages thus earned to the centres that need them, and the famine which compels the labourer to leave his home often proves a blessing in disguise. The growing tendency to travel in search of work, together with the importation of new ideas which it entails, probably accounts for the continued improvement in the standard of living among all classes of the population. Numerous articles which a few years ago were the luxuries of the well-to-do are fast becoming necessities for the many. These new needs provide a stimulus for trade which it is to be hoped will result in the development and creation of Indian industries, without which a population so largely dependent on agriculture must continue to remain at the mercy of the seasons.

13. The Lieutenant-Governor thanks the Board for their administration of the Land Revenue Department. The names of officers mentioned as deserving of special commendation have been noted by the Lieutenant-Governor and will be recorded by the Appointment Department.

By order of the Lieutenant-Governor of Bengal,

F. W. DUKE,

Chief Secy. to the Govt. of Bengal.

No. 2771A, Dated Calcutta, the 13th August 1909.

From—E. LISTER, ESQ., Offg. Secretary to the Board of Revenue, L. P,
To—The Chief Secretary to the Government of Bengal.

THE HON'BLE MR. F. A. SLACKE, C.S.I.

I AM directed to submit the following report on the Land Revenue Administration of the Lower Provinces for the year 1908-09.

2. Two maps illustrating the progress made in survey and settlement, respectively, are appended to this report in accordance with Government order No. 762, dated the 16th February 1909.

3. The Land Revenue Department of the Board was administered by the Hon'ble Mr. R. T. Greer, C.S.I., from the 1st April 1908 to the forenoon of the 9th November 1908 and by the Hon'ble Mr. F. A. Slacke, C.S.I., from the latter date to the close of the year. The work in the Partition and Land Acquisition Branches (paragraphs 87-96), though dealt with in the Land Revenue Administration Report, was in charge of the Honb'le Mr. W. C. Macpherson, C.S.I., the Hon'ble Mr. R T. Greer, C.S.I., and the Hon'ble Mr. E. W. Collin during different periods of the year.

4. A new division known as the Tirhut Division, comprising the districts of Muzaffarpur, Darbhanga, Champaran and Saran, which formerly formed part of the Patna Division, was constituted under the notification of the Government of India No. 1169 of the 18th November 1908 (published in the Gazette of India of the 21st idem and reprinted in Part 1 A of the Calcutta Gazette of the 25th idem). The figures for the whole year relating to these four districts have been shown under the head of the Tirhut Division.

PART I.—COLLECTION OF LAND REVENUE.

Threefold classification of estates.

Appendices I, IA, IB and IC.

5. The total number of estates on the roll was 126,149, of which 114,153 were in class I (permanently-settled estates), 10,466 in class II (temporarily-settled estates) and 1,530 in class III (estates held direct by Government), as against 113,159, 10,302 and 1,830 respectively in the previous year. The net total increase was 858. The additions of 994 estates in class I and of 164 in class II were chiefly due to partitions of estates in the Bihar and the Orissa districts, and the decrease of 300 estates in class III was mainly due to amalgamation of Government estates. Other causes, such as transfers from class to class, redemptions of petty estates, resumptions of lands, and the creation of new estates, also contributed to the fluctuations.

Statistics of demands, collections, remissions and balances.

Appendix I.

6. The table below compares the demands, collections, remissions, and balances of land revenue of the year under report with the corresponding figures of the preceding four years (malikana, revenue of police lands and quit rents of Tributary States are included).

The total demands and collections of the year exceeded those of the previous year by Rs. 5,52,312 and Rs 4,34,909 respectively. The percentage of collections on demands was, however, the lowest during the quinquennial period. As in the previous year bad harvests in certain districts and the high prices of food-grains adversely affected the collections.

Demands.

7. The current demands of the year from the three classes of estates are compared below with those of the preceding four years:—

Class of estate.	1904-1905.	1905-1906.	1906-1907.	1907-1908.	1908-1909.
	Rs.	Rs.	Rs.	Rs.	Rs.
I. Permanently-settled estates.	2,28,73,810	2,28,74,832	2,28,77,520	2,28,77,604	2,28,75,295
II. Temporarily-settled estates.	27,74,875	29,71,254	30,28,746	30,41,835	31,02,748
III. Estates held direct by Government.	26,87,957	27,37,952	27,94,237	28,25,659	29,09,289
Total ...	2,83,36,642	2,85,84,038	2,87,00,503	2,87,45,098	2,88,87,332

The above figures show a gradual increase in the demands of the estates in classes II and III. The net increase in the total demand amounted to Rs. 1,42,234 as compared with the preceding year. The demand in class I decreased by Rs. 2,309, chiefly owing to abatements of revenue consequent on the acquisition of lands for public purposes. There were additions of Rs. 60,913 and Rs. 83,630 respectively in the other two classes owing to new settlements of estates, re-settlements, and the accrual of enhancements in the case of rents settled at progressive rates.

The arrear demand was Rs. 10,94,147, as against Rs. 6,84,069 of the previous year. The difference between the former amount and the total outstanding balance of Rs. 10,44,625, shown in the preceding year's report, was due to settlements and re-settlements with retrospective effect and to revisions of accounts.

Collections.

8. The total collections amounted to Rs. 2,87,91,262 and represented 96·03 per cent. of the total and 99·67 per cent. of the current demand. The percentages of collections, both current (Rs. 2,79,82,251) and arrear (Rs. 8,09,011), showed a slight falling off, being 96·86 and 73·93, as against 96·88 and 73 98 respectively in the previous year.

9. Of the arrears due from certain estates in Hooghly, in respect of which frauds had been committed some years ago through collusion between the agents of the proprietors and the clerks, Rs. 1,315 were recovered out of the balance of Rs. 9,165 unrealized at the beginning of the year. The remainder, Rs. 7,850, is covered by instalment bonds executed by the proprietors of two estates who are regularly paying their instalments.

Remissions.

10. The remissions of land revenue allowed during the year amounted to Rs. 823 in permanently-settled estates, Rs. 2,642 in temporarily-settled estates and Rs. 55,969 in estates held direct by Government, making a total of Rs. 59,434, of which Rs. 31,666 represented remissions of grace, Rs. 9,929 remissions of right, and Rs. 17,839 nominal remissions. The remissions represented ·2 per cent. of the total demand against ·09 per cent. in the previous year.

The remissions of grace were granted, as usual, mainly in Government estates, the main reasons being the loss of crops, the poverty of the raiyats, and the deterioration of the soil. The largest amounts under this head were Rs. 6,983 in Midnapore, Rs. 17,155 in the 24-Parganas and Rs. 4,366 in Nadia. The remissions of right were mainly due to diluvion, double assessment of lands, and the acquisition of lands for public purposes In Bhagalpur Rs. 4,432 appeared under this head. The nominal remissions included Rs. 12,046 in the 24-Parganas and Rs. 3,044 in Gaya, and were generally due to non-settlement of holdings, erroneous assessment of lands, and mistakes in accounts.

11. The current and arrear balances outstanding at the close of the year were Rs. 8,90,988 and Rs. 2,39,795 respectively. The total of Rs. 11,30,783 represented 3·77 per cent. of the total demand, as against 3·55 per cent. in the preceding year. But if the amount collected but not credited in the accounts within the year (Rs. 59,580) and the demand held in suspense (Rs. 2,21,555) be taken into account, the true balance would be Rs. 8,49,648 or 2·83 per cent. of the demand. Of the total balance the recovery of Rs. 50,799 is doubtful. The remainder, Rs. 10,79,984, is in process of realization. The balances in the three classes of estates are compared below with those of the preceding year:—

Balances.

	1907-08.	1908-09.	1907-08.	1908-09.
	Rs.	Rs.
I	3,33,476	2,10,556	1·44	·91
II	2,39,242	4,09,981	7·56	12·17
III	4,71,907	5,10,246	14·94	14·97
Total ...	10,44,625	11,30,783	3 55	3·77

The explanations of the balances are given in the following paragraphs:—

12. The results of the collections during the year in the permanently-settled estates were more satisfactory than those of several preceding years. The total demand including arrears was Rs. 2,32,08,657. The amount collected was Rs. 2,29,97,278 or 99·09 per cent. of the total and 100·53 per cent. of the current demand. In the previous year the corresponding percentages were 98·55 and 99·54 respectively.

Permanently-settled estates.

Appendix IA.

13. The current collections of Rs. 2,27,03,139 amounted to 99·24 per cent. of the current demand. The standard of 99 per cent. was attained in all but four districts. Of the balance of Rs. 66,928 in Midnapore (96·46), Rs. 28,654 were deposited in other treasuries on or before the last kist day of the year and Rs. 32,315 were due from certain embarrassed estates belonging to Raja Sir Sourindra Mohan Tagore, which are under the management of the Court of Wards. In the 24-Parganas the collections reached 98·36 per cent., and the slight deficiency is attributed to the fact that certain large estates defaulted in the March kist and no coercive measures could be taken within the year. In Jessore (97·39) almost the entire balance (Rs. 22,362) was due from the Mukharji Wards' estate. The balance in Darjeeling (97·4) was Rs. 26 only.

Current collections.

14. The total arrear collections (Rs. 2,94,139) were 88·23 per cent. of the demand. Of the total outstanding balance of Rs. 38,401, Midnapore accounted for Rs. 33,767, and the wards' estate of Raja Sir Sourindra Mohan Tagore was solely responsible for this sum.

Arrear collections.

15. The temporarily-settled estates comprise three sub-classes, viz., (1) private estates settled with the proprietors, (2) private estates leased to farmers, and (3) Government estates leased to farmers. The total demands were Rs. 33,66,600 and the collections Rs. 29,53,977. The latter represented 87·74 per cent. of the total and 95·20 per cent. of the current demand, as compared with 92·22 and 95·92 per cent. in the previous year. The falling off in collections was mainly due to the fact that in Cuttack and Balasore a demand of Rs. 2,18,554 had to be suspended on account of the loss of crops caused by floods.

Temporarily-settled estates.

Appendix IB.

16. Twelve districts failed to attain their respective standards of current collections. Of these the balances were heavy in three districts only, viz., Khulna (Rs. 30,714), Cuttack (Rs. 1,56,395) and Balasore (Rs. 73,017). In Khulna the short collections were due to non-completion of the settlements of certain Sundarbans estates. Since the close of the year most of these have been completed, and the few remaining will be disposed of shortly.

Current collections.

17. The arrear collections amounted to Rs. 1,78,841 or 67·78 per cent. of the demand. The outstanding balances were comparatively large in the districts of the 24-Parganas (Rs. 3,405), Khulna (Rs. 2,554), Shahabad (Rs. 24,802), Cuttack (Rs. 5,171) and Balasore (Rs. 40,694). In the 24-Parganas the realization of a portion of the balance was kept in abeyance pending the decision of a civil suit and the remainder is in course of recovery. The short collections in Shahabad were chiefly due to the fact that retrospective effect was given to the new revenue assessment of the estates of which the settlement proceedings were concluded during the year under report, and the proprietors were in consequence allowed time to pay the arrears. As regards Khulna, Cuttack and Balasore, the explanations of current balances apply to arrear balances also.

Arrear collections.

18. The estates held direct by Government include two classes, viz., (1) those belonging to private proprietors but managed by Government and (2) those owned by Government as proprietor. The total demand including arrears amounted to Rs. 34,06,222, of which Rs. 28,40,007 or 83·37 per cent. were collected, as against 84·39 in the preceding year. The total remitted was Rs. 55,969 and Rs. 5,10,246 were outstanding at the close of the year. Of the total balance the recovery of Rs. 43,610 is doubtful, and the remainder is in course of realization.

Estates held direct by Government.

Appendix IC.

19. The current collections (Rs. 25,03,976) represented 86·06 per cent. of the demand and showed a slight falling off as compared with the similar collections of the preceding year. Of the twelve districts which failed to collect up to their respective standards the balances were large in Khulna (Rs. 21,283), Patna (Rs. 20,365), Shahabad (Rs. 39,891), Bhagalpur (Rs. 10,907), Sonthal Parganas (Rs. 22,393), Angul (Rs. 25,522) and Singhbhum (Rs. 10,900). The general explanation of the short collections was the partial failure of the crops and the high price of food-grains during the year under report and the year which preceded it.

Current collections.

20. Of the arrear demand of Rs. 4,96,933, the amount recovered was Rs. 3,36,031 or 67·62 per cent. The outstanding balances were large in Midnapore (Rs. 22,389), 24-Parganas (Rs. 35,783), Nadia (Rs. 5,150), Monghyr (Rs. 29,272) and Puri (Rs. 7,622). The balance in Midnapore, of which the bulk is due from Jalamutha and Majnamutha, is in course of recovery. The bad collections in Nadia are attributed to the unfavourable agricultural conditions. The balance outstanding in the 24-Parganas includes a sum of Rs. 16,639 which will have to be remitted for various reasons, and the remainder is in process of recovery. In Monghyr Rs. 24,999 due from the two estates Taufir Barhaiya and Binda Diara are in dispute in the civil court, as the tenants concerned contested the demand, and the rest is in course of realization. Of the balance in Puri Rs. 1,002 are bad and irrecoverable and the remainder is under recovery.

Arrear collections.

21. The total collections of miscellaneous revenue, including receipts from forest lands in Government estates, amounted to Rs. 7,94,787, showing an increase of Rs. 3,96,795 over the figures of the previous year. The increase was mainly due to recoveries during the year of large sums in Purnea and Ranchi on account of survey and settlement charges. The largest amounts included in "other receipts" were Rs. 57,325 in Burdwan, consisting of the charges for repairs to Government embankments (phulbandi) realized from the Burdwan Raj, Rs. 50,943 in the Sonthal Parganas representing fees for fuel and royalties on sabai grass and hats and Rs. 34,227 in Palamau on account of lac. The remissions (Rs. 35,277) and balances

Forest and miscellaneous revenue.

Appendix II.

Rs. 16,542) were chiefly in respect of fines under the Bengal Act VII of 1876, in the Bihar districts. The balances are in course of recovery.

Sale of Government estates.

Appendix III.

22. Ninety-seven estates, covering an area of 2,510 acres in the Burdwan, Presidency, Bhagalpur and Orissa divisions, were sold during the year for Rs. 19,907 subject to a total revenue of Rs. 5,340. In addition to the above, 10 plots of land, with an area of 156·015 acres, were sold, revenue free, at a total price of Rs. 19,711, and one plot, covering 7 acres, was sold free of revenue demand for Rs. 16,315.

Amalgamation of Government estates.

23. Efforts have been made to diminish work in Government estates which are wholly the property of Government by amalgamating, and so reducing the number of estates in each district. As a result of the orders which have been passed with this object, some progress has been made in the desired direction.

The Commissioner of the Tirhut division reports that the reduction in the number of estates has resulted in an important reduction in the account and returns work and no difficulty in the working of the new system has been reported from any district except Monghyr. The following table shows the result of the amalgamation in the several divisions of the province except that of Chota Nagpur, where the Government estates do not admit of further amalgamation:—

Division.	No. of estates reduced by amalgamation.	Existing No. of estates after amalgamation.
Burdwan	13	153
Presidency	84	75
Patna	105	15
Tirhut	21	16
Bhagalpur	124	56
Orissa	1	6

Amount of land-revenue assigned or alienated by Government in favour of grantees.

Appendices IV and V.

24. There were twenty cases of alienation of Government lands, in nine of which the areas concerned were made over to municipalities. Ten plots of land, covering an area 3·95 acres, were alienated for public purposes in favour of private bodies, involving a total loss of revenue amounting to Rs. 762. Another plot was sold to a company for the full market value of Rs. 5,000. The estimated market value and the estimated yearly rental of all the lands alienated during the year under report amounted to Rs. 33,270-6-5 and Rs. 1,464-7-8, respectively.

Road and Public Works Cesses.

25. A report on the Road and Public Works Cess operations of the province is submitted to Government separately; and therefore only a brief account is inserted in this report regarding the working of the Bengal Cess Act IX of 1880. The Act is not in force in Angul, the Khandhmals, Sambalpur, and parts of the Sonthal Parganas, where it is being gradually introduced. In the 30 districts in which the Act is in force, the cesses were, as before, levied at the maximum rate of one-anna on each rupee of the annual value of lands or annual net profits of mines and other immoveable properties. The current demand of land revenue of the 30 districts was Rs. 2,85,42,251, while their valuation or gross rental amounted to Rs. 13,33,01,239. As compared with the preceding year, the current demand of cesses increased from Rs. 71,20,946 to Rs. 73,92,311 owing chiefly to revaluation proceedings, and to the revision of assessments of mines and forests. The collections amounted to Rs. 73,17,693, as against Rs. 71,97,473. The percentage of the total collections on the current demand was 98·9. The collections were above the prescribed standard of 100 per cent. on the current demand in 13 districts. Of the remaining 17 districts in which the percentage did not reach the prescribed standard, 6 attained percentages above 98 and 4 above 95. In the remaining 7 districts, for which explanations are given here, the percentages were below 95. In Monghyr, Purnea and Palamau, the poor collections were mainly due to the decrease of voluntary payments caused by the unfavourable agricultural conditions; in the Sonthal Parganas to the imposition of a new assessment on most of the estates during the year; in Cuttack, to the suspension of the collection of a portion of the cess demand in the flood affected areas, where the crops had been ruined; in Ranchi to the inability of the Maharaja of Chota Nagpur to pay his cesses for the fourth quarter before the close of the year; and in Manbhum to the sudden fall of prices in the coal market. The remissions and reductions amounted to Rs. 98,306, as against Rs. 67,756 of the previous year, and the percentage of the balance to the total demand slightly rose from 15·1 to 15·6. During the year valuations and revaluations were in progress in 14 out of 30 districts to which the Act is applicable.

Redemption of land revenue.

Appendix VI.

26. The number of petty estates of which the land revenue was redeemed during the year was 267. These were mostly permanently-settled holdings in the Government estates of Calcutta and the suburbs. The total annual rent was Rs. 605 and the price realized on redemption amounted to Rs. 17,413.

Only one estate was redeemed under section 11 of the old Partition Act, Bengal Act VIII of 1876. The new Act, Bengal Act V of 1897, does not provide for the redemption of petty estates formed by partition.

Remittances of land revenue and cesses by means of special money-orders.

Appendix XXX.

27. The number of money-orders and the amount of land revenue and cesses remitted thereby increased from 241,489 and Rs. 17,07,574 in the preceding year to 255,577 and Rs. 19,49,141 respectively in the year under report. The system is growing in popularity among petty zemindars, but those who have to pay large sums find it cheaper to employ local agents. The average value of an order rose to Rs. 7-10 from Rs. 7-0 6 in the previous year. The remittance exceeded Rs. 50,000 in the sixteen districts shown in Appendix XXX, and in five of them the amount was more than a lakh.

Remittances of rent by money-orders.

Appendix XXXI.

28. Arrangements for the payment of rent by money-order were in force throughout Bengal except the districts of Darjeeling, the Sonthal Parganas and Angul. The introduction of the system into the Chota Nagpur division, which was kept in abeyance pending the discussion of the Chota Nagpur Tenancy Bill, has now been effected. The form of special money-order was prescribed under Government notification No. 4805L.R., dated the 30th November 1908.

29. The total number of money-orders issued during the year was 42,459 (for Rs. 6,66,019) as against 42,949 (for Rs. 6,52,271) in 1907-08. There was an increase in the Patna, Tirhut, Bhagalpur and Orissa Divisions. The decrease is found mainly in Bankura, Midnapore, Hooghly, the 24-Parganas, and Purnea, where it is generally attributed to the inability of the tenants to pay their rents on account of bad crops. The percentage of money-orders refused to money-orders issued rose from 22·5 in 1907-08 to 26·9; and though refusals may be due to a multiplicity of causes, this increase is ominous of agrarain disputes. The increase is common to all the divisions, except Orissa, where it fell from 32·5 to 14·2. It rose markedly from 21·9 to 31·7 in Nadia, from 6·7 to 27·6 in Monghyr and from 27·6 to 40·2 in Purnea. In the case of Nadia no explanation has been given. The rise in Monghyr is said to be due to unsatisfactory relations between landlords and tenants, while that in Purnea is attributed to the fact that zamindars refused the money-orders, because the amount of rent remitted was in accordance with the old rents, and not the new ones fixed by the Settlement Department. There was no case of refusal in Puri, and the next smallest percentage (4·07) was reported from Gaya.

Appendices VII and VIII.

30. In comparison with the previous year there was a large increase in the number of defaults, but the total number of sales decreased by 17. Out of 14,785 estates shares and interests which became liable to sale for the non payment of Government revenue as compared with 8,843 in 1907-08, only 656 or 4·4 per cent. were actually sold, as against 673 or 7·6 per cent. in the previous year. Of the total number sold 364 were whole estates and 292 were shares. The amount realized by sale was Rs. 2,87,720 or 6 times the Government revenue of the properties sold, as against 7·4 times in the previous year. Out of 131 appeals preferred to Commissioners against sales, 38 were successful, and in addition recommendations for the annulment of sales on the ground of hardship were made to Government in 25 cases.

31. The number of chaukidari chakaran lands sold for arrears was 33, on which the Government revenue payable is Rs. 1,425. They are situated in the districts of Burdwan, Birbhum, Bankura, Midnapore, Hooghly with Howrah, Monghyr and Cuttack. There were 8 appeals preferred to the Commissioner, but the sale was annulled in 1 case only.

32. The districts in which defaults were most numerous are noted on the margin. As compared with the previous year the list includes Balasore and Purnea, but excludes Murshidabad.

33. The chief causes which led to the sale of estates during the year were disputes among co-sharers, wilful defaults with the object of annulling encumbrances or purchasing the shares of petty share-holders, the insolvency of proprietors and neglect on the part of agents.

34. The proportion of sales to defaults in the districts in which the sales were most numerous are noted on the margin. The rule that the sales of one kist should be held before the next kist day was generally observed.

Working of the Bengal Public Demands Recovery Act, I of 1895, as amended by Bengal Act I of 1897.

Appendix IX.

35. The total number of certificates filed was 141,013 as against 139,044 in 1907-1908. The increase was common to all heads except "embankment dues" and "all other certificates made under section 7(1)", in which the institutions decreased by 3,009 and 1,329, respectively.

The increase under the head "of all kinds under section 5, Bengal Act I of 1895" is small and does not call for any comment.

Under the head "to realize arrears of rent due to Government" the increase in Midnapore is attributed to the issue of certificates, for the realization of rents in the Kukrahati circle of the Majnamutha estate at the increased rates fixed in the recent settlement. In Monghyr it is due to the fact that certificates had to be filed for the realization of rent due from tenants in the town khas mahal who had left their homes owing to the outbreak of plague. The increase in Puri is due to the issue of a large number of certificates by the tahsildar of Kotdesh for the realization of arrears preparatory to the termination of khas management.

Under the head "embankment dues" there was a marked decrease in the Tirhut Division in the number of institutions (4,218 as against 6,791), which is attributed to the fact that in Muzaffarpur certificates were not filed in the latter part of the year for the recovery of small sums, owing to the remission of demands of 4 annas or less. In Darbhanga a system of local collections was adopted as an alternative to certificates. The result is reported to be satisfactory. In Saran the explanation is offered that the proprietors concerned paid their embankment dues punctually.

Under the head "water rates" the increase (199) in Burdwan is attributed to the issue of certificates against persons who surreptitiously appropriated canal water and refused to pay water rates.

Under the head "cesses" the increase is mainly noticeable in Bankura, Nadia, Patna, Muzaffarpur, Darbhanga and Cuttack, and is ascribed to the more regular issue of certificates for the recovery of arrears.

The most marked variation under the head "recovery of Court of Wards demands" is in the district of Gaya, where the new cases rose from 112 to 1,421 owing to the institution of a large number of certificates on behalf of the Maksudpur Rani's estate for arrears of rent.

Under the head "all other certificates made under section 7(1)" the increase in Howrah (2,629) is chiefly due to the filing of certificates by zamindars against their tenants under the Drainage Act. In Midnapore the special enquiries made regarding estates in which no mutation had been applied for during the last ten years have resulted in the institution of a large number of land registration fine cases. In Muzaffarpur and Cuttack the increase was due to the issue of a large number of certificates for the recovery of fines under the Land Registration Act. On the other hand, there were marked decreases in Patna and Monghyr, where the figures fell from 4,365 to 2,591 and from 8,132 to 1,934 respectively. In the former district an unusually large number of certificates had been filed in 1907-1908 for the realization of fines under the Land Registration Act. In the latter the reduction was due to the completion of the land registration revision proceedings in North Monghyr which had been in progress for some years previously.

36. Disposals.—The number of disposals fell short of the new institutions in all the Divisions except Tirhut and Bhagalpur. The percentage of the total number of cases disposed of to the total number for disposal was 77·8 as against 78·2 in the previous year. The Tirhut Division returned the highest percentage (81·5), and the Chota Nagpur Division the lowest (67·6), this poor result being attributed to the lateness of the institution of a large number of certificates. The same explanation is offered for the falling off in Birbhum, Midnapore, Patna, Gaya, Darbhanga and Palamau. The unsatisfactory percentage in Nadia (69·3) is attributed to the distress which prevailed in the district. Regarding the low percentage in Howrah (62·6), the Collector explains that the result would have been much better but for the increase in cases instituted by landholders against their tenants for the recovery of drainage costs. The certificate officer has no control over these cases, as the decree-holders are seldom prompt to apply for steps in aid of execution and usually delay in depositing the necessary costs, because they know that the cases cannot be struck off if only they come forward within the period of limitation.

37. Pending cases.—In cases pending more than six months during the year the Burdwan Division shows the largest (2,332) and the Orissa Division the lowest (124) totals. The number pending in the district of Gaya was 1,249 more than in the previous year, mainly on account of the laxity shown by the Maksudpur Rani's estate in prosecuting its cases.

38. The subjoined table shows the stages of procedure at which demands were satisfied in the several divisions.

Divisions.	Number of cases in which payments were made on mere issue of notices	Number of cases in which payments were made on attachment of property. 39. Of the total number of cases disposed of, the percentages of cases in which payments were made on the issue of notices and on attachment of property were 25·4 and 56 9 respectively, as against 25·6 and 56·4 in 1907-1908.

Realisation of Government demand by imprisonment.

40. The total number of persons imprisoned during the year for the non-payment of Government demands (exclusive of sums due to wards' estates, road cess and ferry dues) was 18 as against 16 in the previous year. By districts, there were four cases in Hooghly, the 24-Parganas and Gaya, three cases in Murshidabad, and one in Burdwan, Sambalpur and Palamau. Two defaulters in Hooghly, three in the 24-Parganas, one in Gaya and one in Palamau were released before the expiry of the terms of imprisonment on payment of their dues. In three cases in Gaya the debtors were released on their personal recognizances before the expiry of the term of imprisonment. In the other cases the imprisonment failed in its object and no recovery was made.

PART II.—ADMINISTRATION OF LAND REVENUE.

Estates under direct management.

Agency and mode of management.

41. The total number of estates under direct management during the year, including estates of private individuals managed by Government, was 1,530 with a current demand of Rs. 29,09,289. The percentage of the cost of management to the current demand was 7·83 per cent.

42. The following changes in the agency and system of management have been sanctioned:—

In Khulna the supervision of the tahsil establishment was transferred from the Subdivisional Officer of Satkhira to the Khas Mahal Deputy Collector at the district head-quarters. In Singhbhum the general management and control of the Kolhan and Chaibassa town khas mahals were placed in the hands of Mr. L. Burrows, Deputy Collector, with effect from the 30th October 1908.

Grant for the management of, and for agricultural, sanitary and miscellaneous improvements in, Government estates.

43. The amount placed at the disposal of the Board for the management of Government estates during the year 1908-09 was Rs. 2,74,629, and additional allotments of Rs. 39,611 were subsequently sanctioned.

Appendix X shows the expenditure incurred during the year under the heads of—

(1) Management.
(2) Miscellaneous improvements, including agricultural improvements and experiments.
(3) Sanitary improvements.

44. Miscellaneous and Sanitary improvements.—The total unexpended balance under these heads was Rs. 1,474.

Out of the total expenditure of Rs. 1,28,600, Rs. 19,528 were spent on tanks and wells; Rs. 33,020 on drainage, irrigation and embankments; Rs. 34,188 on roads and bridges, and the remainder on miscellaneous works, including tree-planting.

45. The amount available in the year for improvements in Government estates was considerably reduced, in comparison with previous years, by the necessity of repaying the large sums borrowed in 1907-08. The balance was further diminished by the amounts which had to be expended on works of an abnormal character. A large sum diverted for famine relief in Banki was an unforeseen and, it may be hoped, a non-recurring expense; but there are still less legitimate permanent drains on the fund in the case of the urban areas of Cuttack and Rishra, and the ordinary work of district administration in Angul and Banki. These, and the very heavy expenditure required in connection with embankment and drainage operations in the estates in Midnapore, Khulna and the Sundarbans, will shortly form the subject of a reference to Government in which it will be proposed that such projects should be dealt with apart from the ordinary improvement grant. Under the present system funds are not available for these classes of estates, and the unavoidable expenditure which they require unduly restricts necessary operations in less abnormal areas.

Education.

46. The total expenditure on education in Government estates was Rs. 51,609 as against a Government grant of Rs. 49,984. The excess expenditure occurred in Cuttack and Balasore, where it was met from the primary education and local grants.

The numbers of the schools and pupils are 1,824 and 55,207 as against 1,794 and 52,951, respectively, in 1907-08. An analysis of the figures relating to each division shows an increase in the number of schools in the Burdwan (86), Orissa (29), Presidency (1) and Patna (1) Divisions. The increase in pupils occurred in the Burdwan (2,586), Orissa (1,750), Presidency (274) and Patna (19) Divisions; while the decrease is shared between the Chota Nagpur (501) and Bhagalpur (1,872) Divisions. The largest increase in schools and pupils was in Midnapore, where there were 90 schools and 2,815 pupils more than in the year 1907-08. The increase under the same head in the Orissa Division is chiefly due to the fact that a grant, amounting to Rs. 1,636, was for the first time assigned for education in the district of Sambalpur. By means of this 30 lower aided primary schools were started at the beginning of the year. Towards its close the number of pupils on the rolls was 1,634, of whom 164 were girls. The grant was fully spent in giving monthly stipends to the teachers and in supplementary allowances to them at the end of the year. The Divisional Commissioner reports that the villagers have shown practical interest in the schools by making sacrifices for their support. The apparent decrease in scholars (1,872) in the Bhagalpur Division is ascribed to the report of incorrect figures by the Collector of Bhagalpur for the year 1907-08, the number of pupils in that year having been 133 only and not 278, and to the inclusion in the Darjeeling report of 1907-08 of figures relating to schools other than those established in Government estates from the 1 per cent. grant. The decrease of 501 pupils in Chota Nagpur is attributed to the bad harvests of the last two years in Singhbhum. In Banki 12 schools having 116 pupils were closed owing to the scarcity which prevailed there. In Angul the number of schools increased from 10 to 14, and the number of pupils from 457 to 489, of whom 245 were boys. In Palamau the Deputy Commissioner reports that among the well-managed, well conducted and well-attended schools in the district, the schools in the khas mahals stand out prominently; and that they are the best institutions of their kind and are doing much good. In Singhbhum the new Deputy Collector in charge of the Kolhan is paying much attention to the improvement of education among the Hos.

Roads and Communications.

48. The Commissioners report that the inspections of accounts of Government estates have been generally adequate. The following were the only instances of material irregularities brought to light:—

Inspection of Accounts.

In Contai one tahsildar was dismissed for taking illegal gratifications, and another suspended for one year for unusual delay in remitting his collections. Another tahsildar was suspended for the same period for failing to keep the accounts properly and regularly, and some, who were found to have written up their registers improperly, were censured or warned. In the Nawadah subdivision, in the district of Gaya, some cases of misappropriation were detected in 1907-08. One of the gomashtas was dismissed, and a patwari, who was prosecuted, was sentenced during the year under report to rigorous imprisonment for four years. In Monghyr the khas mahal officer, in the course of his inspection of the tahsil office of Binda Diara Shamali, noticed that there were two statements relating to the remission of the rents of diluviated lands, viz., one originally proposed by the amin and adopted in granting remissions, and the other subsequently forged by the amin, the tahsildar, and the patwari in collusion and substituted for the original one. The forged statement contained many alterations, and the registers were altered to correspond with these forgeries. Proceedings were drawn up against the culprits, which ended in their dismissal. In Kotdesh in Puri certain irregularities were discovered in the accounts, and the tahsil amins responsible for them were punished.

Condition of raiyats in Government estates.

49. The condition of the raiyats in the Government estates in the Burdwan Division was generally fair. In Midnapore the tenants were distressed during the first nine months of the year owing to the poor winter rice harvest of the previous year, but they enjoyed good crops later on and their condition improved. The public health was generally good, but towards the end of the year small-pox appeared in several villages. The condition of the tenants in the Presidency Division was not satisfactory in the first half of the year. There was some improvement later on, as the harvests were better than in 1907-08, especially in the 24-Parganas and Khulna. Agriculturists' loans were freely given. Chronic indebtedness among the resident raiyats of the Manigram estate in Murshidabad resulted in a number of sales of holdings to outsiders. There was an outbreak of cholera among the tenants in Jessore, which is attributed to the scarcity of good drinking-water.

50. In the Patna Division the year under review was not a prosperous one. The consequences of the high prices of food-grains which ruled throughout the year in all the districts affected the tenants of the Government estates also; but in other respects they had a fair year. In the district of Patna in the Bihar subdivision the tenants generally suffered some distress owing to the bad outturn of the crops, while those in the Barh, Dinapore, Sadar and City subdivisions were in a comparatively prosperous condition, as the outturn of the rabi crop was not much below the average. In the Sadar subdivision of Gaya, the condition of the tenants of the cash-rent estates was satisfactory. In the produce-rent circles the condition of the tenants was less favourable; and in Pathra and Nawadih the failure of crops, occasioned by the continuous droughts of the last three years, has caused some hardship. The tenants of the Chakrabandha circle suffered considerably on account of the slackness of the lac trade and the damage done to the mahua crop, from which much of their income is derived. In the Nawadah subdivision the condition of the raiyats was unsatisfactory owing to the entire failure of the paddy crop; in the Jehanabad subdivision it was generally good. In Shahabad the condition of the tenantry was on the whole good, except in some estates of the Sasaram subdivision and in the hilly portions of the Bhabua subdivision, where severe distress was experienced on account of the failure of the paddy crop owing to want of rain.

51. The condition of the khas mahal raiyats was not really good in any district of the Bhagalpur Division. In Monghyr the tenants of the diara khas mahals had a better season than those elsewhere in the district. In the town khas mahals of Monghyr, the tenants suffered to some extent from outbreaks of plague and small-pox. In Bhagalpur the condition of the raiyats of the Sadar and Madhipura subdivisions was more satisfactory than that of the tenants of the Supaul subdivision. In Purnea it was not good; but although scarcity prevailed in the Government estates, there was no distress. In Darjeeling, in the Terai jote khas mahals, conditions were scarcely more than fair. From an agricultural point of view the year was not a prosperous one. The outturn of the winter rice crop was poor, and there was a considerable fall in the price of jute. In the Sonthal Parganas the year was everywhere unfavourable. The Deputy Commissioner writes:—

"The mahua crop of 1908 failed; and as it had been preceded by a poor winter rice crop in Dumka and East Deoghar, where the standard of prosperity is lower than elsewhere, it is no exaggeration to say that, in July and August, this part of the district wa on the verge of famine. The bhadai crops, though not abundant were harvested in time to save the situation. The winter rice crop was again disappointing."

Much relief was given by the grant of agriculturists' loans on a liberals scale; and the issue of land improvement loans provided the means of employment to large numbers of labourers. It is stated that the grain golas in the Damin have been of material help to poor agriculturists. In Purnea many raiyats deserted in estate Bhelwa Harinkhari. They had come there on speculation; but as the rains failed they went away. Of the nineteen cases of desertion in Darjeeling, seven occurred in the West Tista khas mahals, nine in Kalimpong, and three in the Cart Road Reserve lands. There were fifteen cases of desertion in the Sonthal Parganas, which were probably occasioned by the prospect of high wages elsewhere.

In the Tirhut Division the general condition of khas mahal raiyats in Darbhanga was poor owing to famine and scarcity of water; and the collection of rents was seriously affected. In Saran their condition was satisfactory.

52. The condition of the tenants in the Orissa Division was fairly good. In Cuttack the failure of crops in previous years, which raised the price of food, the prevalence of cholera and other epidemic diseases, affected the condition of the raiyats during the first half of the year; but prospects improved when the bhadai and early rice were harvested. Agriculturists' loans, amounting to Rs. 5,600, were advanced to the raiyats during the year. A sum of Rs. 4,065 was spent in repairing agricultural tanks and bandhs to provide labour to distressed people, while gratuitous relief was given to those unfit for work until the month of October In Balasore the matters were on the whole satisfactory, and the raiyats recovered quickly from the effects of the agricultural distress of the previous year. In the Khurda Government estate the condition of the tenantry was generally good, except in portions of Banpur and Balbhandrapur, where the outturn of the laghu crop was poor owing to the cessation of rain in October and November, and the sarad-crop failed, owing to the floods of the Daya river. A number of raiyats of Balbhandrapur left their homes for Calcutta in the hope of earning better wages. The residents of Kotdesh and Kodhar also suffered from the effects of floods and drought, and it was necessary to advance agricultural loans (which amounted to Rs. 7,477) to the raiyats of the latter estate. Four co-operative credit societies have been established in Khurda and Kotdesh; but the work they do is very trifling, and is capable of much further development. In Angul a succession of bad harvests for the past two years and the high prices of food-grains affected the prosperity of the cultivators of small holdings and the labouring classes. The well-to-do cultivators and grain-dealers made large profits by selling their grain at high prices. In Sambalpur the condition of the raiyats of the villages in the Government estates was on the whole fair.

53. In Chota Nagpur the general condition of the raiyats in the Hazaribagh khas mahals was good, and there was no case of desertion during the year. In Ranchi it was fair. The crops were normal, but cholera and small-pox raged in most of the villages of the Ranchi thana during the rainy season. In Palamau the end of the year 1907-08 was marked by a considerable failure of crops. The winter rice crop of 1908-09 also partially failed in the Daltonganj and Lesliganj circles. But, as in the preceding year, the Government raiyats enjoyed the results of the very close attention given to the estate in recent years, and were enabled to meet their difficulties. Had the price of lac been as high as usual, they would have been on the whole prosperous. Agriculturists' and land improvement loans were freely granted, and it is reported that the distribution of these loans has ousted private money-lenders from the estate. There were altogether 151 relinquishments and 317 desertions during the year. The increase in the number of relinquishments was chiefly due to the fact that several pahi raiyats of jagir villages amicably gave up their holdings in favour of tenants permanently residing in the Government villages. The increase in desertion is attributed to the activity of the emigration agents; but in many of these so-called cases of desertion the raiyats merely left one Government village for another. Seventy new families came from jagirdari villages and settled in the Government estate. In the Kolhan in Singhbhum, the raiyats suffered from scarcity in the early part of the year; but the excellent rice harvest, which was general over the district, enabled them to recover their position. There were few desertions and comparatively little emigration to the neighbouring native states and to the tea districts.

Surveys.

54. In his report for the year ending the 30th September 1908, the Superintendent of Provincial Surveys, Bengal (now Director of Surveys, Bengal) furnished an account of the traverse surveys carried out by professional agency under him in the districts of Midnapore (Jhargram estate), Hooghly (Chinsura khas mahal), Patna, Shahabad, Ranchi, Singhbhum and Manbhum. The corresponding report submitted by the Director of Land Records gives information regarding the cadastral settlement-surveys carried out under his supervision. Under the control of the Commissioners of divisions, survey proceedings were carried out in many districts by non-professional agencies in connection with the settlement of minor areas. Of these the most important were in the districts of Hooghly, Bankura, Nadia, Murshidabad and Midnapore.

Burdwan.

Survey of the chaukidari chakran and phanridari lands.

55. During the year the survey of the chaukidari chakran and phanridari lands has been completed in respect of the four remaining thanas in Burdwan.

Settlement.

56. The settlement operations under the control of the Director of Land Records have been described in his report for the year ending on the 30th September 1908.

The financial results of these settlements have been combined with those of the settlements carried on under the supervision of the District officers and Commissioners of divisions, and are shown in Appendix XI to the present report. The operations yielded a net increase of Rs. 1,06,765 in the revenue demand. The principal contributory items were the original settlement of the accretions in the Damodar in the districts of Burdwan (Rs. 5,146) and Bankura (Rs. 3,856), the original settlements (Rs. 9,099) and re-settlements (Rs. 11,851) in the Sundarbans tracts, the re-settlement of the West Tista khas mahal in the district of Darjeeling (Rs. 3,629), the re-settlements in Hooghly (Rs. 2,975), in Shahabad (Rs. 37,244), in Midnapore (Rs. 15,078), the Angul estate (Rs. 13,245), the summary settlement of the diara accretions in Patna (Rs. 2,000), and the fisheries in Muzaffarpur (Rs. 2,806). During the year 1,405 cases of settlements were disposed of, and 287 cases were left unfinished.

Settlements, under the Bengal Tenancy Act, of Government estates, carried out under the supervision of Commissioners.

The details of the settlements of Government estates carried out under the Bengal Tenancy Act during the year under the supervision of the Commissioners of divisions are shown in Appendix XII. An area of 85,443 acres, with 14,137 tenants, and lying in 153 villages, was under settlement, chiefly in the Sundarbans, the 24-Parganas, Gaya, Burdwan, and Hooghly. The total expenditure incurred during the year on account of these survey and settlement operations amounted to Rs. 12,267.

Bankura.

Settlement of ghatwali lands.

57. At the close of the preceding year, 38 of these tenures remained unsettled. Of these 13 were disposed of during the year, and one is in progress. In the remainder the ghatwals and the proprietors have refused to accept settlement, and it has been decided by the Board that the cases should be kept in abeyance until the advent of the general survey and settlement operations in the district.

Bankura.

Settlement of the simanadari lands.

58. Two more tenures have been added during the year to the list of these cases, making a total of 362 tenures. The execution of the necessary indentures between Government and the proprietors is in progress. As regards the execution of pattas and kabuliyats between the simanadars and the proprietors, it had been completed in respect of 323 tenures up to the close of the previous year, and during the year under review six more cases were disposed of; the execution of the documents in the remaining 33 cases is being delayed by the proprietors.

Irrigation and Drainage.

59. The large irrigation schemes maintained by the Public Works Department and the irrigation reservoirs, tanks and wells in Government estates maintained from the improvement grant are not noticed here.

60. Burdwan Division.—In Midnapore the Horekhali and Chunamara khals were cleared of silt by the Public Works Department. The Daudpur Silampur drainage cut was completed, and the work of the Argoal drainage project was in progress. In the Tamluk subdivision some khals were cleared of silt by the Mahisadal Raj. In Hooghly the progress made in recovering the advances connected with the Howrah and Rajapur schemes is explained in the statement below :—

Scheme.	Original demand.	Revised demand.	Balance as accepted by Accountant-General, Bengal, after adjustment of accounts.	Amount realised up to the end of 1908-09.	Amount remaining to be realised.	Amount to be refunded.	Amount actually refunded.	Balance remaining to be refunded.
	Rs.	Rs.	Rs.	Rs.	Rs.	Rs.	Rs.	Rs.
Howrah ...	6,44,099	5,35,776	22,299	7,244	15,055	82,899	68,754	14,145
Rajapur ...	17,07,124	14,97,349	2,75,702	1,65,957	1,09,745	39,777	17,474	22,303

Of the ten estates in Hooghly managed khas under section 39 of the Drainage Act, three were released on the realisation of all drainage dues.

61. Presidency Division.—In the 24-Parganas the Magrahat drainage scheme is under construction, and fair progress was made in the year. Detailed estimates have been prepared of a drainage scheme for Bagjala, and a similar scheme for Mahamaya is being considered as a takavi work. In Nadia technical errors in procedure on the part of the new Committee delayed the scheme for the drainage of the Charuikol swamp. In Murshidabad a drainage scheme for Berhampur is being considered. In Jessore preliminary work is in progress in connection with a project to drain the Bhairab Valley.

62. Patna Division.—The question of the construction of a dam across the new branch of the Phalgu river is still under consideration.

63. Tirhut Division.—A dam across the Kamla river was constructed during the year by Mr. R. S. King with the Collector's permission, and proved of great value in irrigating a large area. Well-boring experiments were conducted in the districts of Muzaffarpur and Darbhanga. In the latter district the results are not satisfactory, but in Muzaffarpur the operations have been very successful, and have to some extent modified the effects of the water scarcity.

64. Bhagalpur Division.—In South Bhagalpur the Gerua Bandh greatly benefited the crops in an area where otherwise practically no crops would grow. In this division the only important new works were drainage works at Rajmahal and Hiranpur Bazar in the Sonthal Parganas. A large number of new projects are under consideration, which are intended to protect the precarious tracts of North Bhagalpur.

65. Orissa Division.—In Cuttack a number of improvements are being made in existing canals, and numerous reservoirs were improved in Banki during the period of scarcity. Similar work was undertaken in Angul also. In Puri a large drainage scheme is in progress, estimated to cost Rs. 2,29,838, towards which Government is giving Rs. 75,000 and lending Rs. 50,000.

66. Chota Nagpur Division.—In Palamau the chief original works taken up during the year were the improvement of the Nadaura and Hargarwa schemes and the construction of the Sadabah weir. Elsewhere there was nothing of importance.

Embankments.

Burdwan Division.

67. The 53 miles of Government embankment on the bank of the Damodar and 22 miles on the bank of the Ajai in the district of Burdwan were efficiently maintained during the year. There were no high floods in these rivers during the year. In Midnapore there were 21 embankments as against 26 of the previous year, the accounts of 5 having been closed. Of these 19 are maintained under the contract system, and two by the apportionment of the actual expenditure incurred by the Public Works Department. In Hooghly a total expenditure of Rs. 48,406 had been incurred on the four projects: (1) Kumrul sluice, (2) Madaria khal left embankment, (3) Maya Chak sluice and (4) Rampur west drainage cut. Out of this sum Rs. 34,131 have been realised, leaving a balance of Rs. 14,275. Of this Rs. 14,198 was due from the Burdwan Raj on account of the Madaria khal, and this sum has since been written off under the orders of Government. The remodelling of the zamindari embankment on the left bank of the Madaria khal from Penro to Dilakas, which will cost Rs. 24,431, is still in progress. Portions of the Chakkasi and Champa khal embankments have been taken over by the Public Works Department.

Presidency Division.

68. In the 24-Parganas the total length of Schedule D embankment, remained the same as in the preceding years namely, a little over 206 miles. In these embankments there were 77 sluices, of which 27 are takavi sluices, maintained at the cost of zamindars, and the remainder are maintained by Government. The embankments and sluices are reported to be in good order. The construction of three small retired embankments—two in Narainpur and one in Bansara—was commenced towards the end of the year. The repair of the laterite revetment at Diamond Harbour, which was damaged by the cyclone of 1907, was completed during the year. The majority of the zamindari embankments are not properly kept up in Murshidabad. The Collector has warned the proprietors that unless the embankments are kept in good order the payment of pulbandi will be stopped. In Jessore it is now proposed to take up the project for the construction of a sluice at the mouth of the river Atharabanki. In Khulna the embankments in the Government estates were maintained in a fairly good condition.

Patna Division.

69. A new embankment is under construction in the Ghora Katora Government estate in Patna, intended for the storage of water for irrigation purposes.

Tirhut Division.

70. The Gandak embankment, which runs through all four districts in this division, is maintained by the Revenue Department under the contract system. The present contract is for 20 years. The table below gives the current account of the embankment cess:—

District.	Demand.			Collection.	Remission.	Adjusted from previous advance collections.	Balance.
	Arrear.	Current.	Total.
	Rs.	Rs.	Rs.	Rs.	Rs.	Rs.	Rs.
Muzaffarpur ...	6,077	8,308	14,385	6,999	...	1,350	6,036
Darbhanga ...	1,686	2,115	3,801	1,603	...	147	2,051
Champaran ...	575	20,009	20 584	16,974	...	30	3,580
Saran ...	8,268	23,524	31,792	19,388	...	2,941	9,463
Total ...	16,606	53956	70,562	44,964	...	4,468	21,130

The results are disappointing in the case of Saran, which suffered from agricultural distress less than the other districts, and should have had smaller arrears. The other embankments in this division are the Turki and Daudpur embankments in Muzaffarpur and the Ganges embankment in Darbhanga. These are maintained under the takavi system.

Bhagalpur Division.

71. There are three public embankments maintained by Government in this division, viz., (1) the Monghyr embankment, (2) the Chandan embankment, (3) the Belwa embankment, all of which were kept in good repair. A proposal to bring under the Embankment Act the Gupta and Gagri bunds of North Monghyr was sanctioned by Government, and their construction is now being considered by the Irrigation Department. Considerable progress has been made in respect of the Tiljuga embankment in Bhagalpur, which is being made as a famine-relief work. Since September 1908 from 1,500 to 3,000 people have been employed daily and 15 miles have been completed; other large embankment works are being carried on by private zamindars on the same river and its branches.

Orissa Division.

72. There are 24 embankments in Balasore, under the charge of the Public Works Department, and maintained at the cost of Government, of which the total length is 80 miles. The question of abandonment of the Panchpolli embankment is still under consideration. The question of the further development of the system of protective embankments remains undecided. The Jamunda embankment has been raised to its former height above the high flood level, and there is a proposal for extending it half a mile further. In Puri a number of sluices were constructed during the year. There are no embankments in Angul or Sambalpur.

73. A sum of Rs. 256 was expended under this head in Ranchi. Elesewhere nothing was spent.

Chota Nagpur Division.

74. The following orders were passed during the year for the relief of petty proprietors who were previously liable to pay small sums in respect of embankments:—

"Government accepts the proposal to abolish all current demands on account of embankment cess for an estate or a separate account, which are less in each case than 4 annas a year. It is estimated that the loss to Government caused thereby will not exceed Rs. 2,000 a year, while nearly 69,000 proprietors will be benefited."

Land Registration.

75. The intermediate registrations effected during the year under Bengal Act VII of 1876 and the percentage their number bears to existing interests are shown in Appendix XXXIII. At the close of 1907-08 the total number of proprietary interests in land entered under section 38 of the Act in the registers of the province (excluding Sambalpur) amounted to 1,050,231. The applications made during the year for succession to interests, whether by purchase, inheritance, gift or otherwise, amounted to 56,857. Out of the cases disposed of during the year, 55,981 were allowed, amounting to 5 3 per cent. of the total number of interests as it stood at the beginning of the year. The percentage was highest in the Bhagalpur Division (6·6) and lowest in the Orissa Division (3·7). Inclusive of the number of substitutions by succession stated above, the number of existing interests removed and that of new interests recorded were 71,789 and 87,091 respectively. The resulting total number of interests at the close of the year was 1,065,533. Including 16,548 cases pending from the previous year, the total number of applications for disposal was 73,405. Out of these 61,252 were disposed of as against 66,916 in the previous year.

76. In Sambalpur mutations of proprietary rights are registered under section 125 of the Central Provinces Land Revenue Act, XVIII of 1881, and rules framed under that Act.

77. In the districts in which the decrease in applications was most marked the following explanations have been offered. In Bankura it is ascribed to the completion of cess revaluation work, and to the receipt of fewer reports of transfers from the civil courts and sub-registrars. In Murshidabad it is ascribed to the approaching completion of the cess revaluation and the consequent diminution of applications received from that office. In Patna inquiries about transfers had been made through the panchayats, each part of the district being taken up in turn. By the end of 1907-08 these inquiries had extended to the whole district and were accordingly discontinued. In Saran the number of the preceding year had been swollen by discoveries of proprietors entered in cess revaluation papers, but not recorded in Register D. In Monghyr the decrease was mainly due to the completion of the comparison of Register D with the record-of-rights in respect of estates in the northern portion of the district. In Purnea there had been abnormal activity in the registration of the preceding years as a result of the record-of rights. The decrease in Balasore is probably due to the completion of attestation work in the revisional settlement proceedings during the year.

78. The most important increases were in the following districts. In Midnapore vigorous action was taken to improve land registration by making regular inquiries in the case of estates for which no mutation had been recorded for the last ten years. Similar special inquiries were started with similar results in Nadia and Jessore also. In Cuttack there was a large number of transfers in proprietary rights owing to the high price of food-grains during the year. Moreover, the practice followed in the revisional settlement proceedings of requiring parties to file certified copies of extracts from Register D before their names can be entered in the record-of-rights increased the number of applications. In Puri also there was an increases in the number of transfers of proprietary rights owing to the prevailing scarcity and distress.

79. It is reported from all districts that the registers prescribed under the Act are in good condition. The proposal to abolish Registers A and B, Part I, which was recommended by the Ministerial Officers' Salaries Committee, has been rejected. All the forms of land registration Registers A to D are in course of revision, and the registers will be gradually re-written as funds permit.

80. The lists of transfers of estates were regularly received from the registration offices, land acquisition offices and certificate departments of the Collectorates. As regards the Civil Courts, complaints were received from certain Collectors that these lists were not being received regularly, and such revised arrangements have now been made as will tend to obviate delay in the future. A fresh procedure was also prescribed during the year for the prompt disposal of reports of transfers.

81. During the year new rules were issued by the Board providing for the creation of a separate staff to be employed exclusively on land registration work. These rules apply to all districts where mutations are at all numerous. Collectors have been empowered to increase or diminish this staff in accordance with a sliding scale based on the number of cases.

82. The expenditure on account of land registration work during the year amounted to Rs. 9,291 as against Rs. 13,326 in the preceding year. It was specially heavy in Cuttack, Darbhanga and Muzaffarpur. The fees realized amounted to Rs. 3,922 as against Rs. 3,497 in 1907-08.

83. The number of appeals or applications for revision presented to the Board under section 85 was 26 as against 21 in the preceding year. Of these, 23 were rejected, 2 granted and 1 is pending.

Separate accounts of land revenue payments opened for shares under Act XI of 1859, and Bengal Act VII of 1876.

Appendix XIV.

85. During the year 2,802 separate accounts were opened, and at the close of the year there were 86,220 separate accounts paying a revenue demand of Rs. 76,30,766. Out of these 60,303 accounts were for shares in joint estates held in common tenancy (under section 10 of Act XI of 1859); 6,292 were for shares representing specific portions of land in estates (under section 11 of the same Act) and 19,625 were for shares consisting of undivided interests in specific lands (under section 70 of Bengal Act VII of 1876). The number of separate accounts closed by the sale of parent estates was 743, the revenue concerned being Rs. 1,22,335. The imposition of some limit upon the right to open a separate account is still under the consideration of the Board.

Registration of tenures under Act XI of 1859.

Appendix XV.

86. There was no case of registration of a tenure during the year for protection against annulment in the event of the sale of the parent estate for arrears of revenue under Act XI of 1859.

Partitions.

Appendix XXXII.

87. The year under review shows a slight decrease in the total number of institutions as compared with those of the preceding year, which is due to the suspension of institutions in the Patna district on account of the survey and settlement proceedings. Institutions increased in Champaran, Muzaffarpur, Monghyr, Bhagalpur, Jessore and Sambalpur, the increase being largest in Muzaffarpur and Sambalpur. Disposals have exceeded the institutions; and the result of the year's work is a net decrease of the pending file by 45 cases. There was an increase in the number of disposals in all districts except Saran, Champaran, Muzaffarpur and Monghyr, where a decrease occurred. In Saran only three cases were disposed of as against 21 in the preceding year. The Collector explains that many cases had to be retained in the file merely for the passing of an order declaring the total cost of partition under section 40 and if these cases could be added, the number of disposals would have risen to 27 cases equivalent to 18 per cent. of the total number to be disposed of. The pending files were considerably reduced in Patna, Shahabad, Darbhanga and Cuttack, but they noticeably increased in Gaya, Saran, Jessore and Sambalpur owing to institutions being substantially in excess of the disposals.

88. The following particulars regarding the state of the pending files have been furnished by the Commissioners:—

Patna Division.—The largest number of cases was pending in Shahabad, viz., 137; of these, 73 cases are more than two years' old and 25 of these cases are in advanced stages of progress. In Gaya 50 cases have been pending for more than two years; of these, five have already been confirmed by the Commissioner and one is under delivery of possession. Of the 69 cases pending in Patna, 29 have lasted for more than two years and nine of them are under delivery of possession.

Tirhut Division.—In this division, the largest number of cases was pending in Muzaffarpur, viz., 156; of these, 10 cases are under confirmation by the Commissioner and 6 under delivery of possession. Sixty-nine cases in this district are more than two years' old. The cases which have been pending for more than two years in the other districts of the division are distributed as follows:—Darbhanga 47, Champaran 6 and Saran 112. The cases in Saran appear to require the special attention of the Collector.

Bhagalpur Division.—In Monghyr, the disposals did not quite keep pace with the institutions. The Commissioner is, however, of opinion that the decrease has been fully compensated by the fact that 26 cases were submitted to him for confirmation. In this district, there is no immediate prospect of reduction in the number of partition cases, for a large number of new applications is expected as soon as the survey and settlement operations are completed in South Monghyr.

The progress made in the disposal of partition cases in Bhagalpur during the year under review was satisfactory. The only case now pending in Purnea relates to estate Surjapur which contains 762 villages and covers an area of 426,190 acres; the proceedings in this case are in an early stage.

The oldest cases now pending in the division are those of Estates Pachna, Tauzi Nos. 2314 and 2306 in the district of Monghyr, in respect of which partition proceedings were instituted in January 1894. The objections filed in the cases before the Commissioner have since been disposed of and the papers returned to the Collector for certain modifications.

Presidency Division.—Most of the pending cases in this division are in the district of Jessore. Of the 11 oldest cases 3 have been practically concluded and are pending adjustment of accounts under section 40; 4 cases have been confirmed by the Commissioner and 1 case is under confirmation. There were practically only five cases to be dealt with by the Deputy Collector at the end of the year, of which one is nearing completion and the remaining four are new cases.

Orissa Division.—In Orissa, good progress is specially noticeable in Cuttack, which shows the largest number of disposals in the year. Of the 52 cases pending in this district, 9 are before, or are ready for submission to, the Commissioner under section 61; 8 are under confirmation by the Commissioner under section 91 and 4 are in the section 94 stage. In Balasore, more cases were disposed of than in the preceding year; of the 28 cases pending in this district, 4 have been confirmed by the Commissioner, 1 has been submitted to the Commissioner for confirmation and 5 cases will shortly be sent up for confirmation.

In Cuttack and Balasore, partition cases are now more promptly dealt with and it is reported that nearly all the old cases have been worked off and that the average duration of cases is perceptibly decreasing. Great improvements are said to have been effected in Cuttack where the progress made in the disposal of partition cases has generally improved as compared with former years. In Puri, where partition cases are very few, some improvement appears to have been effected in dealing with the cases and adjournments are not so freely granted as formerly; but there is room for further improvement.

In Sambalpur, where partitions are effected under the Central Provinces Land Revenue Act, XVIII of 1881, the disposal of partition cases is reported to be much facilitated by the existence of an up-to-date record-of-rights and by utilising the services of Patwaris.

The Commissioner of Orissa (Mr. E. V. Levinge) writes:—

"Generally, I have noticed in my inspections some improvement in the work of the different partition offices. There is still room for further improvement; but compared with the chaotic state of the offices a few years ago and the utter absence of method in dealing with partition cases, the change to-day is very noticeable."

The districts of the Tirhut division, except Champaran, and the districts of Shahabad, Monghyr and Cuttack had whole-time officers employed on partition work during the year. In each of the districts of Patna, Jessore and Purnea, a Deputy Collector was employed for half of his time on partition. In Gaya, a part-time Deputy Collector was employed on the work; in other districts, this work was carried on by Deputy Collectors of the general line.

Average cost.

89. The average cost per acre of partitions completed during the year in the Patna, Tirhut and Bhagalpur divisions varied from annas 2-9 in Muzaffarpur district and annas 4-3 in Purnea district to Re. 1-6-5 in Patna and Re. 1-3 in Saran. The increased rate of cost in Patna appears to be due to inclusion of the oldest case of the district which was disposed of during the year. The increase of the rate in Saran has not been explained. In Cuttack and Balasore, the cost was annas 7-6 and annas 3 per acre against annas 9-10 and annas 6, respectively, in the preceding year.

Partition Fund Accounts.

90. Estates partition funds exist in the districts of Jessore, Cuttack, Monghyr, Bhagalpur, Patna, Gaya, Shahabad and in all the districts of the Tirhut division, except Champaran. The accounts of all these districts, except Monghyr, Bhagalpur, Patna, Cuttack and Darbhanga were audited by the Examiner of Local Accounts during the year under report; and it is understood that the batwara accounts in Monghyr, Bhagalpur, Patna, Cuttack and Darbhanga, which were last examined during the preceding year, will shortly be audited by the Examiner. The question of putting the partition accounts generally on a sound basis has engaged the attention of the Board for some time past and they have issued detailed instructions for adjusting the accounts in districts in which confusion has been reported to exist.

It was mentioned in paragraph 100 of the preceding year's report that large frauds had been discovered in the batwara accounts of Muzaffarpur; and some further embezzlements have since been detected in this district as to which reports have been submitted to Government in the Financial Department.

After consulting Commissioners of Divisions, the Board are at present considering how the existing rules and forms relating to the keeping of batwara accounts should be revised and how the present system of auditing these accounts can be improved.

The partition accounts of the districts which have not got partition funds were audited by the Treasury Officers concerned and were found to be generally correct.

Working of the Estates Partition Act of 1897.

91. The reports indicate that the Act of 1897 continues to work smoothly. No case of enhancement of rents by landlords made immediately after a partition has been reported. The Collector of Shahabad writes:—

"The principal feature of the new Partition Law, Act V (B.C.) of 1897, is the preparation of a record-of-rights preliminary to the division of the estate among the proprietors. This necessarily sets up strife between the landlords and the tenants and the former are loth to institute a partition except when the estate is thrown into confusion by friction among themselves. Under the old law, the tenants stood in the position of indifferent spectators just as is the case now in a partition by Civil Court and hence the batwara file used to be heavier before 1897 than it has been since then. But the landlords have now grown reconciled to the new law and it cannot be said that it does not find favour with them. At any rate, it is preferred by the general body of proprietors to a partition by the Civil Court."

The question of expediting batwara work and of assimilating the Bengal procedure in batwara cases to that of the United Provinces, which was mentioned in paragraph 9 of the Government Resolution on the preceding year's report, continued to engage the attention of the Board during the year.

In order to expedite this work, they have in recent years insisted upon a more careful selection of batwara amins and have raised the permissible remuneration of amins. Part of the batwara establishment has been put on a permanent footing. Check by the Deputy Collector of the amin's work has been insisted on, and officers have been instructed not to allow adjournments too readily and to check dilatory tactics of parties. It has also been laid down that the Deputy Collector should fix dates in each case by which proceedings at each stage should be completed. In 1906 a revised form of certificate was prescribed requiring the Deputy Collector to analyse individual cases in which undue delay takes place; and it was anticipated that the revised return would provide Collectors with adequate means whereby to check delays.

The Commissioners of divisions generally report that the progress made in disposal of batwara cases has improved as compared with former years, that the average duration of cases is decreasing and that old cases are being worked off. It is recognised that there is room for further improvement in this branch of work and it will continue to receive their special attention.

Land Acquisition.

Appendix XVI.

92. Proceedings for the acquisition on behalf of Government or local bodies and companies, of land covering an area of 12,443 acres, were confirmed during the year at a total cost of Rs. 91,04,797 as compared with an area of 10,172 acres, costing Rs. 70,64,759 during the preceding year. Detailed particulars of each district are given in Appendix XVI. The abatements of annual revenue allowed on account of the lands acquired for Government purposes, including State railways, amounted to Rs. 1,165-3-9, and a sum of Rs. 41,138-13-3 was paid to Government on account of the capitalized value of the Government revenue, amounting to Rs. 1,646 0-1 abated for lands taken up for local bodies and companies.

Of the total expenditure incurred, Rs. 41,21,819 were for acquisition of lands for Government purposes, including those of State railways, and Rs. 41,82,978 for all other purposes, viz., those of District Boards, Municipalities, Port Commissioners, Railway Companies, etc. Of the projects in which proceedings were confirmed during the year, the following may be specially mentioned, as the cost in each case amounted to over a lakh of rupees:—

The average cost per acre of the lands acquired, for which the proceedings were confirmed during the year, was about Rs. 732 against Rs. 694 in the preceding year. Omitting, however, lands of special value acquired chiefly in Calcutta, the average cost per acre during the year under review was Rs. 367.

93. Lands for the large projects below named were under acquisition during the year:—

(1) Hooghly-Katwa Railway in the districts of Burdwan, Hooghly and Nadia.
(2) Widening of roads within the jurisdiction of the Howrah Municipality.
(3) Works to be constructed and carried out by the Port Commissioners, Calcutta, for the improvement of the port.
(4) Ranchi-Purulia Railway.
(5) Water catchment area of the reservoir of the Midnapore-Jherria Extension of the Bengal-Nagpur Railway at Adra in the district of Manbhum.
(6) Extension of the Khulna railway yard of the Eastern Bengal State Railway, Khulna.

94. The most important new projects for the acquisition of land, for which orders were issued during the year, were:—

(1) East Indian Railway Company's staff quarters at Howrah.
(2) Works to be constructed and carried out by the Port Commissioners, Calcutta, in villages Nandanpur, etc., 24-Parganas.
(3) An elevated reservoir for supply of filtered water to Calcutta.
(4) Construction of a car shed for the Calcutta Tramway Company at Sealdah, 24-Parganas.
(5) Works to be constructed and carried out by the Port Commissioners, Calcutta, in village Muchikola, 24-Parganas.
(6) Acquisition of land for a Dhobikhana and construction of new roads to open up the area and improve the surroundings, and provide means of access to the site in Ballygunge, 24-Parganas.
(7) Diversion of Baliaghata road in village Shibtola, 24-Parganas.
(8) Road for the drainage of Canal area, Section II, from Canal West Road to Gas Street in Sealdah, 24-Parganas.
(9) Further extension of the Sealdah and Baliaghata yards of the Eastern Bengal State Railway, 24-Parganas.
(10) Road for main sewer from Garpar Road to Bahir Mirzapur Road and Branch to Upper Circular Road for the drainage of the Canal area, 24-Parganas.
(11) Extension of the Presidency College in Calcutta.
(12) Quardrupling of Eastern Bengal State Railway line between Dum-Dum Junction and Kankinara, 24-Parganas.
(13) Construction of a new Branch line from Chapra to Mashrak in Saran.
(14) New alignment of the Bengal and North-Western Railway from Dheng to Bairagnia over the Bagmati Bridge in the district of Muzaffarpur.
(15) Location of the Calcutta Free School at Ranchi.

Considerable progress in acquisition for many of these projects was made during the year, and the acquisition proceedings in respect of project No. 5 were completed.

95. In the Burdwan division, a Deputy Collector continued to be specially employed throughout the year on the acquisition of lands required for the Hooghly-Katwa Railway in the districts of Hooghly, Burdwan and Nadia and for other minor projects of the East Indian Railway in the district of Burdwan. The Deputy Collector, who was specially employed in the district of Howrah for taking up lands for the East Indian Railway, the Bengal-Nagpur Railway and other projects, finished his work at the end of September 1908 and reverted to the general line. In the Presidency division, a Deputy Collector was employed solely on land acquisition work in the 24-Parganas, and Mr. H. P. Duval, I.C.S., was employed, as in the preceding year, in taking up lands required for the extension of the Kidderpore Docks and for the improvement of the Port of Calcutta. Mr. Duval was also employed from October 1908 in acquiring lands required by the Calcutta Corporation in connection with their Fringe Area Drainage scheme, and to assist him a Sub-Deputy Collector was on deputation from the 22nd August 1908 up to the end of the year. The Special Land Acquisition Deputy Collector employed on the work in connection with the Murshidabad portion of the Barharwa-Azimgunge-Katwa Railway reverted to the general line in April 1908. The Special Land Acquisition Deputy Collector employed in the district of Saran continued throughout the year to acquire lands for the Bengal and North-Western Railway Company. The work of acquiring lands for the Dhaka and Tribeni canal projects in the district of Champaran was carried on by a Sub-Deputy Colletor till September 1908, when the Deputy Collector specially employed in the district of Bhagalpur in taking up lands for the Bhagalpur-Bansi Railway and the Mansi-Baptiahi Extension of the Tirhut State Railway, was, on the completion of his work there, transferred to Champaran for employment on the land acquisition work in that district. In the Chota Nagpur division, one Deputy Collector continued to be specially employed throughout the year in the districts of Manbhum and Ranchi on the acquisition of lands required for the Ranchi-Purulia Railway, the Adra reservoir scheme of the Bengal-Nagpur Railway, and other projects

96. The figures in the margin show the state of the land acquisition files of the ordinary district staff throughout the Province. On the 31st March 1909, 327 projects were pending against 365 at the close of the preceding year, and the proportion of proceedings pending for more than two years was about 16 per cent. against 12 per cent. in the preceding year. Out of the 54 old cases, 7 are under reference or appeal in the Civil Courts, 26 have been disposed of since the close of the year, 10 are under award and the remaining 11 are in different stages of progress.

97. The number of current leases, granted under the rules of 1853, in the 24-Parganas and Khulna Sundarbans was 131 as against 115 in the previous year. The difference is due to a mistake previously made by the Sundarbans office in reporting the number. The rent payable on account of these leases is Rs. 1,31,056, which will eventually rise to Rs. 1,35,802.

Waste lands.

The rules for the grant to large capitalists of waste lands in the Sundarbans are still under suspension; and the only grant made during the year under those rules was justified by the peculiar circumstances of the case. The area of the grant was 14,226 acres, and an upset price of one rupee per acre was paid. There were also 19 renewals under clause 4 of the prescribed form of lease under the special orders of Government. The total number of leases in existence under the large capitalist's rules was 208 with an aggregate area of 370,038 acres. The revenue payable at present amounts to Rs. 50,486, but it will eventually amount to Rs. 2,25,221.

The number of leases under the small capitalist's rules was nine, the same as in the preceding year.

98. The reclamation work of Fraserganj was practically finished during the year. About 7 miles of embankment were made, completing the circuit of outer embankments, which will protect an area of about 20,000 bighas from the ingress of salt water. Three large dams and several cross embankments were also constructed. The total area of the island is 28,555 bighas. Of the unprotected area 2,890 bighas are reserves for fuel reserves and the rest is uncleared. The cleared area is provided with roads which are bridged in a substantial manner, and there are also at intervals sluices for the drainage of rainfall from the area within the embankments There are also several useful godowns and buildings. It is reported that 1,500 bighas are already fit for the cultivation of paddy; and there are 39 raiyats settled on the estates, some of whom have begun to pay rent. The demand for the year 1908-09 was Rs. 1,011, which has been fully paid. In the year under report 1,603 maunds of paddy were harvested.

The expenditure of the year was Rs. 39,392, and the total cost of reclamation work was Rs. 4,95,155, exclusive of items of expenditure on the improvement of the sea-face, and the establishment of Fraserganj as a health resort. Owing to the difficulties of communication this latter project is for the present abandoned. The actual cost of reclamation was about Rs 22 per bigha as against the estimate of Rs. 15. The increase was due to outbreaks of cholera among the coolies in each of the seasons of 1906 to 1908.

The Commissioner reports that during his last visit of inspection at the end of March last he was very favourably impressed with the result of the work. The only difficulty is the introduction of cultivators. The island is too far from the main land for immigrants to settle there of their own motion; but reclamation in this part of the Sundarbans is extending rapidly, and the prospects of procuring tenants are steadily improving.

Improvements made in the Sundarbans estates resumed by Government.

99. There were 17 resumed estates in the 24-Parganas portion of the Sundarbans (including Saugor Island) and 13 in the Khulna portion. Their resumption was due, for the most part, to the failure of the lessees to comply with the terms of their agreements.

Of the 17 estates in the 24-Parganas four were cleared and fit for cultivation. One of them, Bhagwanpur, has been leased out to four tenureholders, on their undertaking to maintain the embankments in proper order. In the other three estates, Painabal, Sakdaha and Lot No. 16 (first portion), the embankments are in bad repair. There was a serious failure of crops during the years 1906-07 and 1907-08 in Sakdaha and Lot No. 16 (first portion); but during the past year the crops were very fair and it is hoped that some arrear rents may be recovered. Provision for the repair or construction of embankments in these estates could not be made during the year for want of funds.

In Khulna one estate, Samukpota, was settled with the proprietors, and twelve were left in the possession of Government at the end of the year. The construction and repair of embankments cost Rs. 3,408 in Gobindpur, and Rs. 165 in Durgatola and Saranpur. It was not possible to provide funds for any of the remaining estates.

The whole question of the administration of resumed estates in the Sundarbans is at present under the consideration of the Board.

Zamindari abwabs.

100. The levy of abwabs and other illegal exactions additional to rent continues to be prevalent more or less in the province, though no suit was brought under section 75 of the Bengal Tenancy Act during the year. Regarding Burdwan the Commissioner reports that abwabs are freely exacted throughout the division. In the Presidency division the practice of taking them "is prevalent more or less in all districts." In Patna "the levy continues in some places in the division." In Tirhut "the levy still prevails more or less in each district in this division." In Bhagalpur "the list of such exactions prepared in 1902-03 still holds good." In Orissa "some illegal cesses are realised by zamindars in addition to rent in the districts of Cuttack, Balasore and Puri." In Chota Nagpur the Dhalbhum Syndicate is singled out for special mention. In Manbhum irregularly recurring mangans are common.

It is clear that in spite of the prohibitions of the Permanent Settlement, and the specific provisions of the Bengal Tenancy Act, a large number of zamindars persist in attempting to collect sums over and above the legally payable rent, and that the penalties prescribed are not sufficiently deterrent. From Patna and Tirhut, however, it is reported that the settlement operations have had some effect in reducing the practice and educating the tenants in their rights.

Kanungos.

101. Kanungos appointed under the Regulations, viz., V of 1816 and I of 1819, exist only in the districts of the Orissa division (excluding Sambalpur). Most of these have had a training in survey and settlement work. Their principal duties comprise local enquiries of a civil nature, miscellaneous revenue work, including the collection of taccavi advances, investigations into encroachments on reserved lands, and the collection of petty cess demands and decretal amounts in rent execution cases. In Cuttack, the kanungos also assisted in famine work, and in Khurda they had to check the milan khasra prepared by the sarbarakars and to do collection work in certain khas villages, the sarbarakars of which were either dead or dismissed In Angul, they were also employed in clearing off the arrear work of the Settlement Department and on famine work.

Patwaries.

102. The patwaries appointed under Regulation XII of 1817 are found in the districts of the Patna and Tirhut divisions, in Monghyr, in the Pataspur estate in Midnapore, and in parganas Khaira and Belaunja in Palamau.

In the districts of the Patna and Tirhut divisions there were for disposal 1,060 cases, of which 894 were disposed of. The cases were brought either by the zamindars or the patwaries, and the majority of them related to the appointment or dismissal of patwaries, the production of their accounts, or the recovery of their pay. There were four cases in Monghyr, of which one was for registration of the patwarie's name, one for dismissal, and two for recovery of pay. Three of these were disposed of during the year. There were no cases in Palamau. The patwaries in Pataspur work directly under the zamindars.

Financial results of loans operations under Act XIX of 1883 and Act XII of 1884.

103. The financial results of the working of the Loans Acts are shown in Appendices XVII and XVIII, parts (A) and (B), in accordance with the Government of India's Circular No. 2—138-2, of the 15th February 1906.

Advances under the Land Improvement Loans Act, XIX of 1883. Appendix XVII (Part A).

104. The loans granted during the year amounted to Rs. 9,74,780 as against Rs. 4,23,561 in the preceding year. The districts in which they exceeded Rs. 25,000 are as follows:—

	Rs.		Rs.
Bhagalpur	2,24 356	Bankura	50,035
Darbhanga	1,90,000	Palamau	47,192
Muzaffarpur	1,23,672	Saran ..	32,296
Nadia ...	1,04,730	Sonthal Parganas	25,749
Hazaribagh	77,831

The sum of Rs. 2,24,356 was advanced in Bhagalpur for the construction of irrigation works as a protection for the future and as an indirect palliative to the distress which was threatening the district. In Darbhanga and Muzaffarpur the advances were made mainly for the excavation and re-excavation of tanks, the sinking of wells and construction of bandhs. The loans were granted in Nadia to both tenants and landlords for excavating tanks and wells, in Hazaribagh, Bankura and Palamau for constructing works likely to provide employment to labourers during the scarcity that prevailed, and in Saran for sinking wells. In the Sonthal Parganas the main object was the improvement of irrigation by the excavation and re-excavation of tanks and bandhs.

105. The balance of loans outstanding under the Act on the 1st April 1908 amounted to Rs. 8,02,329. This sum was increased to Rs. 17,77,109 by the advances made during the year. The amount due for recovery in the year was Rs. 2,18,937. The total collections amounted to Rs. 1,75,650, of which payments in advance accounted for Rs. 17,304, and payments in respect of the amount recoverable in the year were Rs. 1,58,346, while Rs. 662 were remitted and Rs. 282 suspended. The percentage of total collections (including advance collections) on the realizable demand was 80·2 as against 82·8 in the preceding year. The net amount of the year's demand overdue at the end of the year was Rs. 59,647. This sum includes Rs. 11,511 in Hazaribagh, Rs. 10,342 in Palamau, Rs. 5,736 in Gaya, Rs. 4,858 in Saran, Rs. 4,728 in Bhagalpur, Rs. 2,855 in Darbhanga, Rs. 2,769 in Nadia, Rs. 2,766 in Burdwan, Rs. 1,910 in Ranchi, Rs. 1,820 in Shahabad and Rs. 1,658 in Sonthal Parganas.

In Hazaribagh the balance including interest was Rs. 13,824. The sum of Rs. 2,812 has been collected since the close of the year. The Deputy Commissioner reports that recovery was hampered by the failure of the postal authorities to supply the rural post offices with books of receipts for money-orders, and that many would be remitters were turned away and their money refused. In Palamau, in consequence of the bad harvests and high prices of the preceding two years, it was inexpedient to take coercive measures. Warning post-card notices were issued against the defaulters, and those who could pay without hardship have already done so. In the remaining districts the widespread scarcity is assigned as the explanation of the large balances.

Appendix XVIII (Part A).

106. The financial results of the working of the Land Improvement Loans Act are shown in Appendix XVIII (Part A). The interest payable to the Imperial Government for the year in respect of all advances made under this Act was Rs. 60,211. The amount of interest collected by the Provincial Government from its debtors during the year amounted to Rs. 41,579. The balance of interest which had to be made good from Provincial funds, therefore, amounted to Rs. 18,632. The amount of principal remitted during the year was Rs. 662, which also has to be borne by the Provincial Government, as well as the expenses connected with the working of the Act during the year, amounting to Rs. 13,567. Therefore, if the figures of the year under report be considered apart from those of other years, the relief afforded by these loans cost the Provincial Government Rs. 32,861. As in the case of agricultural loans, these advances often prevent expenditure on famine relief, and a large amount has accordingly been advanced free of interest. But careful attention to recovery is clearly needed on the part of Collectors to reduce the loss on the operations to as low a sum as possible.

Advances under the Agriculturists' Loans Act, XII of 1884.

(Appendix XVII, Part B.)

Principal.

107. The balance of principal outstanding from the previous year on the 1st April 1908 was Rs. 27,34,917. The amount advanced during the year was Rs. 35,41,044, making a total principal of Rs. 62,75,961. Out of this Rs. 24,55,224 were recoverable within the year. The total collections amounted to Rs. 8,29,043 (including Rs. 20,074 advance collections), and Rs. 6,155 were remitted. The recoverable demand was thus reduced to Rs. 16,20,100, out of which Rs. 15,246 were suspended. The balance which ought to have been, but was not, collected during the year was Rs. 16,04,854, or nearly two-thirds of the total.

Interest.

108. The arrears of interest suspended and overdue at the commencement of the year amounted to Rs. 67,769. The interest falling due within the year amounted to Rs. 1,86,258. Thus the total interest for realisation during the year amounted to Rs. 2,54,027, of which Rs. 90,433 were collected (excluding Rs. 1,395 collected in advance) and Rs. 659 remitted. The balance outstanding was Rs. 1,62,935, out of which Rs. 903 were suspended. The general cause of these very unsatisfactory results is to be found in the adverse conditions of the agricultural year, which not only prevented the collection of old loans, but necessitated the distribution of new ones to the extent of 35 lakhs of rupees. With the advent of good crops recoveries must be carefully supervised. It is necessary to prevent the growth of a feeling that the repayment of these loans is optional or uncertain. They are granted for sums that are individually small and capable of liquidation from the proceeds of a single good season, and the liberality with which the State at

Add the following to rule 12 :—

"Assistant Magistrates, Deputy Magistrates and Sub-Deputy Magistrates, undergoing a course of training, and Probationary Deputy and Sub-Deputy Magistrates, who are allowed under Appendix XIIIB, rule 1, to appear at any Departmental Examination, are, under the rules given in Part A of that Appendix, required to prepare a full, complete and careful record of six cases tried by a first class Magistrate, and six defended cases tried by a Sessions Judge, to be selected for the purpose by the District Magistrate. APPENDIX XIII.

A.—Rules for the Training of Assistant Magistrates, Deputy Magistrates and Sub-Deputy Magistrates.

1. Assistant Magistrates who have not passed the Higher Standard in Law and Deputy and Sub-Deputy Magistrates who have not passed the Lower Standard in Law shall be required to prepare a full, complete and careful record of six cases tried by a first class Magistrate, and six defended cases tried by a Sessions Judge, to be selected for the purpose by the District Magistrate. The record should consist of —

(1) a summary of the evidence, with notes on it, showing its admissibility and applicability to the offence charged;

(2) notes on the procedure with references to the Codes, e.g., to such matters as the rules as to cross-examination, re-examination, drawing up of charge, and taking the statement of the accused.

It should be understood that value will be given to notes intelligently based on annotated editions of the Criminal Procedure Code, Penal Code, Evidence Act, on Woodman's Digest, and recognised text-books.

2. The District Magistrate will forward these records to the Legal Remembrancer, who will, at any time before the date fixed for the Departmental Examination, send a statement of his opinion thereon to the Central Examination Committee for consideration and submission to Government with the result of each half-yearly examination.

3. If, in the opinion of the Legal Remembrancer, an officer has once prepared the record satisfactorily, he will not be required to do so again, even although he may not be adjudged to have passed in Law.

4 Assistant Magistrates also should receive a thorough training in the Tauzi Department and Collectorate record-room under the special supervision of the Collector.

B.—Rules for the training of Probationers.

The following rules are intended to apply to Probationers of the Provincial Executive Service and of the Subordinate Civil Service :—

1. The minimum period of probation will be twelve months. Probationers shall, during their probationary service, be trained so as to get as much experience as possible in Magisterial and Revenue Courts, with a view to acquire a knowledge of official routine. During this period they should study the Codes and the Acts to enable them to go up for their Departmental Examinations as soon as they are allowed. For Probationers who are appointed in the ordinary way in the autumn, this will be in October or November of the succeeding year. But officers who are appointed at other times will not be allowed to go up until twelve months have elapsed from the date of their appointment.

2. The training should be arranged with reference to the work in the office to which the officer is attached. He will be trained in the Magisterial Department for three months, and in the Revenue Department, including (1) Tauzi and Government Estates, (2) Land Registration, (3) English Office, (4) Munshikhana Registers, (5) Certificates, (6) Record-room, (7) Cess and Revaluation, (8) Nizarat, (9) Excise and Income-tax, (10) Treasury,* for nine months.

The amount of time spent in each Revenue Department will depend on the amount of work in that department of the particular office to which the Probationer is posted.

3. Probationers should not take up Partition, Survey and Settlement, or Land Acquisition work. These departments form the subject of special training.

4. The Collector should have a register prepared showing, with reference to the work in his office, the amount of time a Probationer will spend in the different departments.

Training in Magisterial Work.

5. Probationers should, during the period of their training in the Magisterial Department, attend the Court of a first class Magistrate selected by the District Magistrate during the trial of criminal cases. They should be required to prepare a full, complete and careful record of the depositions of the witnesses, and a concise summary of the evidence given. They should also be required to take notes of the arguments of the pleaders, and discuss the application of the law to the facts of the cases reported by them, and to write a decision. This should be done in at least six defended cases.

5 (1). The rules in Part A will also be applicable to the cases of Probationers after the first twelve months of their probation, if they intend to appear for the Departmental Examination in Law by the Lower Standard before they are appointed substantively pro tempore.

6. The records of the cases prepared under rule 5 should be submitted by the Probationer to the trying Magistrate, who should examine them with a view to see that they are being intelligently prepared. He should point out any obvious mistakes. The records should also be occasionally examined by the District Magistrate or the Joint-Magistrate.

7. Probationers should be deputed to examine the various registers kept in the Criminal Courts, and to submit inspection reports according to the Inspection Manual. They should also inspect the Record-room and other Departments of the Magistrate's office according to the Manual. The inspection note should be submitted through the Deputy Magistrate in charge to the Magistrate.

Probationers might also be deputed for miscellaneous inquiries in regard to criminal cases when the inspection of a locality or other matter is important, and they might be examined in Court as to their reports. They might also conduct inquiries in chaukidari or other simple matters.

Training in Revenue Work.

8. Probationers should not be required to work as clerks, or to write up registers; they should, however, prepare notes or précis of cases and draft letters. They should see all the papers which go up to the Deputy Collector, and the Deputy Collector should utilize their services in any way that he can in connection with the cases. The Deputy Collector should, at the same time, see that the Probationer makes himself acquainted with the law and rules on the subject, and should from time to time require him to prepare a note explaining the procedure or the reason for any action taken in a particular case. In departments the work of which involves the keeping of accounts or registers, Probationers should check and initial entries made in registers, check the accounts, and examine the preparation of returns. They should also inspect each department according to the Inspection Manual, and the Collector might utilize their notes of inspection for his own inspections. They should also attend inspections by the senior officers.

9. At the end of the probationary period in any department, or under any Deputy Collector, the Deputy Collector should record a note in the register referred to in rule 4, stating how the Probationer has attended to his duties, and a general opinion of his industry and ability. This should be shown to the Collector.

10. Probationers should keep a diary, and record briefly the work done by them day by day. The diary should be submitted to the Deputy Collector under whom they are working for the time, and should be seen by the Collector.

* N.B.—Probationary Deputy and Sub-Deputy Collectors, while undergoing their training in Treasury work under this rule, may be placed in subordinate charge of Treasuries as heretofore under rule 18 of the Departmental Examination Rules as amended by Notification No. 2238 A.D., dated the 14th October 1901.

NOTIFICATION.

No. 5964B.

THE following instructions for the working of the rules issued by Government under Notification No. 338S.R., dated the 2nd April 1909, for the payment of duty on salt within a period not exceeding six months from the date on which such payment is due under the law and for furnishing security for such payment, are published for the guidance of officers engaged in the administration of the Salt Department in Bengal and for general information.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR THE ISSUE OF SALT ON CREDIT IN BENGAL.

Persons desirous of availing themselves of the benefits of the credit rules should apply in person or by duly authorised agent to the Collector of Customs, Calcutta, or the $\frac{\text{Collector}}{\text{Deputy Commissioner}}$ of the district, as the case may be, for the issue of salt on credit. Such applications should be in the annexed form A which can be procured from the officer named above and should be accompanied by the securities to be deposited, and, in the case of Agents, also by a power-of-attorney duly stamped and registered, a copy of which must be lodged with the officer to whom application is made.

2. The grant of credits is discretionary and may be refused to any one without cause assigned. No credit is to be granted or renewed, until the depositor has signed a copy of the rules issued by the Local Government.

3. On the receipt of an application in form A, the Collector should examine the securities tendered and see that their aggregate value is not less than Rs. 500, that the chain of endorsements is complete and in proper form, and that they have been duly endorsed by the depositor in his favour.

4. All securities for which the Public Debt Office issue interest Payment Warrants should be forwarded to the Accountant-General, Bengal, for disposal; other securities (e.g., Postal Savings Bank Pass-books) should be retained in the strong room safe in the custody of the treasury officer.

5. The agreement prescribed by rule 2 of the rules annexed to Government Notification No. 338S.R., dated the 2nd April 1909, should be written upon eight-annas stamp paper.

6. The particulars of the securities and the names of the depositors should be entered in the register in the annexed form B, and, in districts outside Calcutta, also in register form C. A receipt in the annexed form D should then be furnished to the applicant. In fixing the amount of credit to be granted a deduction of six per cent. should be made from the market value of the securities as ascertained from the newspapers at the time when the credit is granted, and credit allowed up to the duty covered by the balance.

7. The value of the securities should be verified once a month by the treasury officer by comparison with the money market reports in the newspapers.

8. In Calcutta the Salt credit accounts will be worked in a similar manner to the Personal (or Floating) Deposit Accounts now maintained in the Calcutta Custom House.

9. In mufassal districts orders for the delivery of salt under the credit system should be in the annexed form E which should be kept like cheque books in the personal custody of the treasury officer. The original should remain in the Collectorate, the foil should be sent by post by the treasury officer to the officer in charge of the depôt/warehouse from which the salt is to be delivered and the counterfoil made over to the merchant who applies for credits. Before signing delivery orders the treasury officer should satisfy himself that the merchant's credit is sufficient.

10. When an application is made for a duplicate credit order on the plea that the original has been lost, the officer granting the credit should ascertain from the officer in charge of the depôt/warehouse on which the order issued whether it has been presented and salt received on it, and direct him to impound it if presented thereafter. After receipt of that officer's reply to the effect that the order has not been presented, a duplicate order may be issued on payment of a fee of Re. 1 and the merchant be warned that frequent carelessness of this kind will entail stoppage of credit.

11. To enable officers issuing salt on credit to verify the signatures of the credit issuing officers, the treasury officer will forward at the time of the first issue of credits on any $\frac{\text{depôt}}{\text{warehouse}}$ a sample of his signature. This precaution is necessary for the prevention of fraud.

12. The date on which credits fall due should be noted and watched in form B, referred to above. The greatest possible care should be taken by every officer granting credits to insist on all accounts being adjusted punctually at the end of the period of credit. The account current will be open to the inspection of the depositor on week days during office hours, when, if he wishes, he should be permitted to take a copy of it.

13. The Collector of Customs, Calcutta, should for the present publish the credit rules once every three months in the Calcutta Gazette, with a note briefly illustrating the advantages thereof. This should be done until the system is well understood by all native merchants. A notice to the same effect should also be permanently exhibited on the notice board of the Calcutta Custom House. Collectors should publish similar notices in the Collectorates and Sub-divisional Offices, and for this purpose should obtain vernacular translations of the rules and instructions from the Translators to Government. Opportunity should also be taken to explain to those interested the objects with which the system has been introduced and the benefits it is calculated to confer on them.

The following are the conditions of sale:—

1. The opium will be sold for exportation by sea only, and no certificate will be granted except to cover such export.

2. The opium will be ordinarily offered for sale at an upset price of Rs. 800 per chest, and sold to the highest bidder above that price, except under the circumstances for which provision is made by clause 13 of these conditions of sale. The bids must advance by Rs. 5 at a time.

3. The sale shall commence at the hour of 11 A.M. of the day fixed by previous notification, and shall not be continued after the hour of 5 P.M., but if at that hour any of the lots advertised for sale shall remain unsold, the sale may, at the discretion of the Board of Revenue, be resumed on the next day following (not being Sunday or a public holiday), at the hour of 11 A.M., and so on until the whole of the remaining lots are disposed of; or if the whole quantity advertised shall not be sold on the day appointed, the Board of Revenue may dispose of the lots which remain on hand at a future sale.

4. Each lot shall contain five chests.

5. A Promissory Note for a sum, calculated according to the scale, noted in the margin, shall be taken as a deposit on each lot from the purchaser in the sale-room and before the lot is registered in the sale-book, and all such Promissory Notes shall be redeemed on the part of the purchasers at this office by Bank of Bengal receipts or by substitution of other public securities of the Government of India, on or before 3-30 P.M., in the after-noon of the fifth day after the sale, provided it does not fall on a Saturday; if it falls on a Saturday, the said notes must be redeemed by 1-30 P.M., or, on the other hand, failing such redemption by the time aforesaid, then the lot or lots for which no Bank of Bengal receipts or deposit of other public securities as aforesaid shall have been delivered in, shall be re-sold at such time or times and under such conditions of re-sale as the Board of Revenue shall see fit; and all losses and expenses whatsoever attending such re-sale shall be borne and paid by the defaulters, whilst any profit accruing from such re-sale shall be forfeited to Government.

DEPOSIT.

When the amount bid is less than Rs. 1,200 per chest, Rs. 200 her chest.

On bids of Rs. 1,200 and upwards, but less than Rs. 1,600 per chest, Rs. 300 per chest.

On bids of Rs. 1.600 and upwards, but less than Rs 2,000 per chest, Rs. 400 per chest.

And so on, Rs. 100 being added to the deposit for every bid additional to the extent of Rs. 400.

6. The said Promissory Notes shall be absolutely payable in any event, and the amount thereof shall be absolutely forfeited upon such default as before mentioned, and the amount thereof shall not go or be credited in reduction of any loss on re-sale or expenses thereby incurred, but shall be recoverable whether such re-sale shall be had or not, or whether there shall be a loss on such re-sale or not.

7. The Promissory Notes taken on the day of sale under the fifth condition, if remaining unredeemed at 3-30 P.M. of the fifth day following the day of sale, or 1-30 P.M., if the last day falls on a Saturday, will be placed in the hands of the Solicitor to the Government for realization in such manner as to him shall seem fit.

8. No tender of money, Bank of Bengal receipts, or public securities, on account of opium upon which the prescribed deposit may not have been made before the prescribed time in clause 5 on the 5th day following the day of sale, will be afterwards accepted. Provided always that money so subsequently tendered may be taken in payment of the said Promissory Note, but such acceptance of money shall in no way entitle the payer thereof to any right to delivery of the lot or lots in respect whereof the said note was given, or to any of the rights of a purchaser thereof, or release the payer from liability for any unpaid balance of such notes or from the additional liability for the loss and expenses of such re-sale as provided for in clauses No. 5 and No. 6.

9. The opium advertised for sale shall be paid for not later than by 3-30 P.M. of the fifteenth day from the day of sale, provided it does not fall on a Saturday; if it falls on a Saturday, the opium must be paid for by 1-30 P.M.; and, in case any lots of such opium shall not be so paid for and adjusted, then the cash deposit made under the fifth condition, or any public securities that may have been deposited on account of such lots or chests, shall be forfeited, and the opium shall be disposed of on account of Government at such time and in such manner as the Board of Revenue shall think fit; and the first purchaser shall further be required to make good all expenses and any loss or difference of price between that obtained at the re-sale and the amount at which the opium was first purchased, forfeiting all advantages that may arise from such re-sale, and the liability for the loss or difference of price and expenses shall be in addition to, and wholly independent of, the amount of the deposit so forfeited.

10. Purchasers taking out certificates or orders for the delivery of opium, after making full payment as above prescribed, shall have the option of naming the number of lots of their purchase, which they may desire to be included in each certificate or order; and it is to be clearly understood that the certificates or orders so taken out shall be considered final, and not afterwards changeable for other certificates or orders authorizing the delivery of single lots or of a different number of lots or chests, whether more or less, than the number of lots or chests ordinarily required to be included in each certificate or order.

11. No deposit of public securities under the fifth of the present conditions will be received in this office except from the party recorded as the purchaser in the sale-book, or his authorized agent. The receipt for deposit of public securities will be granted only in the name of such purchaser, and the securities so deposited will be returned when payment in full has been made by the said purchaser or his order.

12. The officer superintending the sale on the part of the Government is empowered to reject, at his discretion, the bid of any individual, unless such individual shall on demand render at the time a deposit either in Government of India Notes, Bank of Bengal receipts, or Government securities, a sum equal to the amount for which a Promissory Note would otherwise be taken under the fifth of these conditions.

13. With a view to prevent fictitious biddings designed to obstruct the sale, it is hereby notified that the officer of Government superintending the sale shall be competent, at any time during the sale, to withdraw any unsold lot, and immediately to put it up again for sale at a maximum upset price, diminishing the same gradually by Rs. 5 at a time until a bid is obtained; and the first bonâ fide bidder for a lot, after it has been offered for sale in the mode here described, shall be held and declared to be the purchaser of the said lot, and the officer of Government superintending the sale shall also be competent to dispose, in the same manner, of as many of the subsequent lots as he may think proper, provided always that no lot shall be sold below the minimum price of Rs. 800 specified in the second of these conditions.

14. The purchaser of any lot shall have the option of naming and purchasing in immediate succession, at the same price and under the same conditions, any number of lots of the same Agency opium not exceeding altogether twenty-five lots, provided always that there remain a sufficient number of lots of the opium to complete the said twenty-five.

15. In the event of any dispute or difference touching or concerning any matter or question arising out of the sale of the opium included in this notification, or adjustment of the account thereof, the same shall and may be tried and decided in the High Court of Judicature at Fort William in Bengal.

16. The following papers will be exhibited for inspection on the day of sale, or may be seen previously to that date by personal application at the office of the Board of Revenue:—

No. 1, Certificate of the opium advertised for sale;

No. 2, Report of the examination of such opium.

17. The public are hereby informed that in providing the investment of the opium manufactured at the Patna Factory and the opium manufactured at the Ghazipur Factory for the year 1908-09, the same precautions have been taken as those which have been observed during past years to have the drug procured and sent down in a pure state, to have only the prescribed quantity of leaves used in forming the cakes, and to have the due proportion of opium put into each cake. An account of the weight of the drug, when packed at the Patna and Ghazipur Factories, and a statement of the average weight of the chests, indiscriminately taken, for the purpose of comparison, from the despatches on arrival at Calcutta, may be seen on personal application at the office of the Board of Revenue.

18. Any further information respecting weight or quality of the opium advertised for sale that may be desired by parties connected with the trade will, as heretofore, be furnished to them on personal application at the office of the Board of Revenue. But, in accordance with established usage, under no circumstances will the Board of Revenue entertain or recognize any claim to compensation for loss from any alleged deficiency of weight, abstraction of opium, or adulteration of the drug, which may be preferred on reference to chests after the sale and delivery of the opium for shipment.

NOTIFICATION.

STATE SCHOLARSHIPS TENABLE IN ENGLAND BY EUROPEANS AND EURASIANS EDUCATED IN INDIA.

No. 18438.—The 6th December 1909.—In the year 1907 His Majesty's Secretary of State for India sanctioned the institution of one scholarship of £200 per annum tenable at a European University to be awarded in each year to a member of the domiciled European and Eurasian community in India on the understanding that candidates belonging to this community should no longer be regarded as eligible for the two University State Scholarships at present granted to natives of India. For the scholarship to be awarded in the year 1910 applications are now invited.

2. The scholarship will entitle the holder to an allowance not exceeding £200 per annum payable from the date of his arrival in England and will be tenable for three or four years, as circumstances may require, at any University in the United Kingdom or, with the special sanction of the Government of India, at a foreign University. The candidate to whom the scholarship is awarded, will be required to proceed to England within a reasonable period from the date of his selection, and to reside there for a period of three or four years, as the case may be, unless compelled to return sooner by ill-health. He will be provided with a free second class passage to England, and also with a free return passage if he completes the full period of residence or is compelled by sickness to return within that period.

3. The two main principles which govern the grant of the scholarship are :—

(i) that as the object in view is to assist a domiciled European or Eurasian to go through a University course in England the scholarship will ordinarily be awarded to a young man at the close of his school career in India so that he may join the University at practically the same age as boys educated in England : the Government of India place the age limits at 18 to 21, i.e., the candidate must have completed 18 years of age and not have completed 21 years, on 31st March of the year in which the scholarship is awarded; and

(ii) the scholarship will be given to the candidate who is most likely to win distinction at the University.

4. The following rules are to be observed in regard to the form in which applications are to be submitted.—

(1) The application should ordinarily be in the handwriting of the applicant. In the exceptional case of his being out of India, the parent or guardian may submit an application;

(2) The application should give full details as to the applicant's age, family circumstances, the schools or colleges which he has attended, his studies, the distinctions he has gained, and the course of study he wishes to follow. Information should also be given as to—

(a) the University at which the candidate proposes to study and the reasons for selecting the particular University;

(b) the special aptitude, if any, which the candidate has shewn for the kind of study which he proposes to pursue;

(3) The application should be accompanied by a birth certificate, a certificate from a commissioned officer of the Indian Medical Service testifying to the general health of the candidate and certifying that his physique is such that there is good prospect of the University course not being seriously interrupted by ill-health, and testimonials as to character and capacity. If original testimonials are not sent in, certified copies must be submitted The testimonials should include

(a) A certificate from the Principal of the institution last attended, stating that the applicant is of good moral character and of active habits, and, in the event of his having left school or college more than six months before the date of application, a certificate by a person of recognised position well acquainted with him, stating how he has been employed since he left school and certifying to his moral integrity.

(b) A certificate from some person of recognised position well acquainted with the candidate and his family, to the effect that he is a native of India within the meaning of Statute 33 Vict. Cap 3, section 6, and that his parents are not resident in India for temporary purposes only.

5. The Director of Public Instruction will personally interview those applicants whose names he thinks worthy of submission to Government. If a personal interview is impossible (e.g., owing to a candidate being absent from India), the fullest possible information should be given as to the physique and character of the candidate.

6. All applications for the scholarship to be awarded during the year 1910 should be submitted in the first instance to the Inspector of European Schools, Bengal, in time to reach the Director of Public Instruction on or before the 31st January 1910.

7. No application will be considered unless the applicant declares that the conditions of the scholarship as laid down in paragraphs 2 and 8 of this notification are known to him, and that he is prepared to abide by them.

8. The scholar will, on arrival in England, be required to bind himself by a written engagement to submit to the following rules, and to such other regulations as may from time to time be framed by His Majesty's Secretary of State for the guidance of scholars in England:—

(a) Every scholar shall, on reaching England, at once present himself to the Secretary Judicial and Public Department, at the India Office, and report his arrival in writing.

(b) Every scholar shall, without any unnecessary delay, inform the Secretary of State to which University or College he is about to proceed, and shall at once take steps to enter himself thereat.

(c) Every scholar shall, at the end of each term of residence at a University, submit to the Secretary of State a certificate from the proper University or College authority showing that his residence, conduct and progress in study have been satisfactory during the term.

(d) Every scholar shall at all times obey such instructions as he may receive from the Secretary of State.

(e) Subject to a due compliance with the above conditions, the allowance, at the rate of £200 a year for three years, or four years, if so determined will be paid quarterly, in advance, by the India Office, commencing from the date of the scholar's reporting his arrival in England.

(f) Every scholar will forfeit his scholarship who, not being disabled by illness or prevented by any other cause which the Secretary of State may consider sufficient, fails to complete the required terms of residence at a University or who is guilty of misconduct, persistent idleness, or disregard of the orders of the Secretary of State. If the scholarship be forfeited, the scholar will lose his claim to a free return passage to India and will further become liable to refund the cost of his free passage to England.

(g) The scholar will be under the supervision and charge of the Political A.-D.-C. to the Secretary of State, through whom the necessary orders will be given, and to whom all reports and other communications respecting him should be sent.

RESOLUTION ON THE REPORT ON THE ADMINISTRATION OF WARDS' AND ATTACHED ESTATES IN THE LOWER PROVINCES FOR THE YEAR 1908-09.

REVENUE DEPARTMENT—LAND REVENUE.

READ—

The Report of the Board of Revenue on the administration of Wards' and Attached Estates in the Lower Provinces for the year 1908-09.

There was again much delay on the part of many estates in the submission of the annual reports and returns required for the preparation of the report under review. Managers of estates should be informed that want of punctuality in the submission of their periodical reports and returns will be regarded as a mark of inefficiency on their part.

2. Number of estates under management.—The number of estates under the management of the Court of Wards at the close of the year was 209, against 200 in the preceding year.

3. Payment of revenue and cesses.—The percentage of land revenue and cess paid to Government on the total demand was the same as in the preceding year, namely, 92·4 per cent. The Lieutenant-Governor observes that many of the estates which were noted as defaulters in the previous year's report, have again defaulted heavily this year, in particular the Pachetgarh Estate in Midnapore, and the following estates of the 24-Parganas, the Mukharji Estate, the Panihati Estate No. 1, and the Tagore Estate, though as regards the latter it is noted that a large portion of the balance is expected to be paid off from the sale proceeds of the Midnapore property. The Lieutenant-Governor expects to see substantial reductions effected in these balances during the current year.

4. Rent and cesses due to superior landlords.—The total payments made under this head were 67·4 per cent. of the total demands, against 63·4 per cent. in the preceding year. The Uttarpara and Sultangacha Estates, in the district of Hooghly, both of which are deeply involved in debt, were the heaviest defaulters in this respect.

5. Collection of rent and cesses.—The collections fell from 95·7 per cent. of the current demand during the preceding year to 94·1 per cent. in the year under report. Failure of crops is the reason assigned for short collections in the majority of cases.

6. Balance of rents and cesses due to estates.—The total uncollected balance due to estates under management amounted to Rs. 1,16,37,856, or 121·2 per cent. of the total current demand, as against 128·9 per cent. in the preceding year. The Dumraon Estate in Shahabad is responsible for 40·8 per cent. of this heavy balance. A considerable portion of the balance, particularly in the Dumraon Estate, is reported to be altogether irrecoverable, either as being time barred, or for other reasons. The Lieutenant-Governor must call attention to the observation recorded last year, that such irrecoverable balances ought to be remitted promptly with the sanction of the Board. The Janbazar Estate in the 24-Parganas has this year, as last year, shown a balance of over Rs. 4,00,000, as against a current demand of Rs. 1,50,000. No explanation of this excessive balance has been furnished, and His Honour requests that the Board will submit a separate report on the case.

The number of certificates filed during the year under report exceeded the number filed in 1907-08 by 1,021, but the percentage of realisations on these certificates fell from 32·5 to 25·8. These figures are not satisfactory, and the Lieutenant-Governor desires that the Board will call the attention of managers to the subject. It appears unsatisfactory that in the Maheshpur Estate it should have been found possible to apply the certificate procedure to time-barred and fictitious demands. The policy uniformly followed by Government and the Board has been that the certificate procedure should be allowed only in estates where the accuracy of the records and accounts could be guaranteed, and it is not explained why there should have been an exception in this case.

The Lieutenant-Governor also observes that recoveries on amounts decreed amounted to only 27 per cent. as against 45 per cent., last year, and he entirely agrees with the Board that this branch of the managers' work requires the careful scrutiny of the District Officers concerned.

7. Payment of debts.—During 1908 the Court accepted the responsibility of new debts amounting to over Rs. 1,00,00,000, out of which the four estates of Muksudpur, Maheshpur, Sonbarsa and Uttarpara accounted for over Rs. 65,00,000. Accordingly although Rs. 51,83,452 were paid in liquidation of debts as against Rs. 35,99,997 in the previous year, the percentage of the amount paid to the total liability was the same as in the previous year, namely 16·3 per cent.

8. Cost of management and expenditure on improvements.—The total cost of management was 10·5 per cent. of the total current demand, as against 10·7 per cent. in the preceding year. The only divisions in which the percentage was below the prescribed limit of 10 per cent. are the Patna, Bhagalpur and Chota Nagpur Divisions. The general increase in the cost of management during the year was, as in the preceding year, mainly due to the payment of grain compensation allowances.

The expenditure on works of improvement, schools and dispensaries was on the whole satisfactory. The total amount spent was Rs. 4,26,138, or nearly the same as during the year 1907-08.

The agricultural experiments conducted in the various estates during the year were generally attended with poor results, the want of success being in almost all cases attributed to unfavourable weather conditions.

9. Education of wards.—The arrangements made for the education of wards and the results attained were on the whole satisfactory. There are now 11 inmates in the hostel which has been started at Hazaribagh.

10. Amendment of Chota Nagpur Encumbered Estates Act VI of 1876.—Some important amendments were made in this Act during the year under review. In particular it has been provided that the Deputy Commissioner may take action for the application of the Act, when a proclamation for sale of the immovable property of an estate has been issued, or when he is satisfied that the holder of the estate has entered upon a course of wasteful extravagance likely to dissipate the property. The Board of Revenue have also been given powers of supervision and control which they did not possess under the old law.

11. The thanks of the Lieutenant-Governor are due to the Board of Revenue for their careful supervision and efficient administration of the estates under their charge during the year. The good services of the officers commended by them will be noted in the Appointment Department.

By order of the Lieutenant-Governor of Bengal,

F. W. DUKE,

Chief Secretary to the Govt. of Bengal.

* The mean pressure, temperature, etc., are deduced from eye observations.

The maximum and minimum temperatures are obtained from self-registering thermometers. All the thermometers are verified, and the readings have been corrected to a standard constructed and verified at the Kew Observatory. They are exposed under a thatched shed open at the sides, and are suspended four feet above the ground.

The barometer readings are corrected to those of the standard, Newman's No. 86, formerly at the Surveyor-General's Office.

The hygrometric elements are obtained from Tables III, IV and V of the official tables computed in the Meteorological Office and based on Regnault's modifications of August's formula.

The directions and the movement of the wind are taken from the trace of a Beckley's anemograph.

The mouth of the rain-gauge is one foot above the ground. The rainfall reported on any day is for 24 hours preceding 8 A.M. of that day.

△, dew; o, overcast; d, drizzling rain.

13. With a view to prevent fictitious biddings designed to obstruct the sale, it is hereby notified that the officer of Government superintending the sale shall be competent, at any time during the sale, to withdraw any unsold lot, and immediately to put it up again for sale at a maximum upset price, diminishing the same gradually by Rs. 5 at a time until a bid is obtained; and the first boná fide bidder for a lot, after it has been offered for sale in the mode here described, shall be held and declared to be the purchaser of the said lot, and the officer of Government superintending the sale shall also be competent to dispose, in the same manner, of as many of the subsequent lots as he may think proper, provided always that no lot shall be sold below the minimum price of Rs. 800 specified in the second of these conditions.

14. The purchaser of any lot shall have the option of naming and purchasing in immediate succession, at the same price and under the same conditions, any number of lots of the same Agency opium not exceeding altogether twenty-five lots, provided always that there remain a sufficient number of lots of the opium to complete the said twenty-five.

15. In the event of any dispute or difference touching or concerning any matter or question arising out of the sale of the opium included in this notification, or adjustment of the account thereof, the same shall and may be tried and decided in the High Court of Judicature at Fort William in Bengal.

16. The following papers will be exhibited for inspection on the day of sale, or may be seen previously to that date by personal application at the office of the Board of Revenue:—

No. 1, Certificate of the opium advertised for sale;

No. 2, Report of the examination of such opium.

17. The public are hereby informed that in providing the investment of the opium manufactured at the Patna Factory and the opium manufactured at the Ghazipur Factory for the year 1908-09, the same precautions have been taken as those which have been observed during past years to have the drug procured and sent down in a pure state, to have only the prescribed quantity of leaves used in forming the cakes, and to have the due proportion of opium put into each cake. An account of the weight of the drug, when packed at the Patna and Ghazipur Factories, and a statement of the average weight of the chests, indiscriminately taken, for the purpose of comparison, from the despatches on arrival at Calcutta, may be seen on personal application at the office of the Board of Revenue.

18. Any further information respecting weight or quality of the opium advertised for sale that may be desired by parties connected with the trade will, as heretofore, be furnished to them on personal application at the office of the Board of Revenue. But, in accordance with established usage, under no circumstances will the Board of Revenue entertain or recognize any claim to compensation for loss from any alleged deficiency of weight, abstraction of opium, or adulteration of the drug, which may be preferred on reference to chests after the sale and delivery of the opium for shipment.

RESOLUTION ON THE REPORT OF THE DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE, BENGAL, FOR THE YEAR ENDING THE 30TH JUNE 1909.

REVENUE DEPARTMENT—AGRICULTURE.

RESOLUTION—No. 3956Agri.

READ—

The Report of the Department of Agriculture, Bengal, for the year ending the 30th June 1909.

Mr. W. R. Gourlay, I.C.S., was in charge of the Department throughout the year. The only change in the personnel of the expert officers stationed at Bhagalpur consisted in the transfer of the Principal, Mr. Corbin, to the Punjab, his place being taken by Mr. A. C. Dobbs.

2. Organization.—The question of the organization of the Provincial Agricultural Service is still under consideration. The present staff of Provincial Officers consists of 4 assistants who are being trained for employment as teachers at the Provincial Agricultural College, 2 travelling inspectors, 7 superintendents or overseers in charge of agricultural stations, 6 inspectors of agriculture, 1 assistant mycologist and 1 assistant entomologist. Three students returned from America in 1907-08 after receiving agricultural training at the Cornell University, and were appointed as assistants in the department; and of the two who returned during 1908-09 one entered the department as a probationer.

3. Agricultural Stations.—Six agricultural stations at Dumraon, Bankipore, Sabaur, Chinsura, Burdwan and Cuttack were at work during the year. Steps were taken to start two more stations at Kharagpur in Midnapore to represent the laterite area, and at Ranchi to represent the Chota Nagpur plateau; but the projects have been kept in abeyance for want of money. The experimental work at Fraserganj was stopped owing to the difficulty of supervision; and the two small jute seed farms maintained at Berhampore and Purnea were closed as the work can be done equally well at the Chinsura and Burdwan stations.

4. Scientific Experiments.—The experimental cultivation of various kinds of crops, including jute, cotton, flax, sugarcane, potato and rice was carried on at various places in the Province with diverse results. Experiments with jute conducted at the Burdwan station on the lines laid down by the Inspector-General of Agriculture were attended with successful results and proved conclusively that, with due care in cultivation and retting, the Burdwan cultivators could produce from the Narayanganj seed as good fibre as is to be found in Eastern Bengal. The cultivation in Bihar by indigo planters has been discontinued.

The experiments with cotton had unsatisfactory results. The flax cultivation at Dhooria in Muzaffarpur was financially very successful. The Agricultural Chemist conducted a series of experiments to test the sugar-yielding properties of the different varieties of sugarcane, but no definite conclusions have yet been reached.

5. Sericulture.—The work of the silk-rearing establishment made satisfactory progress during the year. The old silk committee, consisting of non-official members, was abolished and was replaced by a new one with four silk experts as members and the Director of Agriculture as president. Under the supervision of this new committee a mulberry farm with a central seed-rearing nursery was started at Berhampore. The 9 model nurseries belonging to the old silk committee have been brought under government management, and 5 new ones are under construction, of which 3 are in Berhampore, 1 in Birbhum and 1 in Midnapore. They are intended to supply healthy seed to the rearers of silk-worms. The total value of the seed sold was Rs. 5,874. Experiments made with Japanese and Italian mulberry seed gave encouraging results.

6. Agricultural Education.—Little advance was made during the year in the promotion of agricultural education in the province. Unexpected delay in the commencement of the Agricultural College buildings at Sabaur will prevent the opening of the classes before November 1910. Meanwhile, the agricultural classes at the Sibpur Engineering College have been abolished, but an attempt to secure some continuity in training has been made by the grant of scholarships at institutions in other provinces. The students attending the agricultural classes attached to the several zilla schools and the collegiate school at Cuttack generally took little real interest in their work, the only exception being at Gaya, where agricultural instruction has been made a part of the general routine. The deputation of more students to America to study agriculture was discontinued during the year, partly because the supply of such trained men was likely to exceed the immediate requirements of the department and also because it seemed doubtful whether training under American conditions was altogether suitable for this country.

Mr. A. C. Sen, retired District and Sessions Judge, who was trained at the Cirencester College in England, has kept up his interest in agriculture, and has both held classes for cultivators and delivered popular lectures on the subject. Voluntary services to the cause of agriculture of this character are specially valuable, and deserve the fullest recognition from the community.

7. Agricultural Associations, Fairs and Exhibitions.—The great interest taken in the agricultural development of the province by many members of the Provincial, Divisional and District Agricultural Associations, and the services rendered by them to the Agricultural Department are a source of gratification to the Lieutenant-Governor, to whom the work of Mr. Sarada Charan Mitter, late a Judge of the Calcutta High Court, Rai Lalit Mohan Singh Ray Bahadur of Chakdighi, and Babu Purnendu Narayan Singh, Secretary, Patna Association, has been specially reported. Mr. A. N. Moberly, I.C.S., has done much in his capacity of Chairman of the Sambalpur District Association for the benefit of agriculture in that district.

The agricultural fairs and shows held during the year, of which a brief account is given in Appendix II to the report, received grants-in-aid from Government aggregating Rs. 6,522. They appear to be continuing to serve a very useful purpose.

8. Irrigation.—The well-boring operations which have been undertaken in this province on the recommendation of the Indian Irrigation Commission have made little progress during the year, partly in consequence of the want of practical experience on the part of the superintendent and partly because of the difficulty of close supervision over his work. He will for the future conduct his experiments under the supervision of the Principal of the Agricultural College at Sabaur. A large number of artesian wells were bored during the year in Muzaffarpur by the District Board in connection with the scarcity of water that prevailed there and were to a considerable extent successful.

9. Publication of agricultural information.—Besides the quarterly Journal of Agriculture which was started during the previous year, the department published and circulated leaflets and notes containing information in connection with agriculture. Large quantities of seeds of various crops, manures, and agricultural implements were issued from the government central seed store, which was removed during the year to the site of the Agricultural School Farm at Sibpur.

10. Indigo Research.—The indigo research operations at Sirsiah were continued with the aid of the Government subsidy of Rs. 50,000. For the next five years Government will contribute Rs. 32,500 a year on condition that the Bihar Planters' Association subscribe Rs. 10,000 annually to the cost of the research work. The Association have obtained for that period the services of Mr. C. J. Bergtheil, who has resigned his post as Imperial Bacteriologist in the Pusa Agricultural College and Research Institute in order to carry out and complete his researches.

11. Conclusion.—The thanks of the Lieutenant-Governor are due to Mr. W. R. Gourlay, I.C.S., Director of Agriculture, Bengal, for his administration of the department during the year. His Honour also notices with satisfaction the appreciation by the Director of Agriculture of the assistance rendered by the several officers mentioned in paragraph 67 of his report.

ORDER.—Ordered that the resolution be published in the Calcutta Gazette, and that a copy of it, with a copy of the report, be submitted to the Government of India.

By order of the Lieutenant-Governor of Bengal,

F. W. DUKE,

Chief Secy. to the Govt. of Bengal.

MONTHLY WEATHER AND CROP REPORT OF BENGAL FOR NOVEMBER 1909.

Character of the Season.—There were light showers in South-West Bengal, and practically no rain in the rest of the Province. The usual rainfall table is appended.

II. Progress of Agricultural operations.—Sowing of rabi crops continued during the month. It was very nearly completed in most districts. Harvesting of winter rice was in progress. Pressing of sugarcane continued in parts of Bihar and Orissa.

III. State of Standing crops.—The winter rice crop is ripening in some places, and has already been harvested in many districts. In the early part of the month some moisture was wanted for high land crops in Bankura, Shahabad and Bhagalpur. Early sown rabi crops are doing well.

IV. Prospects and Probable Outturn of Harvests.—Prospects of aman paddy are very hopeful. It is estimated that about an average crop will be harvested this year. Good harvests of autumn crops have been obtained in many districts.

V. Damage to Crops.—No serious damage to crops has been reported. Some injury was done by insects to early sown rabi crops in Patna.

VI. Condition of Agricultural stock.—The condition of cattle continued fair during the month. Cases of disease were reported from all the districts excepting Burdwan, Bankura, the 24-Parganas, Murshidabad, Khulna, Darjeeling and Singhbhum.

VII. Failure of Pasturage and Fodder.—The supply of fodder and water was sufficient throughout the month.

VIII. Prices of Food-grains.—During the second fortnight of the month, the price of common rice fell in 21 and rose in 3 districts. Prices are falling owing to good harvests.

IX. Condition of Labouring classes and Agricultural people.—Agriculturists are in good condition. Prospects of autumn and aman crops are good.

The mean pressure, temperature, etc., are deduced from the traces of the Barograph and Thermograph, and from eye observations.

The maximum and minimum temperatures are obtained from self-registering thermometers. All the thermometers are verified, and the readings have been corrected to a standard constructed and verified at the Kew Observatory. They are exposed under a thatched shed open at the sides, and are suspended four feet above the ground.

The barometer readings are corrected to those of the standard, Newman's No. 86, formerly at the Surveyor-General's Office.

The hygrometric elements are obtained from Tables III, IV and V of the official tables computed in the Meteorological Office and based on Regnault's modifications of August's formula.

The directions and the movement of the wind are taken from the trace of a Beckley's anemograph.

The mouth of the rain-gauge is one foot above the ground. The rainfall reported on any day is for 24 hours preceding 8 A.M. of that day.

⌓, dew; o, overcast; d, drizzling rain; g, gloomy.

1. In these rules,—

(1) "President" means—

(a) the Lieutenant-Governor, or
(b) the Vice-President appointed by the Lieutenant-Governor under section 4 of the Indian Councils Act, 1909;

(2) "Member in charge' means the Member appointed by the Lieutenant-Governor to be in charge of the Department of the Local Government to which the subject of a question pertains, and includes any Member to whom such Member may delegate any function assigned to him by these rules; and

(3) "Secretary" means the Secretary to the Bengal Legislative Council, and includes the Assistant Secretary and every person for the time being exercising the functions of the Secretary.

2. Any question may be asked by any Member, subject to the following conditions and restrictions.

3. No question shall be permitted in regard to any of the following subjects, namely:—

(a) any matter affecting the relations of His Majesty's Government, or of the Governor-General in Council, or of the Lieutenant-Governor with any Foreign State or any Native State in India, or relating to the internal affairs of any such Native State, or

(b) any matter under adjudication by a Court of Law having jurisdiction in any part of His Majesty's Dominions.

4. No question shall be asked unless it complies with the following conditions, namely:—

(a) it shall be so framed as to be merely a request for information,

(b) it shall not be of excessive length,

(c) it shall not contain arguments, inferences, ironical expressions or defamatory statements, nor shall it refer to the conduct or character of any person except in his official or public capacity, and

(d) it shall not ask for an expression of an opinion or the solution of a hypothetical proposition.

5. In matters which are or have been the subject of controversy between the Governor-General in Council or the Secretary of State and the Local Government no question shall be asked except as to matters of fact, and the answer shall be confined to a statement of facts.

6. A Member who wishes to ask a question shall give notice in writing to the Secretary at least ten clear days before the meeting of the Council at which he desires to put the question, and shall, together with the notice, submit a copy of the question which he wishes to ask:

Provided that the President may allow a question to be put with shorter notice than ten days, and may in any case require longer notice or may extend the time for answering a question.

7. (1) The Secretary shall submit every question of which notice has been given to him in accordance with rule 6 to the President, who may either allow it or, when any question is not framed in accordance with rule 4 or rule 5, cause it to be returned to the Member concerned, for the purpose of amendment.

(2) If the Member does not, within such time as the President may fix in this behalf, resubmit the question duly amended, the question shall be deemed to have been withdrawn.

8. The President may disallow any question, or any part of a question, without giving any reason therefor other than that in his opinion it cannot be answered consistently with the public interests or that it should be put in the Legislative Council of another Local Government or of the Governor General.

9. No discussion in Council shall be permitted in respect of any order of the President under rule 7 or rule 8.

10. Questions which have been allowed shall be entered in a separate list of business for the day, and shall be put, in the order in which they stand in the list, before any other business is entered upon at the meeting.

11. Questions shall be put and answers given in such manner as the President may in his discretion determine.

12. Any Member who has asked a question may put a supplementary question for the purpose of further elucidating any matter of fact regarding which a request for information has been made in his original question.

13. The Member in charge may decline to answer a supplementary question without notice, in which case the supplementary question may be put only in the form of a fresh question at a subsequent meeting of the Council.

14. These rules, except rules 6 and 7, apply also to supplementary questions:

Provided that the President may disallow any supplementary question without giving any reason therefor.

15. The President may rule that an answer to a question entered in the list of business for the day shall be given on the ground of public interest even though the question may have been withdrawn.

16. No discussion shall be permitted in respect of any question or of any answer given to a question.

17. All questions asked and the answers given shall be entered in the proceedings of the Council:

Provided that no question which has been disallowed by the President shall be so entered.

18. The President may assign such time as, with due regard to the public interest, he may consider reasonable for the putting and answering of questions.

(d) any matter under adjudication by a Court of Law having jurisdiction in any part of His Majesty's dominions.

Resolutions.

4. Subject to the restrictions contained in rule 3, any member may move a resolution relating to a matter of general public interest:

Provided that no resolution shall be moved which does not comply with the following conditions, namely:—

(a) it shall be in the form of a specific recommendation addressed to the Lieutenant-Governor;

(b) it shall be clearly and precisely expressed, and shall raise a definite issue;

(c) it shall not contain arguments, inferences, ironical expressions or defamatory statements, nor shall it refer to the conduct or character of any person except in his official or public capacity.

5. A member who wishes to move a resolution shall give notice in writing to the Secretary, at least fifteen clear days before the meeting of the Council at which he desires to move the same, and shall, together with the notice, submit a copy of the resolution which he wishes to move:

Provided that the President may allow a resolution to be moved with shorter notice than fifteen days, and may, in any case, require longer notice, or may extend the time for moving the resolution.

6. (1) The Secretary shall submit every resolution of which notice has been given to him in accordance with rule 5 to the President, who may either admit it or, when any resolution is not framed in accordance with rule 4, cause it to be returned to the member concerned for the purpose of amendment.

(2) If the member does not, within such time as the President may fix in this behalf, resubmit the resolution duly amended, the resolution shall be deemed to have been withdrawn.

7. The President may disallow any resolution or part of a resolution without giving any reason therefor other than that in his opinion it cannot be moved consistently with the public interests or that it should be moved in the Legislative Council of another Local Government or of the Governor-General.

8. (1) No discussion in Council shall be permitted in respect of any order of the President under rule 6 or rule 7.

(2) A resolution that has been disallowed shall not be entered in the proceedings of the Council.

9. Resolutions admitted by the President shall be entered in the list of business for the day, in the order in which they are received by the Secretary:

Provided that the President may give priority to any resolution which he may consider to be of urgent public interest, or may postpone the moving of any resolution.

Discussion of Resolutions.

10. The discussion of resolutions shall take place after all the other business of the day has been concluded.

11. (1) After the mover of a resolution has spoken, other members may speak to the motion in such order as the President may direct, and thereafter the mover may speak once by way of reply.

(2) No member other than the mover and the Member in charge shall speak more than once to any motion except, with the permission of the President, for the purpose of making an explanation.

12. No speech, except with the permission of the President, shall exceed fifteen minutes in duration:

Provided that the mover of a resolution, when moving the same, and the Member in charge, may speak for thirty minutes.

13. (1) Every member shall speak from his place, shall rise when he speaks, and shall address the chair.

(2) At any time, if the President rises, any member speaking shall immediately resume his seat.

14. (1) Any member may send his speech in print to the Secretary not less than two clear days before the day fixed for the discussion of a resolution, with eighty spare copies, and the Secretary shall cause one of such copies to be supplied to every member.

(2) If any member desires to have his speech printed at the Government Press, he shall send it to the Secretary for that purpose not less than five clear days before the day fixed for the discussion of the resolution.

15. The discussion of a resolution shall be limited to the subject of the resolution, and shall not extend to any matter as to which a resolution may not be moved.

16. When a resolution is under discussion any member may, subject to all the conditions and restrictions relating to resolutions specified in rules 3 and 4, move an amendment to such resolution:

Provided that an amendment may not be moved which has merely the effect of a negative vote.

17. (1) If a copy of such amendment has not been sent to the Secretary at least three clear days before the day fixed for the discussion of the resolution, any member may object to the moving of the amendment; and such objection shall prevail unless the President in exercise of his power to suspend any of these rules allows the amendment to be moved.

(2) The Secretary shall, if time permits, cause every amendment to be printed, and send a copy for the information of each member.

18. A member who has moved a resolution or an amendment of a resolution may withdraw the same, unless some member desires that it be put to the vote.

19. When, in the opinion of the President, a resolution and any amendment thereto have been sufficiently discussed, he may close the discussion by calling upon the mover to reply and the Member in charge to submit any final observations which he may wish to make:

Provided that the President may in all cases address the Council before putting the question to the vote.

20. (1) When an amendment to any resolution is moved, or when two or more such amendments are moved, the President shall, before taking the sense of the Council thereon, state or read to the Council the terms of the original motion and of the amendment or amendments proposed.

(2) It shall be in the discretion of the President to put first to the vote either the original motion or any of the amendments which may have been brought forward.

21. If any resolution involves many points, the President at his discretion may divide it, so that each point may be determined separately.

22. (1) Every question shall be resolved in the affirmative or in the negative according to the majority of votes.

(2) Votes may be taken by voices or by division, and shall be taken by division if any member so desires.

(3) The President shall determine the method of taking votes by division.

General.

23. The President may assign such time as, with due regard to the public interests he may consider reasonable, for the discussion of resolutions or of any particular resolution; and every resolution which has not been put to the vote within the time so assigned shall be deemed to have been withdrawn.

24. Every resolution, if carried, shall have effect only as a recommendation to the Lieutenant-Governor.

25. When a question has been discussed at a meeting of the Council, or when a resolution has been disallowed under rule 7 or withdrawn under rule 18, no resolution or amendment raising substantially the same question shall be moved within one year.

26. (1) The President shall preserve order, and all points of order shall be decided by him.

(2) No discussion on any point of order shall be allowed, unless the President thinks fit to take the opinion of the Council thereon.

(3) Any member may at any time submit a point of order to the decision of the President.

(4) The President shall have all powers necessary for the purpose of enforcing his decisions.

27. The Lieutenant-Governor may appoint a member of the Council to preside in his place, or in that of the Vice-President, on any occasion on which a matter of general public interest is discussed in the Council.

No. L.R.—The January 1910.—In exercise of the powers conferred by sub-section (1) and clauses (xxii) and (xxiv) of section 264 of the Chota Nagpur Tenancy Act, 1908, the provisions of which have been extended to the district of Manbhum by Notification No. 4010L.R., dated the 16th December 1909, published in the Calcutta Gazette of the 22nd idem, the Lieutenant-Governor is pleased to make the following rules as to the commutation of rent payable by occupancy-raiyats in that district in any of the ways mentioned in sub-section (1) of section 61 of that Act :—

Manbhum.

1. An application under section 61 for commutation of rent payable by an occupancy-raiyat must contain the following particulars :—

   - (b) when a record-of-rights has not been prepared, a statement of the parcels of land constituting the holding, the local name and boundaries of each parcel, the different qualities in each parcel, and the number of plots and the area of each different quality in each parcel.

Illustration to clause (b).—Name of tenant ... Birsingh Munda.

		4 plots—Autumn rice	1	49
		9 plots—Early rice	2	36

Explanation to clause (b).—The area must be given in acres and decimals when these are known; otherwise, in the measures locally prevalent.

(ii) the existing rent (including, if they are legally renderable, rakumats and begari), and the proposed inclusive money-rent;

(iii) the rates of money-rent payable by tenants for land of a similar description and with similar advantages in the vicinity; and

(iv) the names and addresses of the rent-receivers of the holding.

2. (1) The officer who inquires into the application shall give notice to the opposite party of the date fixed for the hearing of the application and the date fixed for the local inquiry (if any).

Provided that, if at any time it appears to the said officer that the question between any two of the parties, one of whom is so joined with others, cannot conveniently be jointly inquired into, he may order a separate inquiry to be held as to that question, or he may pass such order for the joint or separate disposal of the application as he may think fit.

10. The following are the principal documents to be prepared in the course of a survey and the preparation of a record-of-rights under Chapter XII of the Chota Nagpur Tenancy Act, 1908:—

Village map.	Parchas.	Khatian.
Khasra.	Khewat.	Terij.

These and any other papers prescribed by the Board of Revenue shall be prepared in such manner as the Board may prescribe.

11. The record-of-rights, which shall be published under section 83 of the Chota Nagpur Tenancy Act, 1908, shall be contained in the khewat and khatian, and such other papers as may be specified by general or special order of the Board of Revenue in the case of any local area.

(b) The khatian shall show in detail for all the lands in the village, estate by estate, landlord by landlord, tenant by tenant, and occupant by occupant, the lands included in each estate owned by each landlord and occupied by each tenant or occupant, with particulars of rent and area and of the incidents of each tenancy. (c) Lands cultivated or otherwise held direct by a proprietor or tenure-holder shall be shown in detail in the khatian, and shall be entered either as landlord's privileged land within the meaning of section 118 (1) (a) of the Chota Nagpur Tenancy Act, or as land held by the proprietor or tenure-holder but not privileged land within the meaning of that section.

(d) The khatian shall also show the respective rights of all persons privileged to take forest produce from jungle or waste land or to graze cattle on any land within the village.

IV.—Attestation of the Record.

13. (a) When the map, khasra, khewat and khatian for a village, or such portions of them as are prepared at khanapuri, have been prepared in the manner prescribed by these rules and by instructions of the Board of Revenue consistent with them, the Revenue officer shall issue a notification, in the form contained in Schedule I, fixing a day, which shall be not less than a week from the date of publication of the notification, on which he will be present at some place to be specified at or near the village for the purpose of attesting and completing the record-of-rights in respect of all particulars specified in the above rules 11 and 12.

(b) The notification shall state that on the day so fixed, or on any other day to which the proceedings may be adjourned, the Revenue-officer will record rents and will decide all questions of status and claims to special rights or privileges in any lands and record existing rights of tenants or residents in regard to the jungle and waste lands of the village, and commute and include in the cash rent of the holding the value of prædial conditions in accordance with the rules, and will receive and dispose of applications for the commutation of produce-rent, and deal with objections relating to entries in the record or omissions therefrom; and it shall require all parties interested in the subject-matter of the enquiry to attend at the time and place specified, with their parchas, and with such evidence as they have to offer in connection with the proceedings.

(c) Such notification shall be published by proclamation and fixed up in the presence of not less than two persons in some conspicuous place in the village to which it refers.

14. The Revenue-officer may also, if he so deems fit, take such additional measures, under the powers conferred on him by rule 4, as he may deem desirable to procure the attendance, at the place specified in the notification issued under rule 13, of the occupants, under-raiyats, raiyats, tenure-holders, landlords and proprietors or their authorized agents.

15. On the date specified in the notification issued under rule 13, or on any other date to which the proceedings may be adjourned, the entries which have been made in the khewat and in each khatian shall be read out in the presence of such of the interested parties as are in attendance. If the correctness of any entry is questioned, the Revenue officer shall dispose of the objection, after local enquiry or otherwise: provided that, if the correctness of a measurement be objected to, and a fresh measurement be demanded, or if a local enquiry is necessary to decide any objection, the Revenue-officer may require the cost of such remeasurement or local enquiry to be deposited. If it appears from the result of the measurement or local enquiry for which costs have been deposited that the objection was not frivolous or groundless, it shall be open to the Revenue-officer to refund the costs, or any portion of the costs which he may think fit to refund.

16. The Revenue-officer shall enquire into any claim put forward for Mundari-khuntkatti tenancies, and shall also ascertain which of the raiyats are raiyats having khuntkatti rights or settled raiyats or occupancy raiyats, and shall record them as such.

The Revenue-officer shall ascertain what raiyats are non-occupancy raiyats, and to this end he shall be entitled to call upon the landlord or his agent to produce a statement showing the names of raiyats alleged by him to be non-occupancy raiyats. On the production of such statement, he shall explain to those raiyats the provisions of Chapter IV of the Chota Nagpur Tenancy Act, 1908. If after such explanation a raiyat admits that he is a non-occupancy raiyat, and if the attestation officer is satisfied of the correctness of the admission, he shall record the raiyat as a non-occupancy raiyat. If he does not admit himself to be a non-occupancy raiyat, the Revenue-officer shall call on the landlord to prove the allegations made by him in regard to such raiyat.

17. The Revenue-officer shall ascertain and record what lands are korkar and what lands are bhuinhari under the Chota Nagpur Tenures Act, 1869, and what lands are khuntkatti.

18. The Revenue-officer shall summarily ascertain the rent at present payable by the tenant, and record it in the appropriate column of the khatian as the rent payable in respect of land held by the tenant. In recording rents the Revenue-officer shall have regard to the provisions of the Chota Nagpur Tenancy Act, 1908, regarding enhancement of rent, and shall record only such rent as is legally payable.

In order to carry out the instructions of this rule, the Revenue-officer shall, before proceeding to attest the records of the village, hold a preliminary enquiry, at which he shall record briefly the deposition of the landlord or his agent and at least one tenant, and shall make such further enquiry as may be necessary, and shall record a finding upon the rates of rent prevailing in the village for each class of land.

19. In the course of the preliminary enquiry into the rates of rent prevailing in the village, the Revenue-officer shall also ascertain the prædial conditions to which each class of tenants in the village is subject, and shall record a finding showing what prædial conditions, if any, are renderable by the general body of tenants, and their cash value, and shall prepare a statement in the form contained in Schedule VI. The cash value of prædial conditions, as commuted by the Revenue-officer under section 111 of the Chota Nagpur Tenancy Act, 1908, shall be recorded separately from the rent in the khatian and included in the total rent payable by raiyats. In the case of tenure-holders, the commuted value of prædial conditions will be entered in the khewat.

In ascertaining and commuting prædial conditions, the Revenue-officer shall be guided by the provisions of section 111 of the Chota Nagpur Tenancy Act, 1908, special regard being given to the proviso to section 105 (3). Any prædial conditions which are by custom or contract already payable in cash shall still be treated as subject to the proviso to section 105 (3) of the Chota Nagpur Tenancy Act, 1908.

20. Cesses which are authorized by law shall be recorded separately from the rent in the khatian, or, in the case of tenure-holders, in the khewat.

No demand of any other kind shall be recorded in the khatian.

21. The Revenue-officer shall, at the time of attestation, also record, in a form prescribed by the Board, the rights, as specified in section 81 (n) of the Chota Nagpur Tenancy Act, 1908, which are enjoyed by any class of persons according to established custom in each plot of jungle in the village, and the conditions under which such customary rights are enjoyed.

22. Where a notification under section 127 (b) of the Chota Nagpur Tenancy Act, 1908, has been issued, he shall also prepare a record of the rights and obligations of the village headmen.

23. When the record-of-rights and of existing rents has been prepared and attested in the manner prescribed in rules 13 to 22, and when the record has been arranged and corrected in accordance with the orders which the Revenue-officer has passed, he shall record a proceeding, in which he shall state that attestation of the records and commutation of prædial conditions, if any, have been completed, and shall then cause the draft record-of-rights to be published in the village in the manner provided in rule 25.

24. If applications for the commutation of produce-rents are filed before the Revenue-officer at the time of attestation, they may be disposed of either before draft publication or after draft publication, according to convenience. If they are disposed of before draft publication, the settled rents shall be incorporated in the settlement record before it is published in draft.

V.—Publication of the draft record.

25. (a) As soon as the record-of-rights has been prepared and attested, a notice in the form contained in Schedule II shall be posted up at the landlord's office in the village, or, in the presence of not less than two persons, in some conspicuous place in the village, stating that the draft of the record will be published in the village on a day to be specified, not less than a week from the date of the posting of such notice, and calling on all persons interested to attend on the date so specified: provided that the draft of the record shall not be published until the proceeding under rule 23 has been recorded.

(b) On the date fixed for the publication of the draft records the Revenue-officer shall either proceed to the village himself and read the contents of the records in the presence of the parties who attend, or he shall depute an officer, not below the rank of kanungo, who shall read out the contents of the records in the presence of as many of the parties as attend; and the Revenue-officer, or the officer deputed by him, as the case may be, shall at the same time inform the parties who attend that the draft records will be open for inspection for not less than one month in the office of the Revenue-officer, or in such other convenient place as the Revenue-officer may determine. The Revenue-officer shall receive and consider any objection which may be made to any entry during the period named. Objections shall, as far as practicable, be made in the form contained in Schedule III.

VI.—Disposal of objections under sections 83 and 111 (6).

26. When an objection is made, before the expiry of the period of publication of the draft record prescribed under rule 25, regarding the correctness of any entry, or as to the propriety of any omission, notice of the objection, in the form contained in Schedule IV, shall be served on all persons whose interest may, in the opinion of the Revenue-officer, be affected thereby, and they shall be called upon to attend at such time and place as the Revenue-officer may fix for the disposal of the objection. If no person attends to contest the objection, and the Revenue officer is satisfied that the notice of objection has been duly served on all persons interested, the objection may be allowed and the records amended accordingly, or the person who made the objection may, if the Revenue-officer thinks fit, be called upon to produce evidence in support of his objection.

All such objections shall be dealt with summarily under such instructions as the Board of Revenue may prescribe.

VII.—Settlement of rents before final publication.

27. When the Revenue-officer settles fair rents in isolated or individual cases, before final publication, under section 85 (3) (a) or (b), he shall follow mutatis mutandis the procedure laid down in rules 32 to 37 below for the settlement of fair rents after final publication, and shall incorporate the settled rents in the record to be finally published under rule 29.

28. When rents are settled, before final publication, for whole villages or for larger areas, the Revenue-officer shall adopt the following procedure:—

(a) He shall first serve a notice on the village in which settlement of rents is about to be made. The notice shall be in the form contained in Schedule VII, and shall set forth that on a date named and at a place named the Revenue-officer will settle fair rents in respect of all estates, tenures or holdings and for unsettled lands included in such village. Such notice shall be served at least one week previous to the date fixed for settlement of fair rents. When such notice has been served it shall be held that all persons have been sufficiently warned of the date fixed:

Provided that when in the course of proceedings a Revenue-officer proposes to alter an existing rent, and the parties have not attended in compliance with the general notice, the Revenue-officer shall serve each person interested with a special notice, and the fair rent shall not be settled in the absence of such person until after due service of such special notice has been proved.

(b) On the date fixed in the notice under rule 28 (a), or any subsequent date to which the proceeding may be adjourned, the Revenue officer shall proceed to settle rents in the manner prescribed in rules 35 (a) and 37.

(c) The settlement of rent for any number of tenants occupying land under the same landlord, whose interest is recorded in the same khewat entry in the same village, may, upon the application of the parties or at the discretion of the Revenue officer, be disposed of in one proceeding, provided that if at any time it appears to the Revenue officer that the question between any two of the parties, of whom one is so joined with others, cannot conveniently be so jointly tried, he may order a separate trial to be held of that question, or he may pass such order for the joint or separate disposal of the application as he may think fit.

(d) When a fair rent has been settled under these rules, it shall be entered in the khatian as the rent payable in respect of the holding from the date prescribed by section 97 of the Chota Nagpur Tenancy Act, 1908.

(e) It shall not be necessary for a Revenue officer to draw up a separate decree with regard to the fair rent settled, but the entry made in his decision or in the schedule attached thereto with regard to the fair rent settled shall be held to be a decree.

VIII.—Final publication of the Record-of-rights.

29. When all objections under sections 83 and 111 (6) of the Chota Nagpur Tenancy Act, 1908, have been disposed of as provided for in rule 26, and when the draft records have been corrected in accordance with the orders passed, and when the rents, if any, settled under section 85 (3) (a) or (b) or under section 61 of the Act have been duly incorporated in the record, the Revenue officer shall finally frame the records and cause them to be published by notifying, in the form contained in Schedule V, that their contents will be read out in the village on a date to be specified, not being less than a week from the date of the publication of such notice, and by reading them out himself or causing them to be read in the village on the date so specified, in the manner prescribed in rule 25, in the presence of the parties or of as many of them as attend. The officer engaged in final publication shall serve a copy of the entries in any record prepared under section 127 upon all persons interested in these entries, in the manner prescribed in rule 3.

30. When the record-of-rights of all villages in any local area has been finally published, the Revenue officer shall submit a report to the Local Government, containing such particulars as may be necessary in order to enable the Local Government to issue a notification under section 84 (2) of the Chota Nagpur Tenancy Act, 1908.

IX.—Distribution of copies of the Record-of-rights to parties interested.

31. (a) A copy of the record-of-rights as finally published, or an extract therefrom shall be made over to the landlord concerned, or, where there are more landlords than one, to their common agent or common manager, or, if there be no common agent or common manager, to such person among the landlords as the Revenue officer may think fit. The copy or extract shall bear a certificate, under the Revenue officer's signature and seal, that it is a copy of, or extract from, the record-of-rights as finally published.

(b) An extract from the khatian relating to his tenancy shall be given to every tenant, under the seal of the Revenue officer and under the signature of an officer duly authorized by the Revenue officer to give copies.

(c) Copies of records, or of extracts from them, supplied to landlords and tenants under this rule shall be given free or on payment according as in the case of each local area the Local Government may direct. When payment is required, the sum recovered shall be adjusted against the expenses incurred on account of survey and settlement.

X.—The settlement of fair rents after final publication.

32. When the landlord or tenant applies for a settlement of a fair rent, he shall be considered as plaintiff and the opposite party as defendant.

33. Notice, in the form contained in Schedule VIII, shall be served on every person interested in the application, together with a copy of the application, or an extract therefrom, or a summary thereof, so far as the application concerns such person.

34. With the consent of the Revenue officer, any number of tenants of the same status, holding land under the same landlord, whose interest is recorded in the same khewat entry in the same village, may make a joint application for the settlement of rents, or may be joined as defendants in the same proceeding on a similar application by the landlord: Provided that, if at any time it appears to the Revenue officer that the question between any two of the parties, of whom one is so joined with others, cannot conveniently be so jointly tried, he may order a separate trial to be held of that question, or he may pass such order for the joint or separate disposal of the application as he may think fit.

35. (a) On the date fixed for the settlement of fair rents, or any subsequent date to which the proceedings are adjourned, the Revenue officer shall read aloud, or cause to be read aloud in his presence, the name of each tenant whose rent has to be settled, the area of his tenancy, and the existing rent, and shall then proceed to setttle a fair rent under the provisions of section 85 of the Chota Nagpur Tenancy Act, 1908.

When the record has been read over as provided for above, the Revenue officer shall record all claims to enhancement or reduction of the existing rent, and shall try and decide any issues which may be raised under section 86 of the said Act.

(b) Where a landlord or tenant does not attend, after due service of notice has been proved, the procedure may be ex parte.

(c) Where a landlord or tenant appears, the Revenue officer shall record evidence in the manner prescribed in section 164 of the said Act, and shall settle a fair and equitable rent. In important cases the evidence shall be recorded at length.

(d) When a fair rent has been settled under these rules, it shall be entered in the khatian as the rent payable in respect of the holding from the date prescribed by section 97 of the said Act.

36. It shall not be necessary for a Revenue officer to draw up a separate decree with regard to the fair rent settled, but the entry made in his decision or in the schedule attached thereto with regard to the fair rent settled shall be held to be a decree. The Revenue officer shall carefully scrutinize the individual entries in schedules, where rents are settled for a number of tenants in joint proceedings, to ensure that injustice be not caused to individuals by the application of general rules.

37. When in the settlement of fair rents, issues are raised under section 86 of the said Act, they shall be heard and decided before fair rents are settled. Proceedings under the said section 86 shall be dealt with in all respects as suits between the parties. Such suits shall ordinarily be tried separately for each tenancy, unless the Revenue officer, for reasons to be recorded by him, considers that the suits affecting two or more tenancies may conveniently be tried together without prejudice to the parties concerned.

XI.—The trial of suits under sections 87, 111 (8), 130, and 252 of the Act.

38. Proceedings under sections 87, 111 (8), 130 or 252 of the Chota Nagpur Tenancy Act, 1908, shall be dealt with in all respects as suits between the parties. The finally published records shall be corrected in accordance with the orders that may be passed in any such proceedings.

XIV.—Deposit of settlement records with the Deputy Commissioner.

39. The finally published record, as completed under rules 35 and 38, shall be made over to the Deputy Commissioner of the district, and shall bear a certificate, that it is the finally published record, under the Revenue officer's signature and seal.

CHAPTER III.

General scale of fees.

40. For the service of every notice under the Chota Nagpur Tenancy Act, 1908, not being a notice issued by any Revenue or Civil Court (fees for serving which are regulated by the Court-fees Act, 1870), and not being provided for by any other rule made under the Chota Nagpur Tenancy Act, 1908, a process-fee of 8 annas shall be levied if the notice be directed to one or more persons residing in the same village.

Where such notices are directed to several persons resident in different villages, a fee of 8 annas shall be levied for service in each village.

In addition to the above fee, the actual charge which must be incurred, if it is necessary to travel by railway or boat, or to cross ferries, shall be levied from, and paid by, the person at whose instance the process is issued, before issue of the process. If a peon carries more than one process involving charges for railway fare, boat-hire, &c., the sum leviable shall be charged, in equal shares, upon all the processes so carried.

If a peon is detained at the place of service for more than 24 hours at the request of the person at whose instance the process was issued, or of his agent, such person or agent must then and there pay demurrage at the rate of 3 annas a day. Unless the demurrage is paid, the peon must decline to wait. No demurrage shall be charged if the delay was not due to the person requiring the process or to his agent.

No. L.R.—The January 1910.—In exercise of the power conferred by clause (xx) of section 264 of the Chota Nagpur Tenancy Act, 1908, the Lieutenant-Governor is pleased to prescribe the following rules for the district of Manbhum, to which the provisions of that Act have been extended by Government Notification No. 4010L.R., dated the 16th December 1909, published in the Calcutta Gazette of the 22nd idem, as to the manner of service of notices, summonses and other processes (other than warrants against the person of judgment-debtors) issued under that Act:—

Manbhum.

1. The word "process," as used in these rules, means any notice, summons or other process issued under the Chota Nagpur Tenancy Act, 1908, other than a warrant against the person of a judgment-debtor.

2. Every process shall be served personally on the person to whom it is addressed.

3. Notwithstanding anything contained in rule 2,—

(a) if the person to whom any process is addressed has an agent empowered to accept service, or placed in charge of the management of his zamindari business in connection with the landed property to which the suit or proceeding, in which the process is issued, relates, service of such process on such agent shall be sufficient; and

(b) if the person to whom any process is addressed cannot be found, and has no such agent as is referred to in class (a), service of such process may be made on any adult male member of the family of such person who may be residing with him.

Explanation.—A servant is not a member of the family within the meaning of clause (b).

4. Service of a process shall be made by delivering or tendering a copy thereof, signed by the officer under whose authority the process is issued, or by some officer appointed by him in this behalf.

5. (1) When the serving officer delivers or tenders a copy of a process to any person referred to in rule 2 or rule 3, he—

(a) shall require the signature of such person to an acknowledgment of service endorsed on the original process, or, if such person be illiterate, shall take his thumb impression instead of a signature; and

(b) shall require the signature of persons identifying the person on whom service was made, and of persons witnessing the delivery or tender of the process, to the said acknowledgment, or, if any of them be illiterate, shall take his thumb-impression instead of a signature.

6. Whenever a process has been served under rule 2 or rule 3, the serving officer—

(a) shall endorse or annex, or cause to be endorsed or annexed, on or to the original process, a return stating the time when and the manner in which the process was served and the names and addresses of the persons (if any) who identified the person served and witnessed the delivery or tender of the process, and

(b) shall require the signature of such identifiers and witnesses to the said return, or, if any such identifier or witness be illiterate, shall take his thumb-impression instead of a signature.

7. In either of the following cases, namely :—

(a) if any person on whom a process is served refuses to sign the acknowledgment, or
(b) if the serving officer, after using all due and reasonable diligence, cannot find the person to whom a process is addressed, and there is no such agent as is referred to in rule 3 to accept service thereof on behalf of the addressee, and no adult male member of his family on whom service can be made, the serving officer shall affix a copy of the process on the outer door or some other conspicuous part of the house in which the person to whom the process is addressed ordinarily resides or carries on business or personally works for gain, or of his zamindari cutcherry or bhandar or farm-house (if any), and shall then return the original to the Court or officer by whom it was issued, with a report, endorsed thereon or annexed thereto, stating that he has so affixed the copy, the circumstances under which he did so, and the name and address of the person (if any) by whom the house, cutcherry or bhandar or farm-house was identified and in whose presence the copy was affixed.

8. When a process is returned under rule 7, the Court or officer by whom it was issued shall, if the return under that rule has not been verified by the affidavit of the serving officer, and may, if it has been so verified, examine the serving officer on oath, or cause him to be so examined by another Court, touching his proceedings, and may make such further inquiry in the matter as the Court or officer thinks fit; and shall either declare that the process has been duly served or order such service as it or he thinks fit.

9. (1) Where the Court or officer by whom a process was issued for service on any person is satisfied that there is reason to believe that such person is keeping out of the way for the purpose of avoiding service, or that for any other reason the process cannot be served in the ordinary way, the Court or officer shall order the process to be served by affixing a copy thereof in some conspicuous place in the Court or in the office of such officer, as the case may be, and also upon some conspicuous part of the house (if any) in which the said person is known to have last resided or carried on business or personally worked for gain, or in such other manner as the Court thinks fit.

(2) Service ordered under sub-rule (1) shall be as effectual as if it had been made on the said person personally.

(3) Whenever service is ordered under sub-rule (1), the Court or officer shall fix such time for the appearance of the said person as the case may require.

10. (1) A process may be sent, by the Court or officer by whom it is issued, either by one of its or his officers or by post, to any other Court or officer having jurisdiction under the Chota Nagpur Tenancy Act, 1908, in the place of residence of the person on whom the process is to be served.

(2) The Court or officer to whom a process is so sent shall, upon receipt thereof, proceed as if it had been issued by such Court or officer, and shall then return the process to the Court or officer by whom it was issued, together with the record (if any) made under this sub-rule.

11. Notwithstanding anything contained in the foregoing rules, if the person to whom any process is addressed resides at a place in which the Chota Nagpur Tenancy Act, 1908, is not in force, the process shall be deemed to be fully served by properly addressing, pre-paying and posting by registered post a letter containing the process, and to have been served at the time at which the letter would be delivered in the ordinary course of post.

J. G. CUMMING,
Secy. to the Govt. of Bengal.

RULES FOR ADMISSION TO THE GOVERNMENT WEAVING INSTITUTE, SERAMPORE.

OBJECT FOR WHICH THE SCHOOL IS ESTABLISHED.

THE Weaving Institute at Serampore has been established with the object of giving technical instruction in the best and latest methods of hand-weaving, of extending a knowledge of the mechanical improvements which make the modern hand-loom so vastly more effective an instrument than the primitive looms still widely used by native weavers in Bengal, and so of strengthening and reviving the weaving industry in this country.

With these objects in view two quite distinct grades of instruction are given, forming higher and lower classes—

(1) to young men of a fair degree of education who may be trained as teachers, managers and organizers of the weaving industry. These form the higher classes;

(2) to actual hand-workers, weavers, from Serampore and other places. These form the lower or artizan classes.

The school at Serampore is staffed and administered by the Bengal Government. It is managed by the Principal under the general control of the Director of Public Instruction, Bengal.

RULES FOR THE HIGHER CLASSES.

1. The number of admissions to these classes in each year is limited to 75. Of these, 10 will be reserved for candidates from Eastern Bengal and Assam.

2. Candidates for admission must have passed the B Class final or the University Matriculation examination or have been trained in one of the technical schools affiliated in the Sub-Overseer course to the Apprentice Department of the Civil Engineering College, Sibpur.

3. The session begins in the second week of January. All applications for admission should be made to the Principal in the first week of January and should furnish the following particulars:—

(a) Name and address and occupation of father or guardian.
(b) Race and religion.
(c) An attested certificate of age of the candidate.
(d) A certificate of good moral character from the last Head Master or Principal.

4. Twenty Government scholarships of Rs. 15, tenable for one or two years, will be offered to students of the higher class.

5. Students to whom scholarships have been awarded will not be allowed to hold their scholarships for the second year if they fail to pass the first year's annual examination.

6. Students joining the higher class will have to sign an undertaking to the effect that they will make weaving their profession after the completion of the course of their training.

7. The course of study in these classes extends to two years. Students are required to attend 75 per cent. of the working days.

8. Students who pass the annual examination on the first year's course will be promoted to the second year's course; but those who desire to do so may at their option leave the school.

9. Students who pass an examination at the end of the second year's course will receive certificates from the Director of Public Instruction, Bengal.

The exact amount required at any time may be ascertained from the Principal on enquiry.

The testimonials as to workshop service must be signed by the employer and must testify to the candidate's conduct and ability, and state what kind of work he was engaged on (e.g., fitting, erecting, etc.), and for how long. Testimonials: shore service.

6. Testimonials as to service at sea must testify to the applicant's sobriety, experience, ability, and general good conduct for at least the last twelve months' service at sea preceding the date of application to be examined. They must be signed by the Master and Chief Engineer (or, in the case of testimonials to Chief Engineers, by the Master and Superintending Engineer), and must clearly state whether the applicant was on regular watch, and in regular Testimonials; sea service.

charge of a watch on the main engines or boilers. It is desirable that testimonials of candidates should be endorsed by the Superintending Engineer. No time spent in clerical work will be allowed to count.

Penalty for misconduct. 7. Candidates who have neglected to join their vessels after having signed articles, or who have deserted their vessels after having joined, or who have been found guilty of gross misconduct on board, will be required to produce satisfactory proofs of two years' subsequent service and good conduct at sea, unless the Government, after having investigated the matter, should see fit to reduce the time.

Further as to testimonials. 8. In cases where a testimonial from the Chief Engineer, or from the Master, is for any sufficient reason not obtainable, one may be submitted from the Superintending Engineer in place of that of the Chief Engineer, and one from the Managing Owner or Secretary or Chairman of a large Company in place of that of the Master, but in every such instance the testimonial must declare that the facts stated are in accordance with the reports made by the Chief Engineer or the Master, as the case may be, or else that the facts are within the writer's personal knowledge.

Physical defects. 9. When a candidate is observed to be hard of hearing, or is labouring under any other obvious physical defect, the signatories of his testimonials are required to mention that defect specifically, and to state whether it in any way interfered with the efficiency of the candidate as an engineer on watch. When these modified testimonials are such as to completely satisfy the examiner that the defect is not such as to interfere with the efficient discharge of the applicant's duties as engineer, the examination is proceeded with; otherwise the case is referred to the Government. Candidates afflicted with nervous impediment in speech may write their answers to viva-voce questions.

Foreign Engineers' foreign service. 10. The testimonials of service of Foreign Engineers and of British Engineers serving in foreign vessels, which cannot be verified by the Port Officer, must be confirmed either by the Consul of the country to which the ship in which the candidate served belonged, or by some other recognized official authority of that country; or by the testimony of some credible person on the spot having personal knowledge of the facts required to be established. The production, however, of such proofs will not of necessity be deemed sufficient. Each case must be decided on its own merits; and if the sufficiency of the proofs given appears to be at all doubtful, the point must be referred to the Government.

Certificate as to age. 11 Should any doubt exist as to the age of a candidate he will be required to produce a Certificate of Birth or Baptism.

Foreign Engineers must know English. 12. Foreign Engineers must prove to the satisfaction of the Examiners that they can speak and write the English language sufficiently well to perform the duties required of them on board a British vessel.

Service must be verified. 13. Service which cannot be verified by proper entries in the Articles of the Ships in which the candidates have served cannot be counted.

Issue of certificate. 14. If the candidate passes he will receive a Form (Form Exn. 16) authorizing the Port Officer to whom it is addressed to issue the Certificate. The candidate's testimonials and other papers will be returned to him when the examination is finished. It is therefore important that the port at which the Certificate is to be issued should be the same on both the Form Exn. 16 and the form of application Exn. 3. If circumstances should make any alteration necessary, the Examiner should see that it is made in both forms; otherwise delay in the issue of the Certificate may by caused.

Service found to be insufficient. 15. If after a candidate has passed the examination it is discovered on further investigation that his services are insufficient to entitle him to receive a Certificate of the grade for which he has passed, the Certificate will not be granted to him; but if the Port Officer is satisfied that the error in the calculation of the candidate's services did not occur through any fault or wilful misrepresentation on his part, he may either have the fee returned to him or have it placed to his credit. Should his services entitle him to a Certificate of a lower grade, it may be granted to him, and the difference, if any, between the fee paid by him for the superior Certificate and the fee payable for the inferior Certificate will be returned to him or placed to his credit.

The Superior Certificate will not be granted until the candidate has performed the amount of service in which he was deficient, and has been re-examined in all the subjects unless the Government see fit to dispense with the re-examination.

16. If the candidate fails in practical knowledge he may not present himself for re-examination until he can produce proofs of three months' further service at sea, as Engineer on watch on the main engines or boilers, from the date of failure. If he fails in arithmetic, elementary questions, or drawing only, he may come up again at any time. Failure in examination.

17. Candidates for examination, in making their application on the Form Exn. 3, will be required to pay the Examination fee before any step is taken towards inquiring into their services or testing their qualifications, &c. If the candidate is found not to be qualified, the fee will either be returned to him or placed to his credit until he is qualified. Fee must be paid first.

18. The fee for examination must be paid to the Port Officer. In any case in which a candidate offers a gratuity to any other officer and in any place but in the Port Office, the candidate so offering a gratuity will be regarded as having committed an act of misconduct, and will be rejected, and not allowed to be examined for twelve months either at the Port where the offence was committed or at any other port. Payment of fees.

19. If a candidate fails in his examination, no part of the fee he has paid will be returned to him. Fees not returned on failure.

20. The fees are as follows:— Table of fees.

	Rs.
Second Class Engineer's Certificate ...	15
First Class Engineer's Certificate ...	30
First Class Engineer's Certificate if the candidate holds a Second Class Certificate of Competency granted by the Board of Trade, or by the Government of a British possession under section 8 of the Merchant Shipping (Colonial) Act, 1869 ...	15

CHAPTER II.

21. SECOND CLASS ENGINEER.—A candidate for a Second Class Engineer's Certificate must be 21 years of age; Second Class.

(a) He must have served as an apprentice Engineer for four years in England or five years in India at least, and prove that during the period of his apprenticeship he has been employed on the making or repairing of steam engines, boilers, &c. Three years in England or four years in India of the apprentice time must have been passed in the fitting or erecting shops, or in both. In calculating the four years in England or five years in India of artisan service, which are to constitute the required apprenticeship, which should not begin at an earlier age than 15, time spent at a technical school (recognised by the Port Officer as suitable) where there is an engineering laboratory, may be taken into account and accepted as equivalent to artisan service, at the ratio of three years in the technical school to two in artisan service, provided that the applicant was over 15 years of age, and can produce the Principal's Certificate for regular attendance and satisfactory progress, and provided also that in such case the other portion of the time was spent in the fitting or erecting shops of an engineer, as indicated above.

Time spent in a technical school cannot be accepted as equivalent to more than two years' artisan service, and time spent in foreign technical schools can in no circumstances be recognised.

Journeyman's time will be considered as equivalent to apprenticeship.

Every applicant must produce testimonials of ability as an engineer workman to the satisfaction of the Government.

If the candidate has served as an apprentice Engineer or as Journeyman, under the conditions above prescribed, for less than four years in England or five years in India, he will be required to make up the deficiency or to complete this period of four years in England or five years in India, by service as Engineer at sea on regular watch on the main engines or boilers (1) of a foreign-going steamer of not less than 66 nominal horse-powers, or (2) of a home-trade steamer of not less than 66 nominal horse-power, such service to be counted as equivalent in the case of (1) to two-thirds, and in the case of (2) to four-ninths, of service as apprentice Engineer or as Journeyman.

* If the candidates has not served at all as apprentice Engineer or as Journeyman, he will be required to have served at sea, in lieu thereof, as Engineer on regular watch on the main engines or boilers, six years in a foreign-going steamer of not less than 66 nominal horse-power, or nine years in a home-trade steamer of not less than 66 nominal horse-power.

(b) In addition to the apprenticeship as above described, or the alternative sea service, the applicant must have served one year at sea as Engineer on regular watch on the main engines or boilers or a foreign-going steamer of not less than 66 nominal horse-power, or eighteen months in a home-trade steamer of not less than 66 nominal horse-power.

(c) He must be able to give a satisfactory description of boilers, and the methods of staying them, together with the use and management of the different valves, cocks, pipes, and connexions.

(d) He must understand how to correct defects from accident, decay, &c, and the means of repairing such defects.

(e) He must understand the use of the water gauge, pressure gauge, barometer, thermometer, and salinometer, and the principles on which they are constructed.

(f) He must state the causes, effects, and usual remedies for incrustation and corrosion.

(g) He must be able to explain the method of testing and altering the setting of the slide valves, and method of testing the fairness of shafts and adjusting them.

In the case of England, "foreign going steamer" includes every steamer employed in trading or going between some place or places situate beyond the following limits, that is to say, the coasts of the United Kingdom, the Channel Islands and Isle of Man, and the Continent of Europe between the River Elbe and Brest, inclusive "Home trade steamer" includes every steamer employed in trading or going within the following limits, that is to say, the United Kingdom, the Channel Islands and Isle of Man. and the Continent of Europe between the River Elbe and Brest inclusive

In the case of India, "foreign-going steamer" includes every steamer employed in trading between any port of the territories which are or may become vested in His Majesty by the Statutes 21 and 22 Vic., Cap. 106, entitled "An Act for the better government of India" and any port or place not in the said territories, nor on the Continent of India, nor in the Straits Settlements. nor in the Island of Ceylon. "Home-trade steamer" includes every steamer employed in trading between any ports of the said territories or between any port of the said territories and any port or place on the Continent of India or in the Straits Settlements or in the Island of Ceylon.

* These two clauses shall have effect from the 1st January 1910.

(h) He must be able to calculate the suitable working pressure for a steam-boiler of given dimensions, and the stress, per square inch, on crank and tunnel shafts when the necessary data are furnished.

(i) He must understand the construction of steering engines, evaporators, feed filters, and feed heaters.

(j) He must understand the construction of centrifugal, bucket, and plunger pumps, and the principle on which they act.

(k) He must be able to state how a temporary or permanent repair could be effected in case of derangement of a part of the machinery, or total breakdown.

(l) He must write a legible hand, and have a good knowledge of arithmetic up to and including vulgar and decimal fractions and square root. He must also understand the application of these rules to questions about safety valves, coal consumption, consumption of stores, capacities of tanks, bunkers, &c.

(n) He must possess a creditable knowledge of the prominent facts relating to combustion, heat and steam.

In addition to the qualification required for a Second Class Engineer,

(a) He must—

(1) have served at sea for 12 months, with a Second Class Certificate of Competency or service as Senior Engineer in charge of a watch on the main engines or boilers of a foreign-going steam-ship of not less than 99 nominal horse power; or

(2) have served at sea for 18 months, with a Second Class Certificate of Competency, or service as First Engineer of a home-trade steamer of not less than 99 nominal horse-power; or 2 years as Second Engineer of a home-trade steamer of not less than 99 nominal horse power, with a Second Class Certificate of Competency, or service or

(3) have served $2\frac{1}{2}$ years with a Second Class Certificate of Competency or service as third Engineer of a home-trade steamer of not less than 99 nominal horse-power, if during the whole of that period he has been the senior Engineer in charge of a watch on the main engines and boilers, or

(4) possess or be entitled to a First Class Certificate of service.

(b) He will be required to make an intelligible hand sketch, or a working drawing of some one or more of the principal parts of a steam-engine, and to mark in without a copy all the necessary dimensions in figures, so that the sketch or drawing could be worked from.*

(c) He must be able to take off and calculate indicator diagrams.

* See Appendix C.

(d) He must be able to calculate safety-valve pressures and the strength of the boilers shell, stays, and riveting.

(e) He must be able to state the general proportions borne by the principal parts of the machinery to each other, and to calculate the direct stress, the torsional stress, and the bending stress in round bars, and the direct stress and the bending stress in rectangular bars with given loads.

(f) He must be able to explain the method of testing and altering the setting of the slide valves, and to sketch about what difference any alteration in the slide valve will make in the indicator diagram, and also the method of testing the fairness of shafts and of adjusting them.

(g) He must be conversant with surface condensation, superheating, and the working of steam expansively.

(h) His knowledge of arithmetic must include the mensuration of superficies and solids and the extraction of the square and cube roots, and the application of these rules to questions relating to the power, duty and economy of engines and boilers, and to the stresses in rods, shafts and levers of the engine.

(i) He must understand the construction of, and be able to maintain in working condition, the auxiliary machinery which is placed under his charge, viz., refrigerating machinery, electric light engines and dynamos, electric motors fitted to ships' boats, hydraulic machinery, and the various descriptions of steering engines, etc.

Workshop service where engines are not made.

23. When the workshop service has been performed in a place where steam-engines are not made or repaired, and the class of work done is similar to that required in engine making, the service may be accepted with an additional year of qualifying service; that is, four years in England or five years in India of workshop service and two years in the engine-room (of which one year must have been at sea), or one year at engine fitting in a suitable marine engine workshop and one year at sea in the engine-room. The approval of the Port Officer must be obtained in every such case before the candidate is examined.

Workshop service other than fitting or erecting.

24. When the workshop service has been performed in a place where engines are made, and the department in which the applicant has been principally engaged is not "fitting" or "erecting," the case must be referred to the Government with a report upon the service performed. If the service be such as is useful training for an Engineer, the Port Officer may accept the service, but in every such case the applicant must prove additional engine-room or marine engine workshop service as required above.

Qualifying service defined.

25. In the case of candidates for First Class Certificates, qualifying service means service on regular watch as senior Engineer in charge of the main engines or boilers. During the whole of the period claimed, candidates must have been in possession of Second Class Certificates.

In the case of candidates for Second Class Certificates, qualifying service means service as Engineer on regular watch on the main engines or boilers. In no case will time spent in clerical work be allowed to count Foreign Engineers.

26. Foreign Engineers cannot be examined for a First Class Certificate unless they have performed the sea-service stated in rule 22, with the requisite British Certificate. The service may have been performed in foreign vessels if the candidate can produce satisfactory testimonials as to conduct and character, and is able to prove that the service has been in the required capacities, and that during the period of service he has held a British Certificate of Competency of the rank required by the Regulations. [See rule 10.]

27. In all cases the candidates' names must have been duly entered on the ship's Articles as Engineers in their proper ratings. Name on articles.

28. Being on regular watch means being on watch for at least eight hours a day. Regular watch.

29. Only such service as gives the experience required to make a man thoroughly competent as a sea-going Engineer is accepted as qualifying service. Even for a Second Class Certificate the candidate must prove to the satisfaction of the Examiner that he is qualified by experience and knowledge to act as Chief Engineer in an under-powered steamer of 99 nominal horse-power on a voyage, say from India to Egypt, taking full responsibility for engines and boilers. Further as to qualifying service.

30. The sea service required by these Regulations is, unless otherwise stated, service performed in foreign-going ships. Sea service.

31. Service in the Home or Coasting Trade is regarded as being equivalent to two-thirds of the same period of time served in the Foreign Trade, except in the case of Indian Coasting Voyages extending beyond a distance of 500 miles from the port of departure in steam-ships commanded by Masters holding Foreign-going Certificates, when such service will count as foreign-voyages, and will be reckoned as full time; but the time spent in the port of departure or Home Port will not be allowed to count. In all cases the length of service is deemed to commence on the date of sailing from the port of departure or Home Port and to end on the date of arrival at the Home Port. Such service must be vouched for in the form laid down in Appendix G. Home trade service.

32. Service as watch-keeper on a lake or river steamer of not less than 66 nominal horse-power may be accepted under the following conditions:— Lake or river service.

(a) the service will only count half as much as sea service, i.e., every two months of lake or river service is only equivalent to one month's sea service;

(b) candidates for second class certificates must prove in addition to the lake or river service, at least three months' qualifying service at sea in a steam-ship of not less than 66 nominal horse-power;

(c) candidates for first class certificates must prove, in addition to lake or river service in vessels of 99 nominal horse-power, at least six months' qualifying service at sea, with a Second Class Engineer's Certificate, in vessels of not less than 99 nominal horse-power.

33. Service performed on board auxiliary screw whalers and other vessels with auxiliary steam-power of not less than 66 nominal horse-power in the capacity of Engineer may be allowed to count towards qualifying candidates for examination for Second Class Engineers' Certificates of Competency to the extent of one-half the time the vessel is actually at sea. If the candidate is able to prove a larger amount of time under steam, he will be allowed to count the whole of such extended time. Service in auxiliary screw steam-ships.

34. Service in sea-going steam dredgers, fishing-boats or tug-boats and in sea-going pilot vessels when on their station, or when going to or returning from the same, may be accepted under the following conditions. Two months of such service is only equivalent to one month's qualifying service. Candidates for Second Class Certificates may perform all their sea service in sea-going steam dredgers, fishing-boats, tug-boats or pilot-vessels, but they must have been on regular watch on the main engines or boilers, and the vessels must not be less than 66 nominal horse-power. Candidates for First Class Certificates must have served in vessels of at least 99 nominal horse-power, and have been in charge of a watch on the main engines or boilers. They must, in addition, have served in a qualifying capacity for at least six months Service in dredgers, fishing boats, tug-boats or pilot vessels.

in a foreign-going cargo or passenger steam-ship, or nine months in a home-trade cargo or passenger steam-ship.

Service in yachts.

35. Service performed in steam yachts, either within or beyond home-trade limits, may be accepted as equivalent to two-thirds of the time performed in foreign-going trading vessels, provided that the candidate's name is entered on the vessel's Articles and that he can prove, to the satisfaction of the Port Officer, that the time claimed was actually served at sea.

Candidates for Second Class Certificates may perform all their service in yachts, but the candidate must have been on regular watch on the main engines or boilers, and the vessel must be of not less than 66 nominal horse-power.

Candidates for First Class Certificates must have served on vessels of not less than 99 nominal horse-power, and must have been in regular charge of the main engines or boilers In addition they must have served for at least three months in a qualifying capacity on board a foreign-going trading or passenger steam-ship. This additional service will, however, not be required in the case of a candidate who has served for 18 months as first engineer, or for 2 years as second engineer, of a steam yacht of the requisite power.

First class Certificate without Second.

36. The Government may see fit to allow an applicant who, in consequence of service abroad, has been unable to obtain a Second Class Certificate, to be examined for a First Class Certificate, although he has not obtained a Certificate of the lower grade, provided he is able to satisfy them as to the satisfactory character of his services. If any candidate who has not got a Second Class Certificate of Competency fails to pass the examination for the first Class Certificate, but passes that for the lower grade, he may be given a Second Class Certificate of Competency. but no part of the fee will be returned. A candidate who has been permitted to be examined for a First Class Certificate without first obtaining a Second Class Certificate of Competency or service and who fails in his examination in practical knowledge, may not be re-examined for a Certificate of the higher grade until he has served 3 months as watch-keeper with a Second Class Engineer's Certificate of Competency or service as required by the regulations. If the candidate fails altogether, i.e., both in the examination for the lower as well as for the higher grade of Certificate, he may be re-examined for a Second Class Certificate only, subject to the usual regulations relating to failure.

Certificates of service.

37. An officer who has attained the rank of Engineer Lieutenant or Engineer Sub-Lieutenant in His Majesty's Navy or the rank of Engineer or Assistant Engineer in the Indian Marine Service, is entitled without examination, if an Engineer Lieutenant or Engineer, to a Certificate of Service as First Class Engineer, and if an Engineer Sub-Lieutenant or Assistant Engineer, to a Certificate of Service as Second Class Engineer. These officers may be examined for a Certificate of Competency on the same conditions as Engineers of the Mercantile Marine.

An officer who has attained the rank of Chief Artificer Engineer in His Majesty's Navy is also entitled without examination to a Certificate of Service as Second Class Engineer.

Examination of engine-room Artificers.

38. Artificer Engineers, Chief Engine-room Artificers, and Engine-room Artificers in the Royal Navy, may be examined for Certificates of Competency on the same conditions as Engineers of the Mercantile Marine.

Application by Naval Officers.

39. The Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty have directed that applications from officers of the Navy for Certificates of Service or for permission to be examined for Certificates of Competency must, in the case of officers on the active list, be made through the Commanding Officer to the Secretary to the Admiralty, and in the case of officers on half pay or who have retired, direct to the Secretary to the Admiralty, who in either case will forward the applications to the Board of Trade.

40. Particulars of the examination of Masters and Mates in steam will be found in Appendix E. Masters and Mates' Examination in steam.

41. The term Certificate in these Regulations means a Certificate issued by the Board of Trade or by a British Possession under the provisions of the Merchant Shipping Act. Certificates.

CHAPTER III.

Conduct of the Examinations.

42. The examinations will commence early in the forenoon, and will be continued from day to day until all the candidates whose names appear upon the Examiner's list on the day of examination are examined. Commencement and duration of Examinations.

43. Candidates are required to appear at the examination room punctually at the time appointed. Candidates to be punctual.

44. Before commencing the examination, the tables and desks must be cleared of all scraps of paper or books that are not used in the examination, and care should be taken that the candidates do not bring into the examination room any book or paper. Tables cleared.

45. No persons will be allowed in the rooms during the examinations other than those whose duties require them to be present. Strangers not admitted.

No instructors will be allowed on the premises.

46. A sheet of blotting paper will be issued to each candidate with the first examination paper, and it must be returned to the Examiner when the last paper is completed each day. The Examiner will be careful to see that the blotting paper has not been used by the candidate in solving his problems, or for conveying information to other candidates. Blotting paper.

47. No candidate will be allowed to work out his problems on a slate or on waste paper or to write on the blotting paper supplied for his use in the examination. Violation of this rule will subject the candidate to all the penalties of a failure. All work to be shown.

Additional sheets of paper will be supplied by the Examiner if required, but they must be attached to, and form part, of the examination papers.

48. All books necessary for the use of candidates under examination will be provided by the Government, and candidates are prohibited from bringing into the examination room books or papers of any kind whatever. The slightest infringement of this regulation will subject the offender to all the penalties of a failure, and he will not be allowed to present himself for re-examination for a period of three months. Books and papers strictly forbidden.

49. Candidates for First Class Certificates have to pass an examination in rough working drawing, which may, in the candidate's option, be either hand sketches clearly dimensioned and complete in the necessary views and sections, or drawings to a scale. Drawing boards and T squares will be provided by the Government, but the applicants will have to bring with them any drawing instruments they may require. Drawing instruments.

50. Candidates should be so placed as to prevent one copying from another, and no communication whatever between the candidates should be allowed. Candidates' places.

51. In the event of any candidate being discovered referring to any book or paper, or copying from another, or affording any assistance or giving any information to another, or communicating in any way with another, during the time of examination, or copying any part of the problems for the purpose of taking them out of the examination rooms, he will subject himself to all the penalties of a failure, and will not be allowed to be examined for a period of six months. Penalty for copying, &c.

Leaving room or building. 52. No candidate may leave the examination room without permission and without giving up the paper on which he is engaged. Under no circumstances will the same paper be returned to him, but the examiner may substitute other data, or another question.

Injury to books. 53. If a candidate defaces, blots, writes in or otherwise injures any book or form belonging to the Government, his papers will be retained until he has replaced the damaged book or document. He will not be allowed to remove the damaged book or document, and will be subjected to all the penalties of a failure.

Penalty for breach of rules. 55. Any candidate violating any of the regulations or being guilty of insolence to the Examiner, or of disorderly or improper conduct in or about the room, will render himself liable to the postponement of his examination, or, in the event of his having passed, to the detention of his Certificate for such period as the Government may direct.

Order of examinations. 56. The examination of candidates for Second Class Certificates consists of three parts: arithmetic, elementary questions, and viva voce; and that of candidates for First Class Certificates of four parts: arithmetic, drawing, elementary questions, and vive voce (see paragraphs 21 and 22).

Arithmetic. 57. When the number of marks obtained in arithmetic amounts to 28, that is, two-thirds of the maximum, the candidate passes in arithmetic.

If the marks obtained amount to 21, but not to 28, and if the applicant has had long sea experience, his testimonials should be taken into account, and his examination continued, if deemed advisable by the Examiner, and he may be passed or failed having due regard to his practical knowledge, and to whether he is being examined for second class or first class.

Elementary questions. 58. All engineer applicants presenting themselves for examination will be required to give written answers to ten questions selected from Elementary Questions shown in Appendix B. These questions are intended to furnish a record to some extent of the candidate's knowledge at the time of his examination, and also to induce the candidates to pay more attention to their handwriting and spelling.

Examiners will require all candidates to fill up a form, Exn. 15*b*,* and they will forward it to the Port Officer, together with the report of the examination.

The questions for both classes of engineers will be taken from the same series of Elementary Questions; and candidates for first class certificates are expected to show their superiority by giving answers more complete than those of the other candidates.

Viva voce. 59. Having regard to the fact that when the verbal examination is held, the candidate has already passed in arithmetic, and if a first class candidate in drawing, and has also written answers to the elementary questions, the Examiners will deal with practical rather than theoretical questions in this division of the examination; and no candidate should be failed without having been well cross-questioned on the points for which failure takes place.

Moreover in cases where the Examiner approves of the elementary paper but fails the candidate for lack of practical knowlege or for elementary, a written account of the points failed in must be forwarded to the Port Officer with the elementary papers and the report Exn. 15.

The elementary questions to be answered on Form Exn. 15*b are good starting points in viva voce examinations. With the candidates' written answers before the Examiner, the same question can be put in a way requiring an answer in another form. Each question may be developed into several according to the circumstances of the case, e.g.—

1. What is made of ? Of what parts does it consist ?

* See Appendix A.

2. What is its use?
3. What attention does it require at sea?
4. What attention does it require in port?
5. When it becomes defective, what is it that principally goes wrong with it?
6. How is it repaired?
7. What alteration may prevent a recurrence of the defect?

It is considered of great importance that engineers presenting themselves for examination should have an extensive knowledge of the particulars of actual casualties which have occurred at sea and be able to state how these might have been prevented, and how remedied. Sometimes an engineer presents himself, who has had no personal experience of any defects, and who can tell nothing about casualties to machinery which have occurred in the experience of others: such candidates should be closely questioned as to their knowledge of boiler and engine construction and the repairs of same.

The management of engines and boilers at sea, the duties of the engineer on watch, the work to be done to the engines, boilers, and auxiliary machinery in port, and the periodical examinations of the working parts, form part of the viva voce examination.

60. Reports of examinations on the form Exn. 15, together with the Examination Papers, should be forwarded to the Port Officer immediately the examinations are completed. Reports of examinations.

General.

61. Certificates of Competency shall be made and issued by the Government in the forms hereunto annexed.

62. Every Certificate of Competency shall be made in duplicate, and one copy shall be delivered to the person entitled to the Certificate, and the other shall be kept and recorded by the Port Officer of Calcutta.

63. No application from the holder of a certificate granted by the Government of any other British Possession or by the Board of Trade to be examined for a certificate of the same legal value shall be entertained.

APPENDIX C.

EXAMINATION IN ROUGH WORKING DRAWING FOR A FIRST CLASS ENGINEER'S CERTIFICATE OF COMPETENCY (FORM EXN. 17).

1. The regulations in regard to the qualifications of a candidate for a first class engineer's certificate of competency specify that—

"He must be able to make rough working drawings of the different parts of the engines and boilers.

"He must be able to state the general proportions borne by the principal parts of the machinery to each other."

2. In accordance with these clauses, a candidate for a first class certificate is required to make a rough working drawing of the parts specified as on page 66. An engineer who has been some years in charge of marine engines and boilers ought to have familiarly in his mind the general construction of at least one set of engines and boilers, say that set he was last with. Fine drawing is not expected, and in the proportions of the parts a wide margin will be allowed absurd dimensions will be failure in practical knowledge.

3. The drawing must, however, be practically a working drawing, giving a sufficient number of views to show the parts fully—sections, plans, or elevations, just as the candidate would require to be supplied to him if he had to make the parts to the design of another person.

4. A clear hand sketch showing the construction completely and fully dimensioned will be accepted if the candidate prefers this alternative.

5. A portion only of the parts specified may be accepted in place of the whole, if that portion is sufficient to show that the candidate has a good practical idea of the construction of the parts, and a fair notion of their general proportions or dimensions.

6. Candidates are hereby cautioned not to put on paper what they have not fully considered, and deliberately intend to be understood, as their statement of what they know about the construction of any part required.

7. The statements given in by a candidate may be in themselves, apparently, of little importance, but a sample material from which the state of the candidate's knowledge of engines and boilers is to be inferred, every detail which is glaringly inconsistent with a sound knowledge of the use of the part, or in which an essential consideration has evidently been overlooked, is an important element in the description which the candidate is given of his own qualifications.

8. The candidate is advised not to bring more than he can clearly finish in the time allowed. An important object in this part of the examination is to ascertain whether the candidate can be trusted to mark all necessary dimensions upon a sketch or a drawing. The test of this is, practically, the making of the part from the sketch without having to supply additional dimensions, and without measuring the drawing. To prove this ability the candidate must fully dimension the parts shown in his sketch or drawing, notwithstanding that the parts may be correctly drawn to scale. A drawing is fully dimensioned when no part of it is left to the option of the party who is to work to the drawing.

9. To prevent misunderstanding, however, when the candidate has been led into showing more of the details than he has time fully to finish, he should name, in the statement on the other side, the particular parts which he has fully dimensioned.

10. All dimensions should have lines and darts, to indicate distinctly the points between which the dimensions are given.

11. Beware of writing cross dimensions upon centre lines, or upon longitudinal dimension lines. This is not an order but a recommendation.

12. The candidate is not expected to design anything; he has merely to sketch or draw a something with which he is expected to be already familiar. At the same time he should call attention to any defect in the design of the article or apparatus. Omission to do so will imply want of practical knowledge.

13. Pencil in nothing after half-past 3; all the dimensions, the figures and the darts must be inked in; employ the remaining time in examining the drawing and in inking in any figures which may have been before overlooked, and in checking the dimensions.

14. Make sure that you will have sufficient room on the drawing sheet to show all the necessary views. You can have another sheet of drawing paper if necessary. All the paper used must be forwarded with the drawing.

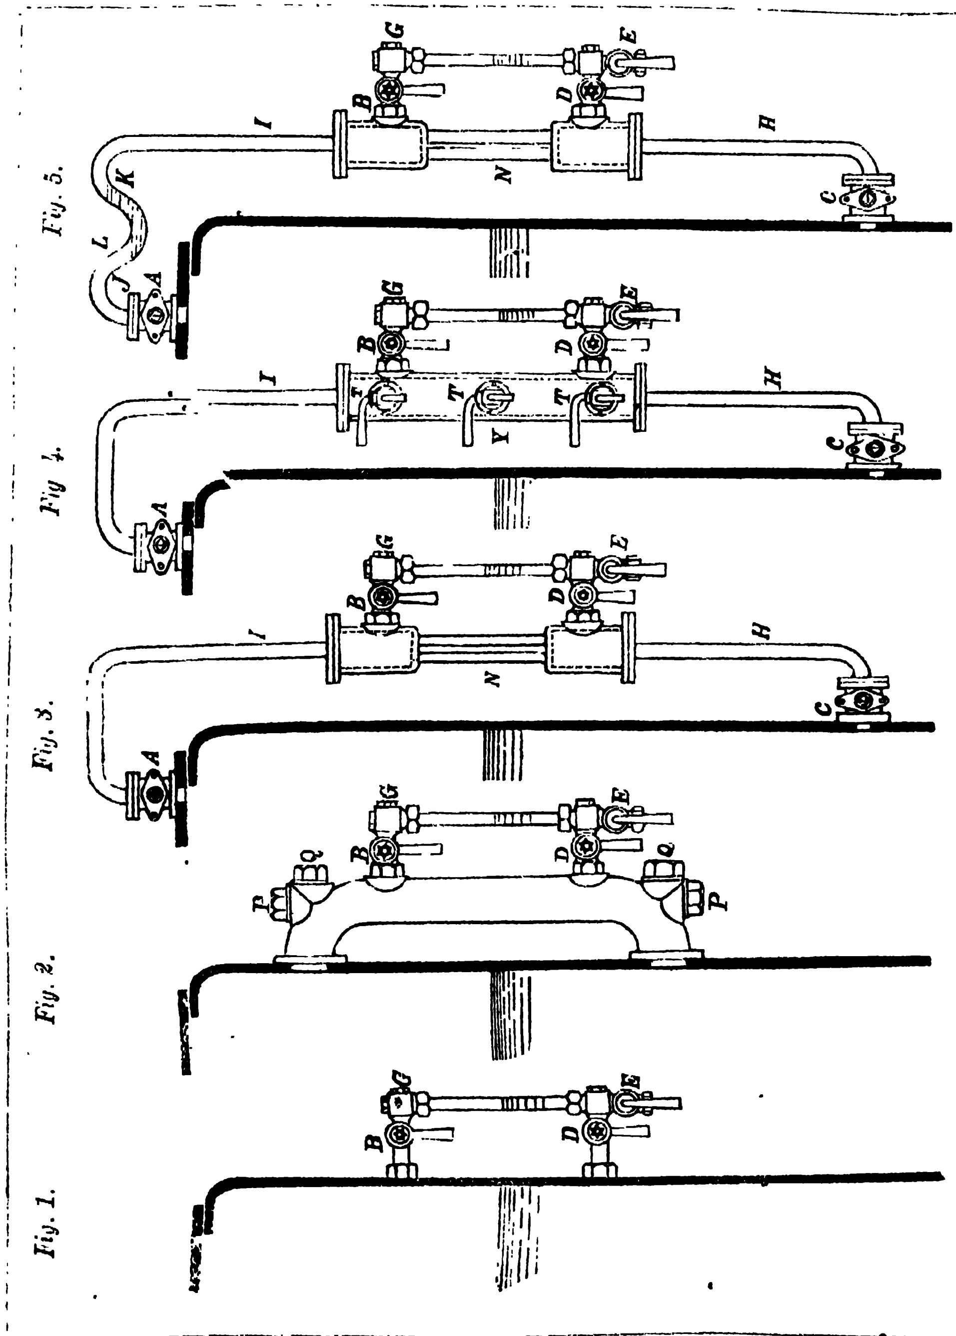
APPENDIX D.

READING THE WATER-GAUGES.

NOTWITHSTANDING that the reading of the water-gauge is made a special feature in the examination of engineers, many boiler casualties result from the engineer of the watch either not understanding the construction of the water-gauge fittings or not satisfying himself by actual trial that the cocks, pipes, &c., are clear.

In one case, two furnace crowns came down in a steamer that was just starting on a voyage. The engineers were satisfied that there was plenty of water in the boiler because the water-gauge showed full glass, and they called the attention of a Board of Trade Surveyor to this fact as being conclusive evidence that the casualty could not have resulted from shortness of water. On examination of the fittings, however, it was found that the cock between the boiler and the steam pipe leading to the gauge was shut, having been carelessly left in that position on the previous day when the mountings were overhauled for survey. Directly the cock was opened the water disappeared from the gauge-glass, and the second engineer admitted that he had blown down the boiler in order to lower the water level, as the glass was full.



Many steamers have had their furnaces brought down at sea in a similar manner to the above through what the engineers of the watch have called "false water in the glass," and which on examination has been found to result from the top communication being choked.

Unless a candidate under examination is able to prove that he understands how to verify the indications of the water-gauge, he should not be passed in practical knowledge, and, as failure in practical knowledge involves the candidate going to sea for another three months before being eligible for re-examination, the examiner should explain to such candidate his error, after failing him in order to prevent further casualties resulting from his want of knowledge on this subject.

The sketches, Figures 1, 2, 3, 4 and 5, Plate I, represent the usual methods of attaching water-gauge mountings to marine boilers. The important features in each gauge and the method of verifying its indications are dealt with separately in the following remarks:—

Plate I.

In this case the water gauge cocks are attached direct to the boiler, and the accuracy of the gauge when the boiler is under steam can be tested as follows:—

First.—Let B remain open, then close cock D and open cock E, and if steam issues it proves that cock B and the passage through the top fitting and gauge glass are clear. If no steam or water issues, either cock B or the passage through the top fitting and gauge glass is choked and the gauge cannot act properly until the obstruction is removed.

Second.—Close cock B and open D and E, and if water issues, cock D is clear. If no water or steam issues, either cock D or the passage from the boiler through the lower fitting is choked and must be cleared before the gauge can act properly.

In this case the gauge cocks are attached to a bent pipe of comparatively large diameter (at least 3 inches in the bore), the upper end of which communicates with the steam space, and the lower end with the water space of the boiler. Owing to the bore of the pipe being large it is not liable to become choked or stopped under the ordinary conditions of working. The water-gauge is, therefore, in practically the same condition as if it were attached direct to the boiler, as in Figure 1. This gauge, when at work, is tested in precisely the same manner as the one shown in figure 1.

Screw plugs are inserted at PP and QQ, by the removal of which the apertures in the pipe can be cleared, if necessary, by the insertion of a wire or rod when steam is down.

REFERRING TO FIGURE 3 ONLY.

In this gauge there is an open communication from A to C through the column Y, and in order to "blow through the glass" it is only necessary to shut cocks D and B alternately, keeping E open. But to "blow through the water-gauge," including the pipes H and I, it is necessary, after blowing through the glass as described above, to shut A and C alternately, at the same time keeping B, D and E open for such time as will ensure the complete discharge of the contents of the gauge and its connections. When B, D and C are clear and A choked, the steam lodging in the glass and in the pipe I leading from column Y to A becomes condensed, and the water flowing through C to take its place rises in column Y and in the glass to a level above that of the water in the boiler. In other words, the gauge shows a false level. If now E be opened and water is blown out, then on E being again closed the water in the gauge will rise higher than before and be still further misleading. On the other hand, when B, D and A are clear and C choked, the water, if any, in the glass is trapped and no longer rises and falls with the water in the boiler or with the motion of the vessel; it, however, slowly rises in the glass owing to the condensation of the steam in the upper part of the gauge until such time as E is opened, when the whole of the water in the glass is blown out, and on E being closed the glass does not show any water notwithstanding that the water in the boiler may be at the proper level. When the test cocks TTT are attached to column Y, as shown in Figure 3, they cease to be reliable when either cock A or C or the pipe in connection therewith is choked, or nearly choked.

REFERRING TO FIGURE 4 ONLY.

Sometimes the water-gauge fittings are arranged as shown in Figures 4 and 5, with no passage up the column, the central portion (N) of the column being simply a pillar or connecting piece of any convenient section between the upper and lower portions to which the cocks B and D are attached.

By this arrangement double communications are obviated and there is no need for what is known as "double shut off" in testing the accuracy of the gauge. When, however, the gauges are constructed in this manner the cocks B and D are unreliable as test cocks in the event of there being no glass in the gauge. This feature should be carefully noted. Moreover, when in working condition the reduction of pressure in the glass which arises when E is opened causes the water in pipe H to rise above its normal level. This objectionable feature should also be noted.

Sometimes there is a bend, L, in the steam pipe I leading from cock A to cock B. This has occasionally escaped observation when new boilers have been fitted on board ship. In most cases this bend arises from the pipe being led in an abnormal direction to escape other pipes, beams or fittings near the smoke-box. With such a bend the condensed steam collects in the pipe and falls to the bottom of the bend, and in time it completely fills the pipe from J to K. The steam from K down to the level of the water in the glass is thereby trapped and, as condensation proceeds, leads to a reduction of pressure in the pipe below that of the boiler and an equivalent rise of the water in the bend and also in the gauge-glass. When the vessel is quiescent the water in the gauge-glass increases in height until cock E is opened or until the pressure in the boiler is so much in excess of that in the lower part of pipe I as to cause the water in the bend to be blown into the gauge-glass In either case instantaneous change of water level ensues.

In the ordinary course of working the phenomenon described above is more or less modified by the presence of air in the upper part of the gauge and by the rise and fall of the water in the boiler and gauge-glass arising from the rolling or pitching motions of the vessel.

OTHER SPECIAL POINTS TO BE NOTED.

When the cocks A and C are omitted, as in figure 2, it is owing to the bore of the stand pipe being sufficiently large to enable it to be regarded as part of the boiler. Such pipes require, however, to be examined and cleared at intervals by passing a rod through the holes provided for the purpose at PP and QQ.

Cocks at A and C are not necessary for the testing of gauges arranged as shown in Figures 4 and 5. Examiners ought, however, to make sure that candidates are aware of the impossibility of testing the reliability of the indications of water-gauges arranged as in Figure 3 when the cocks A and C are absent and of the effect which the choking of cock A or C or pipe H or I has on the indications of the test-cocks T T T attached to column Y.

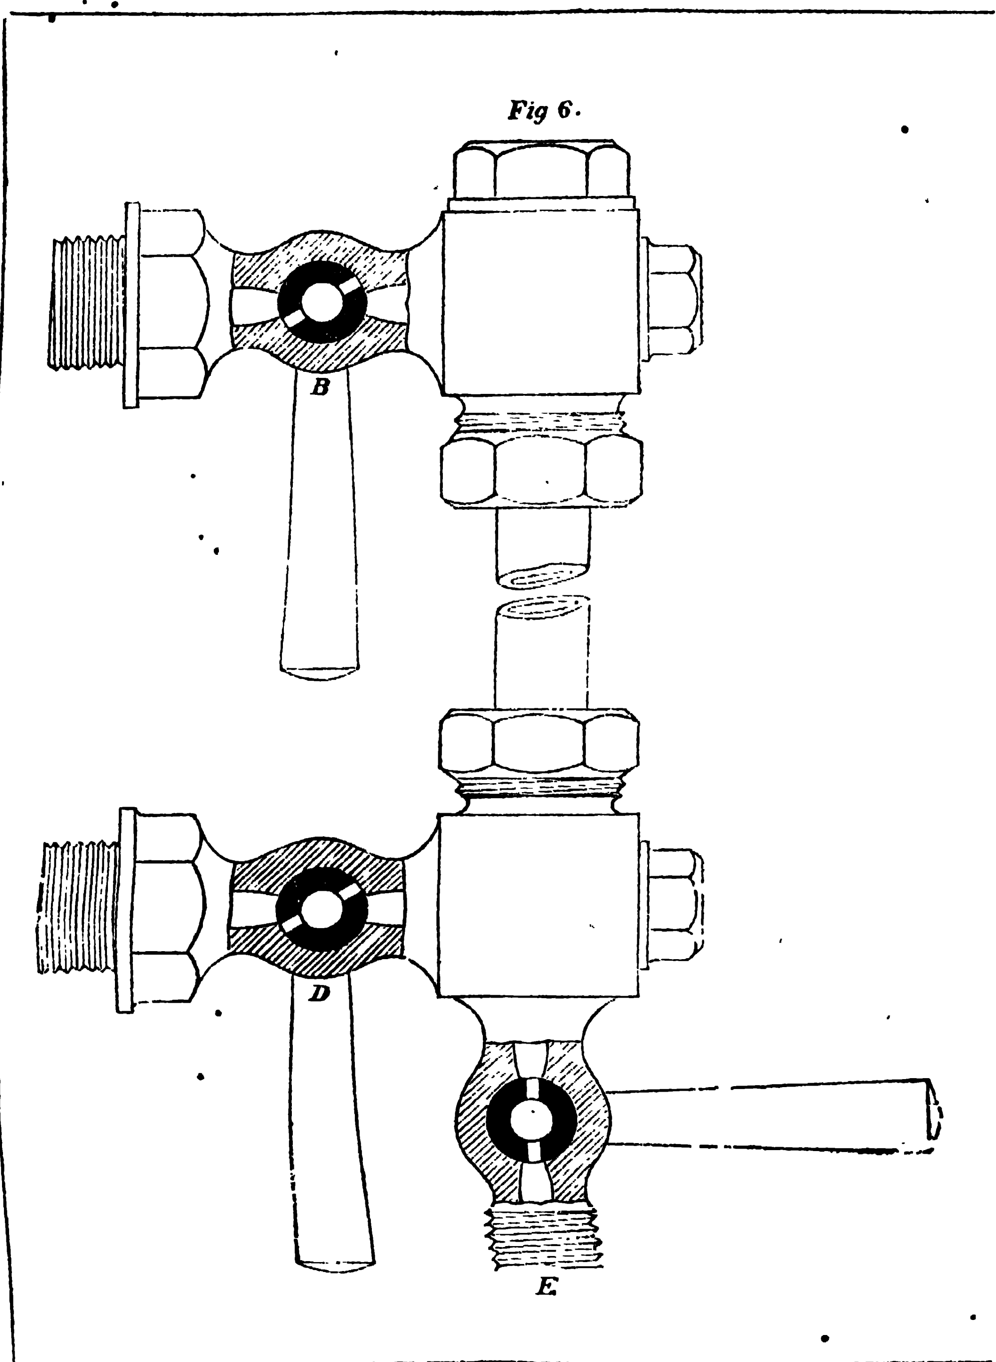
Probably more than half the steamers afloat are fitted with water guages as shown in Figures 3 and 4, and it is therefore specially important that engineer candidates should thoroughly understand their construction, the principle on which they act, and the steps which must be taken to keep them in an efficient condition.

When fitting a gauge-glass into its place it is specially important that it should not be placed so high as to prevent a clearing rod being inserted at G, figures 1, 2, 3, 4 and 5. This defect, especially if it occurs in a water-gauge attached to a boiler subject to priming, permits a rapid accumulation of scum around the top of the glass and results in the choking of the orifice leading from cock B to the gauge-glass in each of the figures.

When a gauge-glass is too short or is placed either too high or too low in the fittings, it is also liable to become choked by the packing material being forced over its ends by the glands whilst being screwed up.

The use of unsuitable or insecure internal pipes in connection with either the ordinary gauge-glass cocks of the description shown in Figure 1, or with test-cocks which are joined to the boiler itself, should also be carefully guarded against.

Boiler casualties have resulted from the cocks B and D having the parts wrongly placed as shown in Figure 6, Plate II. In one case of that kind which forms the subject of Report No. 208 under the Boiler Explosions Acts, the engineer in testing the water-gauge omitted to see that the passages in the cocks B and D were clear when the handles were in their proper working position. This effect could easily have been discovered if proper attention had been paid to the condition of the cocks. A defect of this nature may be due to faulty construction originally, or to the handle of the cock having been overstrained, and the neck twisted. Whether the passages in the plugs are fair and clear can, however, be verified in a few minutes. As an illustration, the water cock D, Figure 6, Plate II, can be verified by blowing through E with B shut and then moving the handle of D to one side until it is just closed, and then to the other side until it is again just closed; the proper working position of the handle is about equally distant from each of the above positions. The other cocks can be verified in the same manner.



Another serious casualty occurred through the handle of the cock A, Figure 3, having been twisted from its original position relatively to the orifice of the cock, resulting in the cock being shut when apparently open.

When a water-gauge, that is clear in all its parts, has been thoroughly blown through, the water in the glass rises above the level at which it formerly stood, immediately the drain cock E is closed, but if left undisturbed for a time it gradually falls to its former position. The amount of rise which occurs on these occasions depends chiefly on the temperature of the contents of the boiler and on the length of the pipes by which column Y is connected top and bottom to the boiler, but in cases where the gauge is of the description illustrated in Figures 3, 4 and 5, it amounts in high pressure boilers to about 4 inches, while the time occupied by the water in returning to its former level ranges from 30 to 40 minutes. The cause of this rise is twofold, namely (a) the displacement of the comparatively cold water in pipe H by hotter and proportionately lighter water from the boiler, and (b) a slight condensation of the steam and a corresponding fractional reduction of pressure in pipe I. The cause of the gradual subsidence of the water in the glass to its former level is also of a dual character, namely (a) the cooling of the water in pipe H, and (b) the diminution in the condensation of steam in pipe I owing to the collection therein of air released from the steam condensed.

These results will, however, be somewhat modified if the water in the boiler is of higher density than in pipe H, and this will nearly always be the case owing to the condensation of the steam in the glass and upper fittings of the water-gauge, causing the water in the lower part to be fresher than that in the boiler.

The examiner should impress upon candidates the necessity for periodically blowing through the water-gauge on each boiler (no matter what the form may be) in a systematic and thorough manner, and, in cases where a boiler is fitted with two water-gauges, of keeping both in constant use; finally, he should further impress upon them the necessity for keeping the water-gauges well lighted, clean, and in all respects efficient.

APPENDIX E.

EXAMINATION OF MASTERS AND MATES IN STEAM.

These examinations are provided for the purpose of giving Masters and Mates who are possessed of Certificates of Competency an opportunity of undergoing a voluntary examination as to their practical knowledge of the use and working of the steam-engine. The examiners are appointed by Government.

The examination is open to any person who holds a Certificate of any grade in the Foreign or Home trade or as Master of his own pleasure yacht. Candidates should fill up the form of application, Form Exn. 2, at the Port Office, pay the fee of Rs. 15, and deposit their Certificates with the Port Officer, who will inform the applicant when and where to attend to be examined. If the candidate fails to pass his Certificate will be at once returned to him.

If he passes, the report (Exn. 15) will be sent to the Port Officer, and the Certificate, together with the Form Exn. 2, will be sent to the Government; the words "Certified to have passed in steam," with the date and place of examination, will then be entered on the Certificate and its counterpart, and the Certificate will be sent to the Superintendent of the Mercantile Marine Office of the port named in the Form Exn. 2, and be delivered to the candidate in the usual manner.

If a candidate fails, he may not present himself for re-examination until the expiration of three months from the date of failure.

The examination is for the most part vivâ voce, and extends to a general knowledge of the practical use and working of the steam engine, and of the various valves, fittings, and pieces of machinery connected with it; and of the way in which electric lighting is carried out on board ship. Theoretical questions on calculations of horse-power or areas of cylinders and valves or any of the more difficult questions relating to steam-engines and boilers will not be asked.

Examiners are to satisfy themselves that the candidates know the names and understand the uses of the various parts of engines and boilers, and their connecting pipes, valves, cocks, &c. Practical knowledge, as distinguished from theories and abstruse calculations, is to be the test of the candidate's fitness to have his Certificate endorsed.

The examiner should arrange to conduct part of the examination in the engine-room of a steamship, unless from circumstances he finds it impossible to do so; but in the event of the candidate passing, the examiner should state in writing what circumstances prevented a visit to an engine-room. If an opportunity offer, the candidate should be permitted, under the guidance of the examiner, to start and stop the engine of some vessel which may have her steam up.

The examiner, in sending in his report of the examination, should state whether the examination has been held.

Candidates will be required to give written answers to sixteen out of twenty questions taken from the Elementary Questions printed in Appendix B. These questions will be altered from time to time without notice. The twenty questions are not to be difficult, theoretical, or book question, but are to be such as any man of ordinary capacity, who has any practical knowledge of the use and working of the steam-engine, ought to answer.

If a candidate refers to any book or paper or memorandum, or obtains information from another candidate during the examination, he will be treated as having failed, will forfeit his fee, and will not be allowed to be re-examined for a period of three months.

The examiners will report in the case of failure, the nature of the question or questions that decided the failure, or the point in the management of the engine in which the candidate was deficient.

There is nothing in the regulations requiring that applicants for the voluntary examination shall have served on board steamships; all that is required is that they shall have a practical knowledge of the use and working of the steam-engine. Examiners will not fail to appreciate the fact that practical knowledge is best gained in the engine-room; and the examination of an officer who does not produce official evidence of service in steamships, and of experience of engines, must necessarily be more searching than in the case of one who produces evidence of such service and experience.

Examiners will require all candidates to fill up a Form Exn. 15 (b), and they will forward it to the Port Officer with the report of the examination.

Masters and Mates may cancel questions A, B, and C, but they should fill up the form for questions D, E, F, and G, as evidence of their practical knowledge.

A candidate for this examination is required to have a thorough grasp of the construction of the steam-engine and boiler, to enable him, in the first place, to understand the nature and importance of any defect which may be reported to him by the Chief Engineer, and so that he may work in harmony with him in affording time and facilities for disconnexions, inspections, adjustments, and repairs.

To have a looking-on knowledge of what the principal repairs are about engines and boilers and pipes, and how these repairs are accomplished.

To be able to form an independent opinion as to a breakdown, and the consequent propriety or impropriety of proceeding under steam with temporarily repaired or defective machinery.

To understand how to estimate approximately the reduction of fuel required for reduced speed, and consequently to sanction such reduction of speed as may seem to him to be warranted by the report of the Chief Engineer, and to satisfy himself before leaving port that there is sufficient coal for the voyage.

To have an intelligent grasp of the general run of pipes and connexions in the engine-room, the marking of cocks, the opening and closing of cocks and valves, how mistakes of importance may be made in the confusion of an accident and how best to guard against such mistakes.

To be capable of being left in charge of the feeding of a set of boilers, to understand the working of the water-gauge, and to be able to guard against being misled by false indications of the gauge glass.

To understand about blowing down and surfacing, the reasons for doing so, and the danger which may result from the neglect of these under certain circumstances.

A master or mate presenting himself for examination in steam must be understood to have made up for his want of practical experience by reading up about the steam-engine. He ought, therefore, to show that he has given his mind to intelligently understanding the rationale of the action of the steam-engine. Under this head he should, therefore, be able to state approximately the quantity of heat required in the formation of steam, the remarkable relation of "latent" heat to "sensible" heat, how much steam can be raised by the combustion of one pound of coal, what horse-power measure is, what indicated horse-power is, what is the action of the slide-valve, the course of the steam through the engine, and the advantage of working expansively, and how the expansive action is shown by the indicator diagram. To know the uses of the various parts of the engines and dynamos used for electric lighting, and how they and the cables are fitted in the hull; how wires are jointed, insulated, and cased; why it is desirable that they should be led along places which are dry and accessible; what is "sparking" and what are the causes which produce it; what is its danger in coal bunkers and petroleum-carrying steamers; what are the uses of switches and cut-outs, and why is it so important to prevent short-circuiting taking place.

The candidate has to answer in writing 16 out of 20 questions selected from the Elementary Questions (see Appendix B).

Selections for this examination are given on the alphabetic sheet for "Steam." Generally, these answers are given by candidates as learned by rote from a book; the candidate should therefore be asked such vivâ voce questions as will necessitate his giving his answers in different words, so as to discover whether he has the root of the matter in him.

The principal part of the vivâ voce is the examination on board a steamer, preferably one with which he is unacquainted. He is told to look about and try to find out the run of the machinery without the assistance of anyone: the examiner to be in the engine-room to see that this independent examination is properly carried out. When the candidate reports that he thinks he knows the whole arrangement of the machinery, the Examiner will then question him on the uses of the parts, get him to point out the different cylinders, pumps valves, condenser, &c.; also the dynamo, its field-magnets, armature, commutators, brushes, cables, &c. He must show that he understands the run of the pipes in the bilges, not necessarily that he has gone over every one of them, but he ought to be directed to trace, at least, one important range of pipes and to thoroughly satisfy the examiner that he could be safely trusted to manipulate the valves or cocks in connexion therewith. It will not often be practicable for the candidate to be asked to actually work engines under steam, but he must satisfy the examiner that he knows how to do so, and that he is aware what precautions have to be taken in regard to water in the cylinder, &c. It is most important that a candidate should show that, in the event of an accident depriving him of the assistance of engineers, he knows what to do to safely take his vessel to an anchorage, or to stop the engines and proceed under sail alone.

The examination of a mate in steam is the same as that of a master. The knowledge required has no reference to the mate's position. A mate may be examined, but such examination implies that the mate will one day be a master, when the possession of the knowledge will be an advantage to him in the discharge of his duties as master.

The following are the conditions of sale:—

1. The opium will be sold for exportation by sea only, and no certificate will be granted except to cover such export.

2. The opium will be ordinarily offered for sale at an upset price of Rs. 800 per chest, and sold to the highest bidder above that price, except under the circumstances for which provision is made by clause 13 of these conditions of sale. The bids must advance by Rs. 5 at a time.

3. The sale shall commence at the hour of 11 A.M. of the day fixed by previous notification, and shall not be continued after the hour of 5 P.M., but if at that hour any of the lots advertised for sale shall remain unsold, the sale may, at the discretion of the Board of Revenue, be resumed on the next day following (not being Sunday or a public holiday), at the hour of 11 A.M., and [illegible] until the whole of the remaining lots are disposed of; or if the whole quantity advertised shall not be sold on the day appointed, the Board of Revenue may dispose of the lots which remain on hand at a future sale.

4. Each lot shall contain five chests.

DEPOSIT.

When the amount bid is less than Rs. 1,200 per chest, Rs. 200 per chest.

On bids of Rs 1,200 and upwards, but less than Rs. 1,600 per chest, Rs 300 per chest.

On bids of Rs. 1 600 and upwards, but less than Rs 2,000 per chest, Rs. 400 per chest.

And so on, Rs. 100 being added to the deposit for every bid additional to the extent of Rs. 400.

5. A Promissory Note for a sum, calculated according to the scale, noted in the margin, shall be taken as a deposit on each lot from the purchaser in the sale-room and before the lot is registered in the sale-book, and all such Promissory Notes shall be redeemed on the part of the purchasers at this office by Bank of Bengal receipts or by substitution of other public securities of the Government of India, on or before 3-30 P.M., in the after-noon of the fifth day after the sale, provided it does not fall on a Saturday; if it falls on a Saturday, the said notes must be redeemed by 1-30 P.M., or, on the other hand, failing such redemption by the time aforesaid, then the lot or lots for which no Bank of Bengal receipts or deposit of other public securities as aforesaid shall have been delivered in, shall be re-sold at such time or times and under such conditions of re-sale as the Board of Revenue shall see fit; and all losses and expenses whatsoever attending such re-sale shall be borne and paid by the defaulters, whilst any profit accruing from such re-sale shall be forfeited to Government.

6. The said Promissory Notes shall be absolutely payable in any event, and the amount thereof shall be absolutely forfeited upon such default as before mentioned, and the amount thereof shall not go or be credited in reduction of any loss on re-sale or expenses thereby incurred, but shall be recoverable whether such re-sale shall be had or not, or whether there shall be a loss on such re-sale or not.

7. The Promissory Notes taken on the day of sale under the fifth condition, if remaining unredeemed at 3-30 P.M. of the fifth day following the day of sale, or 1-30 P.M., if the last day falls on a Saturday, will be placed in the hands of the Solicitor to the Government for realization in such manner as to him shall seem fit.

8. No tender of money, Bank of Bengal receipts, or public securities, on account of opium upon which the prescribed deposit may not have been made before the prescribed time in clause 5 on the 5th day following the day of sale, will be afterwards accepted. Provided always that money so subsequently tendered may be taken in payment of the said Promissory Note, but such acceptance of money shall in no way entitle the payer thereof to any right to delivery of the lot or lots in respect whereof the said note was given, or to any of the rights of a purchaser thereof, or release the payer from liability for any unpaid balance of such notes or from the additional liability for the loss and expenses of such re-sale as provided for in clauses No. 5 and No. 6.

9. The opium advertised for sale shall be paid for not later than by 3-30 P.M. of the fifteenth day from the day of sale, provided it does not fall on a Saturday; if it falls on a Saturday, the opium must be paid for by 1-30 P.M.; and, in case any lots of such opium shall not be so paid for and adjusted, then the cash deposit made under the fifth condition, or any public securities that may have been deposited on account of such lots or chests, shall be forfeited, and the opium shall be disposed of on account of Government at such time and in such manner as the Board of Revenue shall think fit; and the first purchaser shall further be required to make good all expenses and any loss or difference of price between that obtained at the re-sale and the amount at which the opium was first purchased, forfeiting all advantages that may arise from such re-sale, and the liability for the loss or difference of price and expenses shall be in addition to, and wholly independent of, the amount of the deposit so forfeited.

10. Purchasers taking out certificates or orders for the delivery of opium, after making full payment as above prescribed, shall have the option of naming the number of lots of their purchase, which they may desire to be included in each certificate or order; and it is to be clearly understood that the certificates or orders so taken out shall be considered final, and not afterwards changeable for other certificates or orders authorizing the delivery of single lots or of a different number of lots or chests, whether more or less, than the number of lots or chests ordinarily required to be included in each certificate or order.

11. No deposit of public securities under the fifth of the present conditions will be received in this office except from the party recorded as the purchaser in the sale-book, or his authorized agent. The receipt for deposit of public securities will be granted only in the name of such purchaser, and the securities so deposited will be returned when payment in full has been made by the said purchaser or his order.

12. The officer superintending the sale on the part of the Government is empowered to reject, at his discretion, the bid of any individual, unless such individual shall on demand render at the time a deposit either in Government of India Notes, Bank of Bengal receipts, or Government securities, a sum equal to the amount for which a Promissory Note would otherwise be taken under the fifth of these conditions.

13. With a view to prevent fictitious biddings designed to obstruct the sale, it is hereby notified that the officer of Government superintending the sale shall be competent, at any time during the sale, to withdraw any unsold lot, and immediately to put it up again for sale at a maximum upset price, diminishing the same gradually by Rs. 5 at a time until a bid is obtained; and the first bonâ fide bidder for a lot, after it has been offered for sale in the mode here described, shall be held and declared to be the purchaser of the said lot, and the officer of Government superintending the sale shall also be competent to dispose, in the same manner, of as many of the subsequent lots as he may think proper, provided always that no lot shall be sold below the minimum price of Rs. 800 specified in the second of these conditions.

14. The purchaser of any lot shall have the option of naming and purchasing in immediate succession, at the same price and under the same conditions, any number of lots of the same Agency opium not exceeding altogether twenty-five lots, provided always that there remain a sufficient number of lots of the opium to complete the said twenty-five.

15. In the event of any dispute or difference touching or concerning any matter or question arising out of the sale of the opium included in this notification, or adjustment of the account thereof, the same shall and may be tried and decided in the High Court of Judicature at Fort William in Bengal.

16. The following papers will be exhibited for inspection on the day of sale, or may be seen previously to that date by personal application at the office of the Board of Revenue:—

No. 1, Certificate of the opium advertised for sale;

No. 2, Report of the examination of such opium.

17. The public are hereby informed that in providing the investment of the opium manufactured at the Patna Factory and the opium manufactured at the Ghazipur Factory for the year 1908-09, the same precautions have been taken as those which have been observed during past years to have the drug procured and sent down in a pure state, to have only the prescribed quantity of leaves used in forming the cakes, and to have the due proportion of opium put into each cake. An account of the weight of the drug, when packed at the Patna and Ghazipur Factories, and a statement of the average weight of the chests, indiscriminately taken, for the purpose of comparison, from the despatches on arrival at Calcutta, may be seen on personal application at the office of the Board of Revenue.

18. Any further information respecting weight or quality of the opium advertised for sale that may be desired by parties connected with the trade will, as heretofore, be furnished to them on personal application at the office of the Board of Revenue. But, in accordance with established usage, under no circumstances will the Board of Revenue entertain or recognize any claim to compensation for loss from any alleged deficiency of weight, abstraction of opium, or adulteration of the drug, which may be preferred on reference to chests after the sale and delivery of the opium for shipment.

Secretary.

THIRD REPORT ON THE COTTON CROPS OF BENGAL, DECEMBER 1909.

THE following note is published for general information.

F. W. DUKE,
Chief Secy. to the Govt. of Bengal.

DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE, BENGAL.

THIRD REPORT OF THE COTTON CROPS OF BENGAL, DECEMBER 1909.

[On an average of the five years ending 1907-08, the area under the cotton crop in the territory to which this forecast relates has represented some 0·35 per cent. of the total area under cotton in India.]

Explanatory.—This forecast deals with the estimates of the area sown with cotton crops (both early and late) and also gives an estimate of their probable outturn.

Character of the season.—The weather has been favourable in all the important early cotton districts. In the Sonthal Parganas, the most important of early cotton growing districts, the prospects of the crop are very good owing to favourable weather conditions. The weather and rainfall have not been as favourable for the late cotton crops. In Saran, the most important of the late cotton growing districts, and in Muzaffarpur, the crop suffered from excessive rain. Next in importance are Darbhanga and Singhbhum, and the crops in these two districts are reported to be in good condition.

Area sown.—The area sown with early cotton is now estimated at 34,110 acres as against 31,230 acres sown last year. The area sown up to now with late cotton amounts to 28,377 acres. Last year's area under the crop was 32,869 acres. Harvesting of the early cotton crop has begun in normal time. Sowings of the late crop are still going on in some districts. They have not yet commenced in Cuttack.

Outturn.—The estimated outturn of early cotton in this Province has according to estimates recorded in this Department amounted to 7,145 bales against 4,658 bales of last year. The increase in outturn is due to favourable weather. The outturn of late cotton has been returned at 7,470 bales against 9,352 bales, which was the estimate for last year. Adding to these estimates 5 per cent. for the crop grown in the Native States, for which no statistics are recorded, the total early and late crop of this year works up to 7,502 and 7,844 bales respectively.

FINAL FORECAST OF THE BHADOI CROPS OF BENGAL, 1909.

THE following note is published for general information.

F. W. DUKE,
Chief Secy. to the Govt. of Bengal.

The 20th December 1909.

FINAL FORECAST OF THE BHADOI CROPS OF BENGAL, 1909.

[On an average of five years ending 1907-08, the area under autumn rice in the territory to which this forecast relates has represented some 5·9 per cent. of the total area under this crop in British India.]

Character of the season.—As reported in the preliminary forecast, issued in September last, the weather was favourable during the sowing season and weather conditions continued generally favourable throughout the season. But excessive rain in June, defective rainfall in July and heavy floods in the end of August damaged the crops in parts of Midnapore, Hooghly, Howrah, Shahabad, Saran, Champaran, Monghyr, Bhagalpur, Darjeeling and Cuttack. Injury was also done by insects in Sambalpur. In Orissa and Chota Nagpur good crops have been harvested. In other districts excepting Howrah, the outturn was fair.

Area sown.—The area sown with the different bhadoi crops was 9,596,000 acres against 9,031,200 acres of last year. The normal areas under the crops have been returned at 9,548,700 acres. The increase in the area sown this year was due to the favourable weather conditions at the sowing time and also to the decrease in area under jute.

Outturn.—From Appendix I, it will be seen that Ranchi estimates a crop of 110 per cent. and Khulna, the Sonthal Parganas, Balasore, Hazaribagh, and Manbhum expect an average crop. Eight districts report a crop between 90 and 99 per cent., five districts between 80 and 89 per cent., nine districts between 70 and 79 per cent., and four districts between 60 and 69 per cent. Howrah only reports a poor crop of 55 per cent.

Comparing the reports issued in the preliminary forecast with those now received, it appears that the outturn has improved in 10 and has decreased in 10 districts.

The estimates of the district officers returned to this Department show that the total outturn of all bhadoi crops in the Province has now worked out to 86 per cent. against 85 per cent. shown in the preliminary forecast. Last year's outturn of all the bhadoi crops was 65 per cent. The weather has been favourable in many districts and this Department estimates that a normal crop will be harvested.

The total yield of cleaned autumn rice according to this Department's estimates amounts to 34,795,100 cwts. against 21,923,100 cwts., which was the estimate last year.

N. N. BANERJEI, for Offg. Director of Agriculture, Bengal (on tour).

SUMMARY OF THE METEOROLOGICAL OBSERVATIONS TAKEN IN BENGAL AND IN EASTERN BENGAL AND ASSAM FOR THE MONTH OF OCTOBER 1909.

On the first of the month general rain was reported from Bihar, but generally during the first week rainfall was confined to Eastern Bengal and Assam. Skies were moderately to heavily clouded except towards the close of the week, when they cleared almost completely in the western districts. Temperature was normal or in defect. During the second week only a few scattered falls of rain occurred. Skies were clear over a large part of the Division and lightly to moderately clouded elsewhere. Temperature agreed with the normal. During the third week heavy rain fell in Eastern Bengal and Assam under the influence of a cyclone from the Bay, but practically no rain fell in Orissa, Chota Nagpur and Bihar. Skies were clear or only lightly clouded before and after the storm. Temperature fell considerably over the area affected by the storm. During the fourth week a few falls occurred in the coast districts. Cloud spread over the greater part of the Division on account of a second cyclone in the Bay from the 25th to the 27th, and during this period owing to diminution in radiation night temperature became in excess.

In the Bay the important feature of the weather was the occurrence of two severe cyclones. The first entered the Andaman Sea on the 14th from the Gulf of Siam, probably crossing the Tenasserim peninsula to the south of Mergui. It moved rapidly in a north-westerly direction afterwards curving through north and north-east, crossed the Bengal coast to the east of Saugor Island and finally broke up in Eastern Bengal on the 19th. It did considerable damage to the river shipping at Goalundo and to country boats on the rivers in Eastern Bengal. The second storm was generated over the Andaman Sea on the 22nd and passed between Slipper Island and Diamond Island, moving probably initially in a north-westerly direction. It gradually, however, changed its course to west, and finally crossed the coast between Puri and Gopalpur during the night of the 26th. It caused much damage during its passage inland.

Summary of temperature.—The mean temperature for the month was approximately normal over the whole reporting area. The highest temperature (94°) was reported from Buxar and the lowest (54°·5) was reported from Daltonganj.

The following table gives the summary of the temperature of each of the seven meteorological divisions of the Provinces of Eastern Bengal and Assam and of Bengal for the month of October 1909:—

Summary of rainfall.—The rainfall work of the area under report has been handed over to the Director of Agriculture. A short table, however, is attached to this report, giving actual and normal rainfall at the principal stations of each district.

Rainfall was in excess in Eastern Bengal and Assam and in defect elsewhere.

The maximum and minimum temperatures are obtained from self-registering thermometers. All the thermometers are verified, and the readings have been corrected to a standard constructed and verified at the Kew Observatory. They are exposed under a thatched shed open at the sides, and are suspended four feet above the ground.

The barometer readings are corrected to those of the standard, Newman's No. 86, formerly at the Surveyor-General's Office.

The hygrometric elements are obtained from Tables III, IV and V of the official tables computed in the Meteorological Office and based on Regnault's modifications of August's formula.

The directions and the movement of the wind are taken from the trace of a Beckley's anemograph.

The mouth of the rain-gauge is one foot above the ground. The rainfall reported on any day is for 24 hours preceding 8 A.M. of that day.

NOTIFICATIONS

Regulations for the Appointment of Probationers for the Indian Forest Service, 1910.

No. 4174For.—The 27th December 1909.—The following orders of the Government of India regarding the appointment of probationers for the Indian Forest Service are published for general information.

Circular No. $\frac{27}{318-2}$ F., dated Calcutta, the 14th December 1909.

ORDER—By the Government of India, Department of Revenue and Agriculture.

THE REGULATIONS AS TO THE APPOINTMENT OF PROBATIONERS FOR THE INDIAN FOREST SERVICE, 1910.

1. Appointments.—The Secretary of State for India in Council will, in the summer of 1910, make not less than ten appointments of Probationers for the Indian Forest Service, provided that so many candidates are considered to be in all respects qualified.

In making these appointments, he will act with the advice of a Selection Committee.

2. Applications for Appointment.—Applications for appointment must be made on a printed form to be obtained from the Secretary, Judicial and Public Department, India Office, Whitehall, London, S. W., and to be returned to him not later than Friday, the 1st July 1910. Candidates must be prepared to present themselves for an interview with the Selection Committee within three weeks from that date.

3. Age Limit.—Candidates must be under the age of 23 years on the 1st July 1910.

4. Nationality, etc.—Every candidate must be a natural-born British subject. He must be unmarried, and if he marries before he reaches India he will forfeit his appointment. He must be of good physique, and must produce evidence of character to satisfy the Secretary of State for India in Council that he is suited for the Indian Forest Service.

5. Qualifications.—Preference will be given to candidates who can show that in addition to a good general education as described in the next paragraph they have passed with honours in a public examination for a degree in some branch of Natural Science held by a University in Great Britain or Ireland.

6. In case the number of duly qualified candidates who have taken such a degree, is not sufficient to fill the number of appointments, the Secretary of State for India in Council will nominate candidates who bring evidence to show that they have received a good general education, and that they have a good knowledge of Chemistry and Mechanics and Physics as indicated in the appended Syllabus (Appendix I). A good general education should be understood to include, at the least, a fair knowledge of English Composition, Mathematics up to and including Plane Trigonometry, Latin and either German or French. A knowledge of Greek is not necessary, but is left to the option of the candidates. The production of school certificates granted by the examining authorities of Universities, or of certificates that a candidate has passed the Matriculation Examination of a University, in the subjects named, or of other certificates held by the Secretary of State in Council to be equivalent, will be taken to show that a candidate satisfies the requirements of this clause. Candidates of this class must not be less than 19 years of age on the 1st of July 1910.

Should there be more candidates considered by the Selection Committee to be qualified in every respect than vacancies to be filled, the Secretary of State reserves the right to require them to pass a competitive examination conducted by the Civil Service Commissioners, on the results of which their final selection would depend.

7. Medical Examination.—Those candidates who are selected as Probationers will be required to undergo a strict examination by a Medical Board at the India Office, at which particular stress will be laid on good vision and hearing.

On passing this medical examination candidates will be deemed to be Probationers for the Indian Forest Service.

8. Period of Probation.—In the case of probationers who have passed with Honours in Natural Science, as indicated in paragraph 5, the period of probation will extend over two years. In the case of students who have obtained a Diploma in Forestry the period may be two years or less, as may be specially arranged. The probationers will be required to undergo a special course of study at Oxford, and to become members of the University, if not so already. During the vacations they will receive, under suitable supervision, practical instruction in such British and Continental forests as may be selected for the purpose. Excursions are also made for purposes of study in term-time.

In the case of probationers who have not passed with Honours in Natural Science, the period of probation will extend over about three years.

Probationers must obtain the Diploma of Forestry of the University of Oxford; those who have passed with Honours in Natural Science within two years, and the others within three years. The case of students who have already obtained at another University such a Diploma will be specially considered.

9. Charges.—The probationers will be required to defray all expenses of lodging, board, tuition, and excursions while at Oxford, and on practical instruction in Britain and on the Continent, with the exception of fees payable to local forest officers in Britain and on the Continent.

10. Allowances.—The Secretary of State for India in Council will pay to each probationer possessing a degree in Natural Science, or a Diploma in Forestry, the sum of 120*l* annually or a total of 240*l*. (besides the fees to local officers mentioned above). These payments will be made on the following dates in each year:—

On the 1st December	30
On the 1st March	30
On the 1st June	60

In the case of probationers who have not passed with Honours in Natural Science or obtained a Diploma in Forestry before being appointed probationers, the Secretary of State in Council will give the same total allowance of 240*l*. (in such instalments as may be required to meet the expenses of the practical work), and will defray (as above) the fees payable to local forest officers.

The grant of the allowances is subject to the following conditions:—

(b) that the probationer gives security to refund the payments in case he fails to join the Indian Forest Service at the end of the period of probation.

11. Conduct.—Every probationer will be required to conduct himself during the period of probation in a manner satisfactory to the Secretary of State, and to give evidence of satisfactory progress in his studies in such a manner as may be required, failing which, or in the event of serious misconduct, he will be liable to have his name removed from the list of probationers.

12. Appointment and Seniority.—Probationers who obtain the Diploma of Forestry, and are of sound constitution and free from physical defects which would render them unsuitable for employment in the Indian Forest Service, will be appointed Assistant Conservators in the Indian Forest Department. Their position in the Provincial Forest Lists will be determined by the results of the examinations held during their probation; but in making selections for the posts of Conservator, officers of the same year are reckoned as equal in seniority.

They will be allowed at the end of the period of probation to state their preference in respect to the provinces to which they desire to be allotted; but the distribution will be made to the several provinces according to the needs of the public service, at the discretion of the Secretary of State for India. Officers are, however, at all times liable to be transferred from one province to another at the pleasure of the Government of India.

13. Riding.—Every probationer, before proceeding to India, will be required to satisfy the Secretary of State, in such manner as may be determined, of his ability to ride.

14. Articles of Agreement.—Within a month of his nomination as Assistant Conservator, each nominee must sign articles of agreement describing the terms and conditions of his appointment; he must embark for India when required to do so by the Secretary of State, and must engage his own passage. Failure to embark at the stated time will, in absence of satisfactory explanation, lead to forfeiture of appointment.

15. Salary.—An Assistant Conservator of Forests will draw pay at the rate of Rs. 380 a month (equivalent to 304*l*. a year, when the rupee is at 1*s*. 4*d*.) from the date of his reporting his arrival in India.

16. Promotion, Leave, Pension and Provident Fund.—Promotion, leave and pension will be governed by the regulations laid down by the Government of India, and applicable to forest officers, such regulations being subject to any modifications or alterations which may be made in them from time to time by the Government of India, and their interpretation in case of any doubt arising being left to that Government. A copy of the existing regulation can be seen on application at the India Office.

Certain information regarding appointments in the upper controlling staff of the Indian Forest Servie, the pay of which has been recently improved, will be found in Appendix II; a summary of information regarding leave is contained in Appendix III; and regarding pensions and the Provident Fund in Appendix IV.

INDIA OFFICE,
5th October 1909.

LEAVE.

1. The following is a summary of the principal regulations relating to the leave admissible to officers appointed to the Indian Forest Service by the Secretary of State from the United Kingdom:—

Long Leave.

2. Furlough and special leave with allowances (see paragraph 6) are admissible to an aggregate maximum amount of six years during an officer's service. The amount of furlough "earned" is one-fourth of an officer's active service, and the amount "due" is that amount less any enjoyed.

3. Furlough without medical certificate can, if due, be generally taken after eight years' active service, and again after intervals of not less than three years' continuous service. It is limited to two years at a time.

4. Furlough on medical certificate may be granted (a) to an officer who has rendered three years' continuous service, for not more than two years, but capable of extension up to three years; and (b) to an officer who has not rendered three years' continuous service, up to one year in any case, and up to such longer period, if any (but not exceeding two years in all), as the officer may have furlough "due" to him.

5. The allowances admissible during furlough are:—

(1) During the first two years of furlough without medical certificate and during so much of furlough with medical certificate as may be "due"—half average salary, subject to certain maximum and minimum limits.

(2) After the expiration of the period for which the foregoing allowances are admissible one quarter of average salary, subject to certain maximum and minimum limits.

Short leave.

6. Special leave may be granted at any time for not more than six months, with intervals of six years' service; allowances, calculated as during furlough, are given during the first six months only, whether taken in one or more instalments.

7. Privilege leave is a holiday which may be granted to the extent of one-eleventh part of the time that an officer has been on duty without interruption; and it may be accumulated up to three months, earned by 33 months' duty. During privilege leave, the officer retains a lien on his appointment, and receives the salary which he would have received if on duty. An interval of not less than six months must elapse between two periods of absence on privilege leave.

Privilege leave may be prefixed to furlough, special leave, or extraordinary leave without allowances. The whole period of leave thus taken in combination is known as combined leave. Combined leave may not be granted for a period of less duration than six months, nor, except on medical certificate, may it be extended beyond two years.

8. Subsidiary leave in India for a minimum of 10 days, usually with half average salary, is granted to an officer proceeding on or returning from leave out of India, or on retirement, to enable him to reach the port of embarkation or to rejoin his appointment. It is admissible only at the end and not at the beginning of combined leave.

9. Short leave is also granted to enable officers to appear at examinations, etc.

10. Extraordinary leave without allowances may be granted in case of necessity, and, except in certain specified cases, only when no other kind of leave is by rule admissible. It may be granted in continuation of other leave.

General Rules.

11. Leave of absence, whether on furlough or on privilege leave, can never be claimed as of right, and is given or refused at the discretion of Government.

12. After five years' continuous absence from duty, an officer is considered to be out of the employment of Government.

13. When leave allowances other than privilege leave pay are paid at the Home Treasury, or in a Colony where the standard of currency is gold, rupees are converted into sterling at the rate of exchange fixed for the time being for the adjustment of financial transactions between the Imperial and Indian Treasuries, unless any other rate has been exceptionally authorized. But for the present the rate of conversion is subject to a minimum of 1*s*. 6*d*. to the rupee. Privilege leave pay when issued from the Home Treasury (this is only admissible when privilege leave is combined with other leave) is converted at 1*s*. 4*d*. to the rupee.

3. The sale shall commence at the hour of 11 A.M. of the day fixed by previous notification, and shall not be continued after the hour of 5 P.M., but if at that hour any of the lots advertised for sale shall remain unsold, the sale may, at the discretion of the Board of Revenue, be resumed on the next day following (not being Sunday or a public holiday), at the hour of 11 A.M., and soon until the whole of the remaining lots are disposed of; or if the whole quantity advertised shall not be sold on the day appointed, the Board of Revenue may dispose of the lots which remain on hand at a future sale.

4. Each lot shall contain five chests.

A Promissory Note for a sum, calculated according to the scale, noted in the margin, shall be taken as a deposit on each lot from the purchaser in the sale-room and before the lot is registered in the sale-book, and all such Promissory Notes shall be redeemed on the part of the purchasers at this office by Bank of Bengal receipts or by substitution of other public securities of the Government of India, on or before 3-30 P.M., in the after-noon of the fifth day after the sale, provided it does not fall on a Saturday; if it falls on a Saturday, the said notes must be redeemed by 1-30 P.M., or, on the other hand, failing such redemption by the time aforesaid, then the lot or lots for which no Bank of Bengal receipts or deposit of other public securities as aforesaid shall have been delivered in, shall be re-sold at such time or times and under such conditions of re-sale as the Board of Revenue shall see fit; and all losses and expenses whatsoever attending such re-sale shall be borne and paid by the defaulters, whilst any profit accruing from such re-sale shall be forfeited to Government.

6. The said Promissory Notes shall be absolutely payable in any event, and the amount thereof shall be absolutely forfeited upon such default as before mentioned, and the amount thereof shall not go or be credited in reduction of any loss on re-sale or expenses thereby incurred, but shall be recoverable whether such re-sale shall be had or not, or whether there shall be a loss on such re-sale or not.

7. The Promissory Notes taken on the day of sale, under the fifth condition, if remaining unredeemed at 3-30 P.M. of the fifth day following the day of sale, or 1-30 P.M., if the last day falls on a Saturday, will be placed in the hands of the Solicitor to the Government for realization in such manner as to him shall seem fit.

8. No tender of money, Bank of Bengal receipts, or public securities, on account of opium upon which the prescribed deposit may not have been made before the prescribed time in clause 5 on the 5th day following the day of sale, will be afterwards accepted. Provided always that money so subsequently tendered may be taken in payment of the said Promissory Note, but such acceptance of money shall in no way entitle the payer thereof to any right to delivery of the lot or lots in respect whereof the said note was given, or to any of the rights of a purchaser thereof, or release the payer from liability for any unpaid balance of such notes or from the additional liability for the loss and expenses of such re-sale as provided for in clauses No. 5 and No. 6.

9. The opium advertised for sale shall be paid for not later than by 3-30 P.M. of the fifteenth day from the day of sale, provided it does not fall on a Saturday; if it falls on a Saturday, the opium must be paid for by 1-30 P.M.; and, in case any lots of such opium shall not be so paid for and adjusted, then the cash deposit made under the fifth condition, or any public securities that may have been deposited on account of such lots or chests, shall be forfeited, and the opium shall be disposed of on account of Government at such time and in such manner as the Board of Revenue shall think fit; and the first purchaser shall further be required to make good all expenses and any loss or difference of price between that obtained at the re-sale and the amount at which the opium was first purchased, forfeiting all advantages that may arise from such re-sale, and the liability for the loss or difference of price and expenses shall be in addition to, and wholly independent of, the amount of the deposit so forfeited.

10. Purchasers taking out certificates or orders for the delivery of opium, after making full payment as above prescribed, shall have the option of naming the number of lots of their purchase, which they may desire to be included in each certificate or order; and it is to be clearly understood that the certificates or orders so taken out shall be considered final, and not afterwards changeable for other certificates or orders authorizing the delivery of single lots or of a different number of lots or chests, whether more or less, than the number of lots or chests ordinarily required to be included in each certificate or order.

11. No deposit of public securities under the fifth of the present conditions will be received in this office except from the party recorded as the purchaser in the sale-book, or his authorized agent. The receipt for deposit of public securities will be granted only in the name of such purchaser, and the securities so deposited will be returned when payment in full has been made by the said purchaser or his order.

12. The officer superintending the sale on the part of the Government is empowered to reject, at his discretion, the bid of any individual, unless such individual shall on demand render at the time a deposit either in Government of India Notes, Bank of Bengal receipts, or Government securities, as an equal to the amount for which a Promissory Note would otherwise be taken under the fifth of these conditions.

13. With a view to prevent fictitious biddings designed to obstruct the sale, it is hereby notified that the officer of Government superintending the sale shall be competent, at any time during the sale, to withdraw any unsold lot, and immediately to put it up again for sale at a maximum upset price, diminishing the same gradually by Rs. 5 at a time until a bid is obtained; and the first bonâ fide bidder for a lot, after it has been offered for sale in the mode here described, shall be held and declared to be the purchaser of the said lot, and the officer of Government superintending the sale shall also be competent to dispose, in the same manner, of as many of the subsequent lots as he may think proper, provided always that no lot shall be sold below the minimum price of Rs. 800 specified in the second of these conditions.

14. The purchaser of any lot shall have the option of naming and purchasing in immediate succession, at the same price and under the same conditions, any number of lots of the same Agency opium not exceeding altogether twenty-five lots, provided always that there remain a sufficient number of lots of the opium to complete the said twenty-five.

15. In the event of any dispute or difference touching or concerning any matter or question arising out of the sale of the opium included in this notification, or adjustment of the account thereof, the same shall and may be tried and decided in the High Court of Judicature at Fort William in Bengal.

16. The following papers will be exhibited for inspection on the day of sale, or may be seen previously to that date by personal application at the office of the Board of Revenue:—

No. 1, Certificate of the opium advertised for sale;
No. 2, Report of the examination of such opium.

17. The public are hereby informed that in providing the investment of the opium manufactured at the Patna Factory and the opium manufactured at the Ghazipur Factory for the year 1908-09, the same precautions have been taken as those which have been observed during past years to have the drug procured and sent down in a pure state, to have only the prescribed quantity of leaves used in forming the cakes, and to have the due proportion of opium put into each cake. An account of the weight of the drug, when packed at the Patna and Ghazipur Factories, and a statement of the average weight of the chests, indiscriminately taken, for the purpose of comparison, from the despatches on arrival at Calcutta, may be seen on personal application at the office of the Board of Revenue.

18. Any further information respecting weight or quality of the opium advertised for sale that may be desired by parties connected with the trade will, as heretofore, be furnished to them on personal application at the office of the Board of Revenue. But, in accordance with established usage, under no circumstances will the Board of Revenue entertain or recognize any claim to compensation for loss from any alleged deficiency of weight, abstraction of opium, or adulteration of the drug, which may be preferred on reference to chests after the sale and delivery of the opium for shipment.

CUSTOM HOUSE NOTICE.

Credit system for the payment of Salt duty.

UNDER this system, as explained in the rules appended hereto, the payment of duty on salt manufactured in, or imported into, or transported within Bengal may be postponed for any period not exceeding six months from the date on which such payment is due.

2 The advantage to the merchant is that in taking delivery of a consignment of salt from boardship or from bond, it will be open to him, instead of prepaying the amount of the duty into the Treasury, to execute a bond and to deposit Government Promissory Notes or the other securities specified in the rules of a sufficient value to secure the payment He will have the advantage of drawing interest on the securities throughout the period for which they are deposited. At present he loses interest on the amount of the duty from the date of payment till the date of the sale of the salt. If any further particulars are required, the Accountant at the Custom House will furnish them on application.

CALCUTTA CUSTOM HOUSE,

H. F. HOWARD,
Offg. Collector of Customs.

NOTIFICATION

No. 3383-R.—The 2nd April 1909.—In exercise of the power conferred by section 2 of the Indian Salt Duties Act, 1908 (X of 1908), the Lieutenant Governor is pleased to make the following rules providing for the payment of duty on salt (manufactured in, or imported into, or transported within Bengal) within a period not exceeding six months from the date on which payment is due, and for the furnishing of security for such payment :—

Rules.

1. The payment of duty on salt manufactured in, or imported into, or transported within Bengal may, subject to the following rules, be postponed for any period not exceeding six months from the date on which such payment is due.

2. Any person who desires such postponement must deposit adequate security for such payment, and must execute an agreement in the form appended to these rules.

3. Such security shall take the form of—

(a) Government promissory notes,
(b) Treasury loan acknowledgments,
(c) Treasury Bills,
(d) Calcutta Port Trust Bonds,
(e) Calcutta Municipal Bonds,
(f) Government Savings Bank Pass-books, or
(g) Post Office Savings Bank deposits of the kind referred to in clause 42 in rule 338 of the rules contained in the Indian Postal Guide of April 1908, which must be endorsed over to and deposited with the Collector of Customs, Calcutta, or a District Collector empowered by the Board of Revenue in this behalf,

4. (1) Whenever securities are so deposited, the Collector shall grant to the depositor a receipt therefor, showing the amount of duty and charges for which the depositor will receive credit in respect of such securities.

(2) The said amount shall be fixed according to the probable marketable value of the securities, after making such deduction as the Collector may think fit to meet the contingency of depreciation in such value during the currency of the credit.

5. The Collector shall open a credit account for the amount shown in the aforesaid receipt: provided that no account shall be opened for a less sum than Rs. 500.

6. (1) A depositor may have more than one credit account opened in his name at the same time, upon depositing separate securities and executing a separate agreement in respect of each account.

(2) Any deficit arising upon any such account may be realized from securities deposited on any other such account.

7. (1) Where a credit account is opened by the Collector of Customs, Calcutta, applications by the depositor for the clearance of salt must be made upon a Bill-of-Entry bearing the words "Credit Account" in red ink on its face, and the depositor must in all other respects conform to the Customs procedure for the time being in force in Calcutta.

(2) Where a credit account is opened by a District Collector, applications by the depositor for the clearance of salt must be made in the prescribed form, and the Collector shall then pass the necessary orders for the issue of the salt.

8. (1) All payments due upon credit accounts opened in Calcutta must be made to the Collector of Customs, Calcutta:

Provided that the Collector may permit any such payment to be made at any Treasury outside Calcutta.

(2) All payments due upon credit accounts opened in any district outside Calcutta must be made to the Collector of that district.

9. Any interest accruing on securities during the time they remain in the custody of the Collector shall be paid to the depositor on presentation of interest warrants.

10. (1) Each current account shall be adjusted at the expiration of a period of six months from the date on which the account is opened.

(2) Whenever an adjustment is made, the Collector shall either—

(a) allow the account to be continued and the balance thereof carried over, after requiring additional security to be deposited if necessary, or

(b) if he thinks fit, direct the account to be closed.

11. (1) If any depositor fails to pay upon demand, the balance found to be due by him to the Government upon the final adjustment of his account, he may be charged with interest on such balance from the date on which the credit expired, at the rate of 12 per cent. per annum, and the Collector may proceed to realize the amount due for principal and interest by the sale of the depositor's securities or any of them.

(2) Any surplus accruing on such sale shall be paid to the depositor, and any loss consequent on the securities not realizing the sum due from the depositor for principal and interest must be met by him.

(3) For the purpose of making good any such loss, the Collector may credit to the Government any interest that may have accrued on any of the securities.

12. When an account opened in respect of any securities has been settled, such securities shall be returned to the depositor, upon his presenting the receipt which the Collector granted therefor.

13. (1) A depositor may have an account closed at any time before the expiration of the period of six months referred to in rule 10, upon paying amount shown to be due by him.

(2) When such payment is made the securities shall be returned to the depositor, upon his presenting the receipt which the Collector granted therefor.

FORM OF AGREEMENT.

An agreement made the day of one thousand nine hundred and between the Secretary of State for India in Council of the one part and of the other part. STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

1. The principal object of this Bill is to alter the constitution of the Board of Trustees of the Indian Museum in order to assign to the chief executive officers of the Museum a position on the Trust. There are also various other amendments in the existing law as contained in the Indian Museum Acts, 1876 and 1887, which appear to be desirable, and in these circumstances it has been thought most convenient to repeal these two enactments and substitute a new Act consolidating their provisions with the necessary amendments. With this object the present Bill has been prepared.

2. The more important amendments of the existing law are explained in the subjoined Notes on Clauses.

Notes on Clauses.

Clause 2.—It is proposed, after due consideration of the interests affected, to reduce the number of Trustees, which was fixed by the Indian Museum Act, 1887, at 21, to 17. Of these six are to be appointed ex officio, five by virtue of their position as Superintendents of departments of the Museum. The sixth is the Accountant General of Bengal. The remaining Trustees are to be nominated by the various bodies interested in the proper management of the Museum. It is further proposed [sub-clause (3)] that nominated Trustees shall hold office for a period of three years only, but that the nominating authority be given the option of extending the period.

Clause 3.—To lessen the possibility of the combined votes of the official members outnumbering those of the unofficial members, the quorum necessary for the transaction of business has been raised from three to six.

Clause 6.—The opportunity has been taken to define more accurately the position and powers of the Trustees in respect of all the property, whether moveable or immoveable, now held or hereafter to be acquired by them for the purposes of the Trust.

Clause 7.—Power has been conferred on the Trustees to present duplicates to other Museums in British India as well as to exchange or sell them.

Clause 8.—In order to promote efficiency, it is intended that the officers in charge of certain sections of the Museum should have more voice than at present in the management of their own sections. This will be effected by means of bye-laws for the management of the Museum to be made by the Trustees with the previous sanction of the Governor General in Council.

The Schedule.—A revised Schedule, specifying the lands and buildings of which the Trustees are now to have the exclusive possession, occupation and control for the purposes of their trust, has been substituted for the old one appended to the Indian Museum Act, 1887.

J. M. MACPHERSON,
Secretary to the Government of India.

FINAL FORECAST OF THE INDIGO CROP OF BENGAL 1909.

THE following note is published for general information.

F. W. DUKE,
Chief Secy. to the Govt. of Bengal.

The 23rd December 1909.

FINAL FORECAST OF THE INDIGO CROP OF BENGAL, 1909.

(On an average of the five years ending 1907-1908 the area under indigo in the territory to which this forecast relates has represented some 37 per cent., of the total area under indigo in British India.)

Explanatory.—With the exception of a few acres in Nadia and Jessore, indigo is only cultivated in Bihar districts, and of these Champaran, Muzaffarpur and Darbhanga are most important.

Character of the season.—The season has been unfavourable. Deficiency of winter rain affected February sowings very seriously. In March and April the season was better, but in May the rainfall was very defective. In June the rainfall was more than sufficient, and the heavy rainfall in the end of August affected the outturn of the second cuttings.

Outturn.—As compared with the estimates furnished in the preliminary forecast, the estimates now furnished are less in all the important districts of North Bihar. Champaran now estimates a 60 per cent. crop, Muzaffarpur a 75 per cent. and Darbhanga a 57 per cent. crop; the estimated outturn for North Bihar, including Monghyr, amounts to 67 per cent. and for the minor districts 32 per cent. against 78 and 44 per cent. respectively shown in the preliminary forecast. The decrease is attributed to the unfavourable outturn from the second cuttings. The total yield of the Province is estimated at 17,007 factory maunds against 26,331 maunds of last year.

Messrs. Moran & Co.'s estimates of the crop for the year under report is 16,000 maunds against 25,000 maunds of last year.

SECOND FORECAST OF THE WINTER RICE CROP OF BENGAL, 1909.

THE following note is published for general information.

F. W. DUKE,
Chief Secy. to the Govt. of Bengal.

The 21st December 1909.

SECOND FORECAST OF THE WINTER RICE CROP OF BENGAL, 1909.

[On an average of five years ending 1907-08, the area under winter rice in the territory to which the forecast relates has represented some 27·7 per cent. of the total area under winter rice in British India.]

Character of the season.—As reported in the first forecast issued in October last, the season was very favourable. In parts of Burdwan, Howrah, Jessore and in the Ghatal subdivision of Midnapore the crop suffered from heavy floods in August. The rain received in the early part of October proved very beneficial, especially in the Bhagalpur Division, where the fall was good. The severe cyclone of the 17th October which travelled across the eastern tract of this Province did some damage, the extent of which is reported to have varied from 6 to 12 per cent. Some injury was done in Saran, Champaran and Palamau, where the crops on high lands suffered for want of moisture. The recent rain received in Bengal Proper and Orissa early in this month was light, except in Puri, and no damage is apprehended. Prospects of the crop are good for the province.

Area sown.—The area sown during the year under report is now reported to be 21,235,100 acres against 17,909,500 acres reported last year. The normal area under the crop is estimated at 20,890,500 acres. The increase in the area sown has been mainly due to seasonable rainfall.

Muzaffarpur	114 per cent
Patna and Manbhum	110 „
Monghyr	108 „
The Sonthal Parganas	106 „
Bhagalpur, Sambalpur and Ranchi	105 „

The 24-Parganas, Gaya and Balasore report an average crop. Eight districts report a crop between 90 to 99 per cent. and eight more between 80 to 89 per cent. Five districts return estimates between 70 to 79 per cent. Jessore only reports a low outturn of 68 per cent. of the normal. The Provincial outturn comes up to 94 per cent., against 96 per cent. shown in the Preliminary forecast, but with the favourable weather which has prevailed in most districts, it is estimated that the yield of the crop will be above the normal.

Offg. Director of Agriculture, Bengal.

Saran ...	Sadar	675,700	547,500	141,200	33,300	124,500	12	72			141,329	......	The increase in the area sown this year as compared with that shown in the first forecast is due to the extension of cultivation in the Siwan subdivision. The decrease in the outturn is due to absence of rain at the time when the crops were about ripening. Harvesting has not yet commenced. The general condition of the crop is good. The decrease in the area sown as compared with the normal is due to want of funds and want, after successive years, of confidence in the prospects of the season.

RESOLUTION ON THE REPORT ON PUBLIC INSTRUCTION IN BENGAL FOR 1908-09.

GENERAL DEPARTMENT—EDUCATION.

READ—

The Report on Public Instruction in Bengal for 1908-09.

IN the year under review there has been a continuance of the educational activity which was primarily prompted by the Simla Conference of 1901, and a further marked increase in expenditure. The demands of the Department continue to grow, but increasing difficulty is felt on the part of the Government in meeting them. The total expenditure from all sources on institutions of all kinds has risen from 110¼ lakhs in 1905-06 to 144½ lakhs in 190 -09, and within the same period the expenditure from provincial revenues has risen from 34 lakhs to 49¾ lakhs, while within the last two years there has been an increase of 13 lakhs in expenditure from provincial revenues. Mr. James, who submitted the present report as Officiating Director, has emphasized the need for further provision of funds and for a clearly defined policy in the Department as to the proportion of total expenditure which the main heads of education should receive.

2. Controlling agencies.—The temporary appointment of a second Assistant Director to assist the Director of Public Instruction was made as the work of the head-quarters office continued to expand. It is stated that while there is less work in the preparing of new schemes, there is more work in carrying into operation the schemes already sanctioned. As regards the agency for the inspection of primary education, the department has hitherto devoted itself to increasing the number of sub-inspectors so that they may have units of reasonable size to control. In the Lieutenant-Governor's opinion a sufficient advance has been made under the head of inspection, and it is now necessary for the department to direct its efforts towards the improvement of the teaching staff.

3. Primary education for boys.—The number of boys under instruction was about twelve hundred thousand, representing 26·5 per cent. of the total male population of school-going age. The total number of primary schools for boys was 34,472, which is 518 more than in the previous year. Mr. James draws attention to the fact that the allowance of the Gurus in primary schools is inadequate; and that while the stipendiary system has brought the schools under better control, yet at the same time it has furnished an excuse for parents and guardians to diminish the payments from private sources which form a part of the traditional income of primary school teachers. In the opinion of the Lieutenant-Governor the problem is a two-fold one:—the quality of the teachers must be improved, and at the same time it is necessary that the teachers in primary schools should receive a living wage. To achieve the first object the system of Guru Training Schools has been extended throughout the province. The advance must be slow as much lee-way has to be made up. A contrast has been drawn in the report between the contributions of the Bombay and Calcutta Municipalities to primary schools. The Bombay Municipality spends one and one-third lakh and possesses 93 schools of its own, whereas the Calcutta Corporation has not a single school of its own and spends only one fifth of a lakh on primary education. It is satisfactory to notice that the Corporation has decided since the close of the year under review to appoint a sub-committee to meet the representatives of the Educational Department and to discuss the subject of the control of education.

4. Secondary education.—The proposals which were made by the Bengal Government for the improvement of secondary education and which involve a recurring expenditure of 16 lakhs, are still in abeyance; but Mr. James assures Government that something has been done to stimulate education in high schools through the inspection of these schools by officers of the Department on behalf of the University. During the year scholars in high schools have increased by over 2,000 and expenditure by Rs. 1,43,000; at the same time the number of high schools has decreased by two. This, in His Honour's opinion, gives evidence of more efficient working on the part of the existing schools.

His Honour has learnt with pleasure the good results which have been achieved by the experiment of appointing an officer of the Indian Educational Service as Head Master of the Ranchi Zilla School. The Lieutenant-Governor also agrees with the view expressed by Mr. James that an advanced high school is preferable to an inferior second grade college, but at the same time considers that the natural reluctance to lower the status of an existing college must be respected. His Honour is at one with the view expressed by Mr. James that while at first sight it might appear that the right policy for the Department is to sustain the more efficient type of schools and resist the blind and ignorant preference for anything that can be described as English education, yet it is not feasible to adopt such a policy with absolute strictness. It is to be deplored that there is a tendency to prefer a bad education in middle English schools to a good education in middle vernacular schools.

5. Collegiate education.—In collegiate education there has been a steady advance in all directions to conform with the regulations of the Calcutta University. There have been improvements in staff, buildings, science equipment, libraries and hostels. Among Government colleges, much has been done in the Presidency College for the more effective teaching of science subjects; but, as Mr. James remarks, it is obviously out of all reason that a college, even the Presidency College, should provide, without limit, an education costing far more than the fees received for it to every applicant without limit of cost or enquiry as to the applicant's fitness to profit by it. In the Patna College the chief progress made during the year was the establishment of a proper residential system. In the Krishnagar College the number of students has fallen to 86, and at present the report of a Committee which was appointed by the Lieutenant-Governor in April 1909 to advise as to the future of the college is under the consideration of Government. Mr. James has given some interesting comparisons of the net annual cost to Government per student in Government colleges; it varies from Rs. 145 per student in the Presidency College to Rs. 830 per student in the Sanskrit College. The Lieutenant-Governor has perused with interest the views of the Officiating Director on the prospects of autonomous administration which are opened up by the onstitution of governing bodies for colleges, and is in full agreement with the Director regarding the advisability of laying down for the different colleges working limits of expenditure.

6. Muhammadan education.—There has been an increase in the total number of Muhammadans under instruction of nearly 27,000 over the figures of the previous year. The number of pupils in secondary schools is nearly 17,000, but there are only 300 students in Arts Colleges. Much valuable work was done by Mr. Earle in initiating schemes for the improvement of Madrasas and the improvement of maktabs. During the year under review a scheme for the improvement of Madrasas was matured, and arrangements were made for a detailed inspection of all the private Madrasas in the Province, which has been completed since the close of the year. The scheme for the improvement of maktabs was completed; but it is only possible to bring it gradually into effect. There were 970 students at the Calcutta Madrasa at the end of 1908-09. The Elliott Madrasa Hostel is able to provide for 119 boarders. The Lieutenant-Governor has taken measures to provide another hostel to accommodate 100 students, and towards this the Nawab Bahadur of Dacca has given a liberal donation of Rs. 25,000.

7. Professional and Technical education.—The schemes for the University Law College in Calcutta, and the Patna Law College were brought into full working order after the end of the year. Pleadership classes have been revived at Hooghly, Krishnagar and Cuttack, and also in connection with the University Law College and the Government Law College at Patna.

In connection with the Engineering College at Sibpur, the Director presses strongly for the early removal of the college to a new site. There have been unforeseen difficulties in the way, but they are gradually being surmounted, and it is hoped that considerable progress may be effected within the next twelve months. It is satisfactory to note that, notwithstanding the abolition of the agricultural classes, there has been an increase in the number of students at the college. A Board of Visitors has been constituted during the year under review, and the Joint Technical Examination Board conducted the Overseer and Sub-Overseer Examinations for the two Provinces of Bengal and Eastern Bengal and Assam for the first time in March 1909. The sanction of the Secretary of State has been obtained to the appointment of a Professor of Industrial Chemistry. The course of instruction of students in mining districts has been successful and has served its purpose. Mr. James expresses a doubt as to whether the conditions admit of permanent usefulness. On the other hand the Mining Instructor urges the opening of classes for instruction at additional centres. In His Honour's opinion there is no ground for withdrawing these useful and popular classes, which have recently received the warm appreciation of the Indian Mining Association. The Bihar School of Engineering reports a successful year. Further opportunities for advance in the Public Works Department have been given to the students, and the results of the first examination held by the Joint Technical Board were favourable to the school. The Lieutenant-Governor regrets that, although he is fully in favour of the conversion of the Cuttack Survey School into a similar School of Engineering for Orissa, it has not yet been found possible to finance the project.

Mr. Percy Brown, Superintendent of the School of Art, Lahore, was appointed Principal of the Calcutta School of Art in January 1909. Good work is being done in the advanced design class, and the importance of Indian ideals and designs is clearly kept in view. The Government Commercial classes in Calcutta have increased in stability. The successful candidates in the commercial course in special examinations have increased from 23 to 35. Another important departure was the opening of the Government Weaving Institute at Serampore in January 1909. The work is at present carried on in temporary buildings, and a site has been acquired for the permanent institute. In March 1909 there were 90 students, of whom 23 were boarders. This Institute is the outcome of the efforts of Mr. Havell, formerly of the School of Arts, Calcutta, and of others to revive the indigenous weaving industry by methods suited to the actual conditions of the hand-loom industry.

8. Female education.—Mr. James has asked for further assistance to the only Female Arts College in Bengal, the Bethune College. At present there are 31 students at the college and 163 at the collegiate school. His Honour trusts that the Board of Management, the constitution of which has recently been amended, will submit proposals which, in the course of time, Government may be in a position to carry into effect. There were at the end of the year 139,245 girls under instruction in primary schools. On the one hand the number of girls in purely girls' schools has decreased, but on the other hand the number of girls in boys' schools has increased. One method which has been found useful for increasing the number of girls under tuition is to make the payment of stipends conditional upon the attendance of a minimum number of girl pupils, but this plan has its disadvantages; for, as has been pointed out by Mr. James, the girl pupils may remain present in the school, but may be altogether excluded from instruction. Nevertheless His Honour considers that the plan should be encouraged. The Training College at Patna for instructing female teachers in the art of teaching was opened in January 1909 and a Lady Principal recruited in England arrived in February. There have been many difficulties in the management, not the least of which is the entire absence of fit material for training. Nevertheless it is reported that the earnestness of the women students and their eagerness to learn are remarkable. Mr. James points out that the obstructions to any real advance in female education are the lack of teachers, the unwillingness of many parents to pay for the education of their daughters, and the early age at which girls are taken away from the schools.

9. European education.—The total expenditure on the education of Europeans shows an increase of over $3\frac{1}{4}$ lakhs as compared with the expenditure of 1907-08, but $2\frac{1}{3}$ lakhs of this increase came from private sources. The Code for European Schools in Bengal was revised after prolonged discussion in 1908, and during the year under review interest centred in the regrading of the schools in accordance with the provisions of the Code. Since the close of the year the Lieutenant-Governor has found it necessary, on account of certain representations which have been made to him, to suspend the operation of the Code which was to have come into force from the 1st of January 1910. In connection with the education of Europeans, the Lieutenant-Governor is disposed to agree with the view of Mr. James that any education which from the beginning looks beyond the age of 14 in planning a systematic course of study is secondary education. The Inspector of European Schools and the Officiating Director press strongly for the provision of funds for the completion of the scheme for the training college for female teachers. His Honour while admitting that the present arrangements for the instruction of female teachers at the Dow Hill School are not altogether satisfactory, can hold out no hope that funds will be provided in the near future. His Honour, however, is glad to learn of the good work done by Miss Davies at the Dow Hill School. The successes at the Cambridge Senior Local Examination were 20 as compared with 22 in the previous year. In the departmental high school examination 16 passed during the year under review as compared with 18 in the previous year.

10. Training of teachers.—The David Hare Training College, which was opened in July 1908, experienced many difficulties as regards sufficiency of staff and accommodation, but these difficulties have been surmounted to some extent by the zeal of the Principal, Mr. Griffith. It is regrettable that no students, other than teachers in Government schools, have yet joined to undergo a course of training. The Patna Training College was started for Bihari students in October 1908 on modest and experimental lines. The Lieutenant-Governor admits that the interests of the teachers in the Bihar districts cannot be adequately met by a single institution in Calcutta; but the provision of funds for the complete equipment of two training colleges in the Province is a serious demand upon the resources of Government. The vernacular training schools, of which there are nine in the Province, have suffered from the lack of competent instructors and of accommodation. These difficulties, especially the former, are such as only time can remedy.

The Guru training schools form the lever by which in time the whole fabric of primary education may be raised; and considerable expenditure was incurred during the year on these schools. Out of 191 of such schools to be constructed, 54 have been completed; 50 have not yet been commenced, and the construction of the remainder is going on. At the end of the year there were 3,190 gurus under instruction, and 741 of these obtained certificates of competence after a two years' course. The efforts of Government, however, in the direction of improving the quality of teachers for primary schools seemed destined to be frustrated to some extent by the fact that many gurus after their period of instruction do not return to their duties as teachers.

11. Physical and moral training.—The hostel system is gradually advancing. The Engineering Institutions at Sibpur and Bankipore are now entirely residential. The Calcutta mess scheme continues to make large demands on Government. As regards schools the same success has not been achieved as in the case of colleges. It is true that board and lodging are furnished, but in many cases under conditions which are unsatisfactory and which do not promote discipline. During the year the Government of India approved in principle the grant of free quarters to teachers attached to hostels of schools. In connection with physical training in schools and colleges, His Honour has learnt with regret that, while there is much for congratulation, yet there is a tendency to professionalism, especially in connection with foot-ball and an unhealthy emulation which shows a lack of the true spirit of sportsmanship. His Honour trusts that the department will use every endeavour to check these undesirable tendencies. As regards discipline in the best sense of the word, it has still to be learnt in many schools. As Mr. James expresses it, there is an acquiescent discipline; that is to say, there is not an active revolt from discipline. But there is not so much as there ought to be of respect for constituted authority and of the true spirit of active co-operation with authority.

12. General.—Of education in the Province during the period under review, it may be said that it has been marked by numerous efforts after progress which have been hampered by the want of money; and for the future it may be said that while collegiate education has demanded in the past, and is likely to demand in the future, a large share of Government resources, nevertheless such education is a superstructure upon weak foundations wherever the education of character and the enforcement of discipline are not binding elements in the secondary schools. His Honour is in full accord with Mr. James's view that there has been of necessity much which might be characterised as mere expansion, and that in the future the aim should be to extend only so far as the occupation can be made effective, especially as finance is the dominant factor in the situation. His Honour has perused with pleasure Mr. James's acknowledgment of the assistance and active sympathy which the Education Department has received from executive and judicial officers throughout the Province. To Mr. Küchler, who was in charge of the department for almost the entire period of the year under review, His Honour expresses his thanks for his careful and zealous administration of the Department, and he acknowledges the assistance given by the Assistant Director, Mr. J. R. Cunningham. His Honour also expresses his thanks to Mr. James for his full and suggestive report.

By order of the Lieutenant-Governor of Bengal,

J. G. CUMMING,

Secretary to the Govt. of Bengal.

The mean pressure, temperature, etc., are deduced from eye observations.

The maximum and minimum temperatures are obtained from self-registering thermometers. All the thermometers are verified, and the readings have been corrected to a standard constructed and verified at the Kew Observatory. They are exposed under a thatched shed open at the sides, and are suspended four feet above the ground.

The barometer readings are corrected to those of the standard, Newman's No. 86, formerly at the Surveyor-General's Office.

The hygrometric elements are obtained from Tables III, IV and V of the official tables computed in the Meteorological Office and based on Regnault's modifications of August's formula.

The directions and the movement of the wind are taken respectively from Dine's pressure tube anemometer and the standard dial anemometer.

The mouth of the rain-gauge is one foot above the ground. The rainfall and wind velocity reported on any day are for 24 hours preceding 8 A.M. of that day.
